Did You Know?

David Coats was the first member of Mary, Queen of Peace to be ordained a priest, on June 6, 1974. Fathers McCrisaken, Lutz, and McLaughlin concelebrated a Mass with Fr. Coats on June 9, 1974. Fr. George Coffin served as the pastor from July 7, 1977 until his death on January 28, 1981. Fr. Frank Dooley was appointed pastor on October 18, 1981 until November 22, 1983. Fr. Charles Chesebrough arrived on November 30, 1983. Mary, Queen of Peace continued to grow.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4, 3

+Dear Friends,

Last week's Gospel focused our attention on the persistent (remember, some would say pushy!) Canaanite woman, to whom Jesus said, "O woman, great is your faith."

Today our attention is drawn to Saint Peter, whom our Lord names as the "Rock" upon He will build His Church. It was to St. Peter that Jesus proclaimed, "You are Peter...to you I will give the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven."

At times it can be somewhat difficult for us to see the correlation between the readings that comprise the Liturgy of the Word at Mass. At other times, it's not difficult at all. Today is one of those occasions.

For the people first hearing the Gospels, the imagery of "keys" being entrusted to another was quite common. They knew well the Old Testament story from Isaiah we shared today; the story of Shebna and Eliakim.

Eliakim became in effect, the Prime Minister of the Palace; carrying the keys of the palace upon his shoulder and chest. He acted in the person of the king. To him was given the responsibility of either allowing persons access to the king or barring their entrance. It was no idle or insignificant position.

Borrowing this truism, our Lord Jesus Christ declared Peter to be His representative; to be the one entrusted with the keys to His eternal Kingdom both on earth as well as in heaven. This, too, was and remains, an office of supreme importance in the Church. It was to Peter and his successors, that Christ entrusted His Bride, the Church. He would never leave the Church without leadership and without His voice.

At times, I don't believe we really appreciate the great treasure and comfort Christ has given us. In a world filled with contrasting and conflicting voices and values, we look to the Successor of St. Peter for reassurance and the authority of Christ Himself. Pope Francis is not the Vicar of Peter; he is the Vicar of Christ!

Ultimately, we have to confess we are a people who don't much care for others telling us what to do. It is somehow "wired" into our minds to rebel and resist, even when we know it is in our best interest. It is an unfortunate consequence of Original Sin really. First, Lucifer rebelled against God. Next, our first parents, Adam and Eve, fell to the same obsession of pride to rebel against the voice of God. They chose to be "gods" themselves. And, we live with the results to our very day.

Yes, in the Sacrament of Baptism, we were "set aright" and washed clean of this Original Sin. However, the propensity to resist remains a part of us. Like St. Peter himself, we, too, can fall and deny Jesus; choosing our own authority; to be our own "gods."

Let today's Mass inspire us to always recognize the voice of Christ through His Vicar on earth. Let today's Mass inspire us to admit to Jesus that, yes, we are not "gods" and that we need His voice and truth in our lives; both earthly and most importantly, eternally!

On a different note, I would like to thank Mike Wigger, Mike Pritchett and Dick Harvey who donated their time to fix the dangerous sidewalk between the rectory and church! What an improvement. Also, thanks to Dave and Jan Adams for the gift of the flag pole in front of the rectory. Being born on Veterans' Day, I love it!

May God, Who has begun this good work in us, bring it to completion!

Friends of St. Anthony

Last year we shared your donations of school supplies with the Archdiocesan Holy Family Shelter, one school, and individual families. Teachers are so appreciative when they can stock up their supply closet and have readily available school items needed on a daily basis. St. Phillip's Principal was just elated when she came out to help us carry in school supplies that were stacked in our car. This helps teachers throughout the year to meet the needs of their students whose parents are struggling to purchase supplies.

Most commonly requested items:

Binder paper, folders, rulers, crayons, markers, pencils, school boxes, colored pencils, glue sticks, tissues, hand sanitizer (large or small sizes), lunch boxes, gently used and new back backs.

Please place your donated school supplies in the wicker basket inside the front doors of the church. As always thanking you in advance for your generosity and gift of sharing.

Youth Group

*The Youth Group has car window clings available, celebrating our parishes 75th Anniversary. The cost is only $5, and proceeds will help fund Youth Group trips. The Archbishop will be presented with one when he visits next month - you can get yours today!

EMHC Training

There will be a training session for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (previously Eucharistic Ministers) on Wednesday, August 27 at 7:00 P.M. This meeting is very important for ALL EMHC, who did not attend the earlier meeting on August 5. This meeting is also for the new people interested in becoming an EMHC. We will cover more details for the new people after the initial training session. We look forward to meeting with you for the training of this very important ministry in the Church.
