Mission Statement

We, the people of Mary, Queen of Peace, are called to be a Catholic faith community centered around prayer and worship and embodying Gospel values. We are a family of Christians committed to growth in faith and holiness as signs of God's presence in the world. We act in imitation of Christ, by reaching beyond ourselves in service to others.

Did You Know?

A permanent parish was established with Mary, Queen of Peace's first resident pastor, Father Anthony McLoughlin in 1946. The Archdiocese of Indianapolis purchased the Allen Campbell property shortly after the devastating Good Friday tornado in 1948.

Parish members helped remove debris and the rebuilding of the former mortuary began with parish member, Kenneth Smith as contractor.

Archbishop Paul Schulte officiated at the dedication Mass on February 13, 1949.

Nearly 500 attended a reception that afternoon.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4, 3

+ Dear Friends,

What will separate us from the love of Christ?" This question, posed by St. Paul to the Romans in today's second reading, echoes across the ages to this very day and place.

St. Paul's response...that nothing can separate us from Christ's love, is a strong statement of faith in the power of that very love itself.

The love of Jesus is made visible in today's Gospel as He feeds thousands of people with a few loaves of bread and some fish. The old canard of the people feeding each other; sharing what food they brought along, doesn't hold water. It was and is Jesus Who feeds us!

We come to Holy Mass to be fed because whether or not we recognize it, we are hungry. We hunger for spiritual nourishment and strength. We hunger for truth and clarity which only Jesus Christ can give us through His word and His Sacrament!

This nourishment; the very love of the Incarnate Word of God, Jesus Christ, is made present in the Holy Eucharist at each Holy Mass and remains in our midst in the Blessed Sacrament. Always inviting, always compassionate, always awaiting us, Jesus offers us life! Let us open our hearts and truly believe that nothing will separate us from the love of Christ Jesus! For, we know, that nothing in this world can ever take the place of Jesus Christ and His eternal nourishment!

A few more thoughts on "Humanae Vitae:" "Catholic marriage; exactly like Jesus Christ Himself, is not about scarcity but abundance. It is not about sterility, but rather the fruitfulness which flows from unitive and procreative love. Catholic married love always implies the possibility of new life. This is what the Church means when She teaches that Catholic married love is by its nature both unitive and procreative; not either/or."

On another note, it is my usual practice, upon request, to periodically visit the chronically ill or homebound for Confession and/or Anointing of the Sick. If someone you know requests this, I would be happy to schedule a visit.

Before knowledge of my transfer, a good priest friend, Fr. Jim Koressel of the Evansville Diocese and I made plans to be away. It's been since last Labor Day that I was away due to my accident in February. Next weekend, a monk from St. Meinrad will be with our parish. I know he will be welcomed in true hospitality! God bless you all!

God's blessings to you all!

Father Mike

MPQ 75th Anniversary

As part of the celebration of the founding of our parish, after the 10:30 Mass with the Archbishop as celebrant, we will have a catered luncheon to which all registered parishioners and families will be invited. In order to have plenty of food for this event, every registered household will receive an invitation with RSVP instructions. If you attend MQP, but are not registered, please call the office at 745-4284 as soon as possible so you can join us for food and fellowship on this joyous occasion. Invitations will be mailed in just a few weeks.

Parish Photographer Needed

Mary, Queen of Peace needs the "Talent and Time" of a few individuals who could take pictures of special events such as the 75th Anniversary, the Ice Cream Social, the Share Your Heart Auction, and the annual First Communion Class, etc. Your expenses would be paid. Please contact Jenny Quandt, 745-5440, or jenquandt@comcast.net.

Archives Committee

Our committee is so grateful for the conscientious, caring, parishioners who took the time to find old First Communion pictures. We are in need of just one year....June 20, 1948. If you know, or are related to, Ruth Adams, Patricia and Virginia Clossey, Judy Miles, or Raymond Rauth, please contact: Mary Williams at 765-246-6876.

Youth Group

*Who likes a cook-out? Heck, who doesn't? The Youth Group will get together for some grilling, horseshoes, and relay games on Friday, August 22nd, 6:30 to 8:30 pm. Invite a friend and be prepared to get wet...

* There will be a final informational meeting for Confirmation Candidates, their parents, (even their sponsors), on Sunday August 24th, after the 10:30 Mass. Registration, binders, and other materials will be available.

Religious Education

Registration forms for religious education classes will be available in the narthex beginning August 2nd. Forms and payments can be returned to Matthew Fallon in the R.E. building during the week, to the main office, or in the collection plate. Classes will begin on September 7th. There will be no classes on September 14 due to archbishop Tobin's visit to commemorate our dodrancentennial (75 years).

Adult Education

The last adult education summer class has been rescheduled to Sunday August 17, 14 at 12:30 pm. We will be discussing "90 Minutes in Heaven" by Don Piper. Matthew and AnnaMarie Fallon will be hosting a pitch-in event. Please bring a side dish or dessert and join in a fantastic opportunity for faith sharing and fellowship! And don't worry if you haven't been able to make it before--this is a perfect time to jump in!

If you have lost a loved one recently, or know of a parishioner who has, please contact Helen Disney so that we can include the family in our ministry. 317-745-4867 or jimandhelendisney@gmail.com

In Honor of our Blessed Mother Mary, Queen of Peace

~ Mary Leondis ~

If you would like to make a donation for fresh flowers to be placed before Mary's statue in our church, envelopes are provided and are located in the lobby. Donations will be dedicated in the name of whomever you choose. You may place your envelope in our weekly collection.
