Did You Know?

Fr. Charles Chesebrough was assigned on November 30, 1983 to our parish. During that time the existing church was built. It was designed by Architect, Kevin Callahan at the cost of $1,200,000 and seated 400 parishioners. It was dedicated by Archbishop O'Meara in 1990. Fr. Charlie was transferred to St. Charles Borromeo in Bloomington on April 26, 1995. Fr. Vincent Lampert arrived to his first pastorate on April 26, 1995. Fr. Vince was also director of the Office of Pro-Life Activities. He worked with volunteers to "spruce up" the Rectory and the Religious Education Building. He enabled many new groups to serve others until he was transferred to St. Therese of the Infant Jesus in Indianapolis on September 9, 1998.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4, 3

+Dear Friends,

"What profit would there be for a man to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? This question, posed by Jesus in today's Gospel, is without a doubt one of the critical questions for us in the twenty-first century.

A great temptation of us is to fall prey to the notion that the accumulation of wealth, possessions and power is the goal to be achieved above all else. When you stop to think about it, having the blessing of being able to have things in this world, is just that; a blessing. Yet, at the same time, what really controls our lives? How generous are we with our time, talent and treasure? What legacy do we really leave behind? The old saying: "I've never seen a hearse pulling a U-Haul" certainly is true!

Perhaps saying "no" once in awhile to something that I don't really need in my life is a good thing. It seems that this is what Jesus is trying to get across to us when He asks us to deny ourselves and take up our crosses. The very idea of doing that sometimes leaves us rather uncomfortable. For in our age, the cross is certainly not what we are told is important or for that matter, necessary in order to follow Christ. I think it's important for us to pray for one another; to pray for strength and courage to do the will of Jesus; to do all we can through Him, with Him and in Him!

Remember that this coming Friday is the First Friday of September! Once again, the parish will be taking part in our monthly Adoration beginning at 3:00 pm in the chapel. What a great gift to the Lord....and to ourselves! Come, pray for vocations and just perhaps, the ability of our parish to extend the hours of monthly Adoration!

God bless you all!

Father Mike
