The Liturgy Committee

+Dear Friends,

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4,

The month of November is upon us. In the rich history of the Church, November has been seen as a very special time to pray for and remember our beloved dead. Irregardless of the language one wishes to use in speaking of this holy practice, it is good to reflect upon this foundational facet of the Creed; the Communion of the Saints.

Let us take a look at this tenet of our Catholic Faith; in fact, of all Christendom. The Saints in heaven are named the Church Triumphant. The Church on this earth (that's you and me and all of our brothers and sisters in faith) is named the Church Militant. The word is used very deliberately. Like it or not, aware of it or not, you and I are in spiritual battle. The forces of darkness and death buffet us daily. At times, we are simply too dull to see it or be aware of it. It is not paranoia; it is a mature, faith-filled reality that we must be cognizant of. The third component if you will, of the Communion of the Saints, is the Church Suffering. All segments of the Church unite in prayer. Our Faith teaches us that death does not end our relationships with those who have gone before us; they are merely changed.

One aspect of the Communion of the Saints we need to clear up is that Vatican II "did away with" the doctrine of Purgatory. In NO way was or is this the case. Quite frankly, I could never understand why some were so hasty to believe this falsehood or even seem to propagate this mistaken notion. When properly understood, the Church's teaching in Purgatory is one of comfort. We ask those on earth each day to pray for us don't we? We ask the Saints to intercede on our behalf (or we should!). We in turn, pray for our beloved dead. That, in a nutshell, is the Communion of the Saints. That, in the same shell, is what Purgatory is all about. At times, when conducting a funeral service at the funeral home or at a committal service, I can see in the faces of those who do not share our belief in prayer for dead, a blankness or stare that mirrors an interior sadness.

Being born in November, as were three of the four of my immediate family, November has always been a special month for me. The falling leaves, the crispness of the cold air, and anticipation of what is to come, has helped shape me, if you will. I often find this time of All Hallows' Eve, All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day, to be a time of remembrance and reflection.

I loved All Hallows' Eve, aka "Hallowe'en. I always made the connection with the Feast of All Saints and, going to a Catholic school meant we always had a free day the next day! Remember? Oh, how we liked to tell our Protestant friends we had a free day!

I loved All Saints Day Mass; the incense, the resplendent white and gold vestments, the hymns. For, even though it was a free day from school, it was never a question of whether or not to celebrate Mass that day!

I loved the black vestments of All Souls' Day and the emphasis placed on praying for loved ones gone before us. Somehow, it always made them seem closer and still with us. I suppose in a little boy's mind, it helped make the Communion of the Saints come alive. It still does. Remember Jesus' words about becoming like little children? Well, much of faith calls for this open, trusting attitude doesn't it?

Next weekend is the commitment weekend for the United Catholic Appeal. Please remember to bring your time, talent and treasure commitment cards! Extras will be in the pews also. Our parish goal this year is $. Our parish has benefited in the past from this very appeal. This is our annual opportunity to recall this act of the larger Church and do OUR part as well. Of course on the local level, our parish benefits from donation of time and talent from this appeal also. This year, 75% of any monies raised over our goal, will be returned to the parish. When praying for our ancestors in the faith, we remember that we build on what they lived. In like fashion, those that come after us, will build on what we ourselves live!

"May the souls of all the faithful departed, rest in peace."

Father Mike

Please Pray

For the repose of the soul of Jack Liphardt.

~ May he rest in the loving arms of our Father in heaven. ~

United Catholic Appeal

United Catholic Appeal Intention Weekend is November 8-9, 2014. It is time to reflect on all the blessings our parish community has been given and what we, as parishioners and Catholics, are willing to give back. One hundred percent of your contribution goes toward the ministries of the Archdiocese. To see how your gifts impact the church, you can view a short four minute video on our new website, www.mqpdanville.org, or on our Facebook page. Intention cards were mailed to each household and intention card envelopes will be provided at all the Masses. Participation, no matter how small, is very important! Please take time to pray about your intended gift to the United Catholic Appeal.

Youth Group

What is the greatest number of Catholics you've seen in one place, interested in their faith and glad to be Catholic alongside other Catholics? See a boatload of 'em at ICYC. Although we have now entered the "late registration" period you can still sign up for the IN Catholic Youth Conference. The cost is now $60, and the t-shirt is not guaranteed (though archindyym.com will try their best. Register online at archindyym.com. Use the promo code "assessmyparish".

Vocations Trip November 16th- come see where people explore the religious life, find out what motivates them, what preparations they undergo. This trip is not just for folks who are determined to be ordained - learn about this aspect of our church and service to God, even if you will follow a different life path. Young men will visit the Simon Brute Seminary in Indy, young women will travel to the Our Lady of Grace Monastery in Beech Grove. Students from grades 7 through 12 are invited.

Make a difference in the life of disabled children - turn in your hard plastic bottle caps in the RE building for the "Caps Of Love" drive, October 26-November 23. Take a peek at the display in the narthex to see what you can contribute. Instead of throwing them in the trash, bring them in to help raise money to buy wheelchairs for needy kids! Couldn't be easier!

Religious Education

Meet our catechists: Both our catechists for Level 6 are long-time teachers, Jane Hazelton and Emily Morris.

The level 2 class is welcoming donations for the Christmas play. Angel costume props, shepherd props and king outfits would be happily re-used. These may be dropped off at the religious education building in either the level 2 room at the end of class, or in the office.

Adult Education

This week we will be discussing chapter 6 "What Is The Authentic Life?" All are welcome to join us either Sunday morning 9:15 to 10:15 am down stairs or Monday 7-8 pm in the Religious Education building.

R.C.I.A.

Maureen Devlin will be teaching this week's topic, "Jesus." Classes meet on Thursdays at 7:00 pm in the lower level. All parishioners are welcome to attend, you don't have to be part of the RCIA program, and you can attend any classes that interest you. You can also check out the RCIA Newsletter online at MQPDanvilleRCIA.blogspot.com

Thank you from R.C.I.A

The RCIA class would like to thank the Women's Group for donating the Bibles that were presented to the class last Sunday. We really appreciate all of the support that you give to the program.
