“God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men.”

1 Thessalonians 2:4,

+Dear Friends,

The parable about the Kingdom of God presented by our Lord in today’s Gospel includes this invitation: “Tell those invited...everything is ready; come to the feast.”

We received this invitation on the day of our baptism into Christ and His Holy Church. In a sense, our entire Catholic life here on earth is like a long procession from our mother’s womb to the place awaiting us at the heavenly banquet.

So much seems to get in our way as we proceed along this processional route, doesn’t it? Sometimes we forget that we were even invited in the first place! Worse still, sometimes we turn our backs, like those in the parable who ignored the invitation.

And yet, our Father is always there, as is that divine invitation. As we depart from the church today, let us remember that the invitation still stands. And, that holy invitation does require an RSVP!

This weekend is Vocation Awareness Weekend throughout the Church. It is the perfect time to begin our parish’s own prayer offering. And most importantly, it the time to recommit ourselves to daily prayer for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life; especially within our own Archdiocese! We are blessed to once again have around 28 seminarians this year! What a blessing for us! Continue your prayers and commitment to our monthly Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament for vocations as well!

Next weekend, a basket will be placed in the narthex with “All Souls’ Day Envelopes” for you to use this year as we prepare to observe the Holy Day of All Saints’ and the Feast of All Souls. Simply write the names of your beloved dead on the envelope, include a stipend for Mass and return no later than Sunday, October 26th to be inscribed in our “Book of Remembrance” which will remain in the sanctuary the entire month of November as we, in a very special way, remember and pray for the Poor Souls and our own beloved gone before us. The stipends will provide for Masses for the “Poor Souls” throughout the coming year!

God’s blessings be upon you all!

Father Mike

Friends of St. Anthony

Once again you have proven what a generous and giving parish you are to those in need. Our school supply drive was exceptional this year. Sheltering Wings was the recipient of all of these school supplies and so needed. The children in the shelter are of great numbers and these items cannot be provided by most of the mothers who live at the shelter. God blesses those who reach out to others and you definitely are blessed.

He had taken a break after having serving as a catechist some years ago. There will be no Religious Education Classes again next week during schools' fall break. We will resume again on October 26.

Miles Away

We have received some of our first volunteers to correspond with our young parishioners who are miles away from us - now we need nominations for receiving these letters of connection and support! For either role, please find the basket of yellow interest cards in the church entrance fill it out and return it to the basket, or drop it in the collection plate. Thank you for helping us spread the Christian love of our parish to those who are temporarily away from us.
