Father de JesuMaria will share personal witness about Food for the Poor's mission to care for the destitute as a means of living out the Gospel mandate to love one another. “God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men.”

1 Thessalonians 2:4,

+Dear Friends,

“The Kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce fruit.” This final line from today’s Gospel continues to challenge us, as have the Scriptures for the past several weeks.

It asks us to remember what happened when we were baptized. For some, that important event was long ago. For others, it has been rather recently celebrated. Either way, we were “christened;” we ‘put on’ Jesus Christ and His mission, His truth, His life. These were made our own.

This certainly doesn’t necessarily mean accomplishing ‘great feats’ of discipleship in this life. Much of what we are called to live and truly be, is hidden from the eyes of this world. What it usually means is that we nurture and sustain our faith life by active participation in the liturgical life of the Church, adoration of Christ in the Eucharist purely for love of Him, prayer for others and acts of Christian charity. These are all the fruits of the vineyard of the Kingdom of God.

On this Respect Life Sunday, let us all renew our commitment to the protection of all human life, from conception to natural death. As Catholics, it is of eternal consequence that we “practice what we preach.” The support of life is the utmost “issue” of our faith and its practice. Yes, it trumps all other “issues” and concerns.

All Catholic teaching stems from the firm belief in the dignity of each life; therefore life must be protected from the first moment of its conception. It is NOT a matter of “choice.” It is a matter of life!

I am very happy to announce that ALL the Liturgical items that have been added to the parish have been generously donated in memory or in honor of loved ones by parishioners! They all wish to remain anonymous so on behalf of our parish, I extend a sincere “Thank-You & God Bless You!” The only remaining item is the bell carillon system, which would enable us to ring out Mass times and play Catholic hymns. We are working on that one. In the time I have been here in Danville, I have not heard ONE church bell! Are there any? If not, then the Catholics are going to make it happen!

Some of you are aware that I was originally to be away this next week leading a pilgrimage to Italy. This was set up long before knowing I was being transferred to MQP. The pilgrimage didn’t materialize due to lack of numbers able to go. Therefore, having already secured a missionary to come, I am taking some days to learn more about Spiritual Direction....how to serve as a Director as well as gaining more advantage from having one personally. As priests, we are to do this on a regular basis. I’ll pray for you as you pray for me!

God Bless You All!

Father Mike

The Liturgy Committee

Youth Group

*At the end of the parable of the talents (Matthew) we are instructed that those who seek more will get more, those who have less will get less. Luke's version says even that little will be lost. We all must participate in developing our faith. On Nov 2 the IN Catholic Youth Conference offers you the chance to have some fun, to grow your faith and strengthen your friendship with God. Register online this year - the youth group will split the cost of the conference with you. An email has been sent with details. Adult chaperones and drivers will also be needed - contact Matthew to help!

*On Oct 19 at 3pm....WE RIDE!! At Turkey Run State Park. Come ride the horses, eat at the inn at 5 pm, and take a long hayride at 7pm. Should be home by 9:00 pm. The Youth Group Treasury will kick in funds to bring your cost down to 10 plus dinner (which ranges between $7 and $10)! Reserve your spot by Oct. 12...see the autumn foliage with friends (bring one too)...watch where you step!

*Vocations Trip coming in November - come see where people explore the religious life, find out what motivates them, what preparations they undergo. This trip is not just for folks who are determined to be ordained - learn about this aspect of our church and service to God, even if you will follow a different life path.

Religious Education

*Meet our catechists: Level Five classes are being taught by our newest and our most experienced teachers. Krista Zurliene joins us for the first time this year, putting her professional knowledge and experience to work for our young parishioners. Barbara Humphries began serving as a catechist in her teens, when a Sister recognized a budding talent and encouraged her. Barbara has been teaching the faith ever since.

Please Pray

For the repose of the soul of Myra Eckstein, grandmother of Greg Glaser, who died this week.

May she rest in the loving arms of our Father in heaven.
