Prayer Line

If you know of someone who needs the special healing power of prayer, or if you would like to be a part of this ministry, call Fran Strauss at 317-745-5640.

Parishioner Christian Correspondence

Have you ever been separated from your community of support, or felt disconnected from your past, your friends, your faith? You can help dispel this feeling for our young adults who are away from home for higher education, training, or military service by providing a connection with their parish community.

This ministry will let parishioners "adopt a young adult" to write to four times during the year. We can offer them encouragement, parish information, our care and our prayers.

Fill out a sign-up card in the church entrance to be paired with a student/service member and get started. Families of our widespread young adults, please fill out the card to nominate your child to receive these letters of support.

Thank you for your care and efforts to keep us connected and growing!

“God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men.”

1 Thessalonians 2:4, 3

“...every tongue shall confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.”

This line, taken from today’s second reading, may seem like it came from a lilting piece of poetry. In a sense, it does.

When we really think about it, this phrase asks something quite extraordinary of us. To refer to any human person as “Lord,” in the religious sense, defined them as God. Now, in the mundane or human sphere, kings and various vassals were often times called “lord.” This was totally in the human realm however. In our context today, the use of the word “Lord” denotes divinity. Everyone who heard St. Paul knew exactly what he was saying. It’s no wonder that to pious Jews, this was blasphemy.

If we are to make this confessional statement in our hearts, it means that we need to turn away from all those realities that we have made the “lords” of our own life. And, we know that is not easy to do.

A good question that today’s Mass asks us is this:

“Who is the “lord” of my life? That should provide all of us ample to reflect upon!

Once again this coming Friday, we will offer Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament for Vocations. Come, let us worship Him! Let us bring to our Eucharistic Lord, our hopes and dreams, our disappointments and sufferings. Let us unite them for the intention of Vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life! If you would like to sign up for a time of Adoration, please do so! It is my deep desire to see Adoration GROW in our parish! I would love to see us able to offer Adoration from after the Thursday Mass at 5:30pm until 9:00pm and then once more before the First Friday morning Mass, beginning then with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament! Only YOU can enable us to do this however! YOU must offer time to come and adore the Lord! Contact Judy Schneider if interested!

God bless you all!

Father Mike

Hawkins Open House

The children of Joe and Regina Hawkins are inviting you to an Open House for their parents 60th Wedding Anniversary and Joe's 90th birthday; Sunday October 5th, 1:00 to 4:00 pm at the Senior Center, 1201 Sycamore Lane, Danville, IN. Regina and her family moved into the area attending Mary Queen of Peace since 1942 and Joe since 1954. In their earlier years they were quite active in Women's Club, Men's Club, food stand at town carnival, food stand at 4-H fair, food stand at parish festival, many fish fries and so much more. Joe has been the church custodian at different times over the years; he retired from Allison/General Motors in 1989 after working for 36 years. They have 5 children, 9 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren. We would love to see you at the open house, or send cards. NO GIFTS, PLEASE.

Women’s Club

I want to personally thank all who volunteered to set up, decorate, serve, and clean up for the 75th Anniversary celebration. A L’oven Spoonful 714-8730 and Shugsakes 373-8828 did a great job. I couldn’t have done it without the help of everyone involved. Our next meeting will be on Wednesday, Oct. 1 at 7:00 pm. Our guest speaker will be Susan Ellis from Seniors Helping Seniors.

Thank you, Debbie Miller, Women’s Club President.

Men’s Blue Jeans.

The Friends of Saint Anthony is collecting new or gently used men’s blue jeans. Northview Christian Church offers a Clothes Closet Program, where anyone in need can come and shop for clothing and shoes (for men, women and children). They are especially in need of men’s blue jeans currently. Blue jean donations may be placed in the basket just inside of our church entry doors. If you are interested in donating other items, we recommend contacting Northview Christian Church directly. Sounds like a great program. Thanks so much!

R.C.I.A.

The topic this week is "Revelation, Creation, and the Angels." Classes meet on Thursdays at 7:00 pm in the lower level. All parishioners are welcome to attend—you don't have to be part of the RCIA program, and you can attend any classes that interest you. You can also check out the RCIA Newsletter online at <http://MQPDanvilleRCIA.blogspot.com>.

Youth Group

*The Indy Men's Conference is now history, but another conference is coming pretty soon. The Indianapolis Catholic Youth Conference is November 2nd. You can register online or through Matthew. This is a good opportunity to grow your appreciation for our faith and our church. T-shirt, dinner, and concert are included. See Marian University, meet cute Catholic teens from around the state, and more. The deadline for registration is approaching - get moving! We are in need of chaperones and drivers too. Adults make the trip for free. This event will fulfill one of the preparations for confirmation candidates.

*Watch out for 'the big black ball of death.' That's Matthew's bowling ball. It is ready to humble everyone in low ball at the Brownsburg Bowling Alley, the evening of October 5. We got a deal: $5 for 2 games and shoes, but you must be signed up by SEPT 28 for this price break (you can still come and bowl with us)

*Our next group event will be a trip to Brownsburg Bowl. Will Matthew reclaim the "lowball" crown? He's already predicting victory. Find out Oct 5th! $5 for two games and shoes IF you sign up/pay by the 28th of September. Cost will be more if you show up unannounced.

*On Oct 19 at 3pm....WE RIDE!! At Turkey Run State Park. Come ride the horses, eat at the inn at 5 pm, and take a long hayride at 7pm. Should be home by 9:00 pm. The Youth Group Treasury will kick in funds to bring your cost down to 10 plus dinner (which ranges between $7 and $10)! Reserve your spot by Oct. 12...see the autumn foliage with friends (bring one too)...watch where you step!

*Vocations trip coming in November - come see where people explore the religious life, find out what motivates them, what preparations they undergo. This trip is not just for folks who are determined to be ordained - learn about this aspect of our church and service to God, even if you will follow a different life path.

Religious Education

*Parents: We will pray the Rosary during morning Prayer (grade level 2 and above) after the normal morning prayer. You can help prepare them by reviewing this prayer at home with your children so they are more ready to take part, and get more out of it. Thanks for your support.

*Level Three classes are taught by the returning team of Mallorie Moore and Stephanie Wigger. This is Mallorie's third year teaching the class. Stephanie, also a third year catechist, enjoys volunteering with children (fitting for a teacher) and likes the closer knowledge of her children's involvement in the program. She finds it convenient to volunteer at RE classes since she is at church already. Thank you both for your commitment to our children.
