Did You Know?

Fr. Tom Stepanski immediately stepped in and took on the task of the Legacy of Hope Campaign with a large group of volunteers. The mortgage was burned on August 29, 1999; the same day as the 60th Anniversary of Mary, Queen of Peace was celebrated. Fr. Tom served our parish until July 7, 2005 when he requested an early retirement. Fr. Bernie Cox served our parish from January 7, 2005 until April 16, 2014. He was instrumental in improving the beauty of the gardens in front of the rectory, thanks to the hard work of volunteers of Mary, Queen of Peace. Fr. Michel Fritsch arrived on July 2, 2014 to serve our parish. He had been pastor at St. John the Apostle, Bloomington from 2004 along with being the Archdiocesan Judge of the Metropolitan Tribunal until 2011 when he became Dean of the Bloomington Deanery. In 2013, he was Pastor of Sacred Heart in Clinton and St. Joseph of Rockville.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4, 3

In today's Mass we hear "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." We've heard this many, many times before, haven't we? Sadly it seems that it goes in one ear and out the other. It's always good for us to be reminded of this "great commandment" however!

We don't have to look very far to see that this great commandment simply has not taken root in our hearts. What are we called to do? First, we must heed this commandment in our marriages, families, parish and school. Second, we can acknowledge the truth of the great commandment. It comes down to basic respect and Christian charity and kindness. It sounds so very simple but amazingly, we seem to have a hard time putting it to practice. At times, it boggles the mind doesn't it? The culprit of course, is the residual effect of Original Sin. Sure, at Baptism we are cleansed of this sin. However, its effects are such that we battle against them for our entire lives. It's called concupiscence. It means that within us all, we have a tendency to allow our pride to rule over us. Pride is the reason we find it so very easy to judge others. We are called to think of others; do we? Or, would we rather continue to gossip and think more highly of ourselves?

Let us welcome Christ Jesus in this holy place and look to Him to be our strength as we strive to live the great commandment each day of our lives! Perhaps you could name one opportunity you will have in the coming week to respond to the commandment to "love your neighbor as yourself."

Very soon, our boys and girls return to Religious Education Classes. It's a perfect opportunity for us all to pray for them. And, to pray for all parents as they commit themselves once more to the tremendous heritage we share in the Catholic Church!

Oh, yes, one final thought. Next Sunday we celebrate the great Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross! The liturgical color is brilliant red. Why not wear red to Mass to celebrate this wonderful Feast? Of course, Archbishop Tobin will be with us at the 10:30 Mass to celebrate the 75th Anniversary of our parish as well! Truly, a day to celebrate!

God's blessings upon us all!

Father Mike

NEIGHBOR

Maternity Clothes Needed

Birthline, a ministry of the Pro-Life and Family Life Office in the Archdiocese, provides baby layettes and supplies for low-income families. In the past year, we have assisted almost 1100 mothers, many having more than one baby. Our supply of maternity clothes is dwindling quickly. The greatest needs are L, XL 2XL, and 3XL (no smaller sizes). These donations are most appreciated as we continue to assist the families who come to Birthline. For more information please, contact Jená Hartman at (317) 236-1433 or jhartman@archindy.org.

The Healing Power of God's Love and Mercy

Jesus loves those affected by abortion and so does His church. Those wounded by the effects of an abortion often suffer alone and in silence. Pope Saint John Paul II directly spoke to those carrying the burden of suffering and emphasized healing, which can be found through our merciful heavenly Father. You are invited to learn about the call of the church to show God's mercy and love on Monday, September 8, 2014 at 7 pm at St. Monica Parish Indianapolis (St. Augustine Room). Guest speaker Debbie Miller will give her witness and provide insight into the needs of those suffering and different ways each of us can help.

Blessed Mother
