The Liturgy Committee

+Dear Friends,

“God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men.”
1 Thessalonians 2:4,

As we enter these final days of Ordinary Time and the liturgical year of 2014, our readings begin to turn our attention to the “end times.”

St. Paul warns us that “the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.” It’s interesting to note that the season of Ordinary Time began way back in January with St. John the Baptist pointing out Jesus and declaring Him to be the “Lamb of God.” From the moment St. John sounded that announcement of faith, the Lord Jesus has been our Guide and Leader, calling us into greater discipleship.

Today, He asks us not to bury the treasures entrusted to us at our Baptism, but to invest them; our gifts and talents, to help further His Kingdom. It is both a challenge and privilege for us to do so!

The “end times” theme, which overarches the readings this weekend as well as next and into Advent, really have already begun. How so? Well, when Jesus Christ came into our world, taking on flesh, the miracle of the Incarnation, He ushered in the “end times.” One does not have to consult mediums (which is a serious sin, by the way) or horoscopes or try to figure out when the Lord will return in glory. The Bride of Christ, the Church, has been living in the “end times” since Jesus inaugurated it! This theology beautifully corresponds to the Gospel reading today. As I mentioned above, Jesus calls us to use the gifts and talents which have been given us, to further His Kingdom, that is, Holy Mother Church. The Church’s sole purpose is to be the means for souls to gain eternal life. This is our call, our graced honor, in which to participate. Now, more than ever, we need to step up to the plate and be the Catholics we say we are! There are positive signs that the Church is once again uniting to combat the God-less, secularist and relativistic culture in which we live today. IF Catholics step up and live the faith we profess, we can help change our world back to God! May God, Who has begun this good work in us, bring it to completion!

As we stand at this point, our parish has reached $20,775.00. toward our goal of $27,413.00. for this year’s United Catholic Appeal. If you have not returned your pledge card of your Time, Talent and Treasure, PLEASE DO SO SOON! I thank you for your support and commitment shown to our parish and Archdiocese!

On a personal note, I wish to thank one and all for your kind cards and remembrances for my birthday this past Tuesday, November 11th, Veterans’ Day. Thank you all very much! It’s not easy crossing the threshold of 60, but one can handle it!

May you have a prayer-full week, everyone!

Father Mike

Musicians Wanted

Calling all musicians! If you are in Middle School, High School, and BEYOND and play an instrument, we would like your help to enhance the Christmas Season with special music. If you can help, please sign up on the bulletin board and we will get together soon!. Questions? Contact Helen Corbitt at (317) 745-4773. Thank you for sharing your musical talents with Mary Queen of Peace!

Thank You

Our Women’s Club would like to extend deep gratitude to the Stewards of Mary, Queen of Peace that extended their “Time, Talent” and Treasure” to support the Christmas Bazaar. Thanks! to the VOLUNTEERS that gave their time setting up and those that worked at the bazaar or cleaned-up afterwards. Thanks! to all the parishioners and friends that purchased a raffle ticket and all of those that attended and purchased items or food. The profit from the Christmas Bazaar will be used towards the Liturgical needs of the parish.

Winners of the Raffle are:

- 1st Prize: Eva Tax---Embroidered Wall Hanging
- 2nd Prize: Lois Ray—Watercolor Painting
- 3rd Prize: Marilyn Caldwell---Nativity Set
- 4th Prize: Anna Wray---American Girl Doll
- 5th Prize: Alexis Doyle---Afghan

Friends of St. Anthony Giving Tree

The Giving Tree will be ready on the week end of Nov 15th with lots of tags for the Catholic Charities Christmas Store and individual families in our community. Again please don’t wrap the presents so families can choose gifts that their family members need and select appropriate sizes of clothing. Please return your tag with the present. Last year the store helped 650 families throughout communities and churches. All the names they receive are screened and sent by local agencies, health professionals, teachers, and churches.

If you have more, then you share.

Youth Group

Vocations Trip Tonight is our vocations trip: girls to the Benedictine monastery at 4:00pm, guys to Brute seminary at 5:00pm. There is still room for a last minute addition!

We will be accepting plastic bottle caps for one more week, until the 23rd - keep 'em coming! They're starting to pile up nicely.

Our next youth group activity will be December 14th, a service project making blankets for homeless folks facing winter weather. Please contact Matthew if you want to help so we can get enough supplies.

Middle school students: on Nov. 23rd (next week!) we will be Christmas shopping for a needy family and wrapping the gifts afterward. Anyone in the parish who would like to contribute funds toward this effort may do so in the narthex after the masses, or find Beth Dieckmann or Matthew Fallon. Please contact us if you have questions.

Can you make music? Help the music ministry enhance the liturgy of the mass during the Christmas season (and perhaps beyond) by adding your dulcet tones to our atmosphere! ANY instruments are welcome (accordion anyone?) Call Helen Corbitt at 745-4773 to find out more.

Religious Education

Meet our catechists: Shawna Schack and Kira Wray are leading the Kindergarten class this year. Shawna is teaching for her second year and Kira adds her enthusiasm for the first time this year.

Our grapevine of good deeds and Christian love is growing in the hallway - good to see! We still have 34 students who have perfect attendance this year!

There will be no religious education classes November 30th during Thanksgiving break.

Bereavement Ministry

If you have lost a loved one recently, or know of a parishioner who has, please contact Helen Disney so that we can include the family in our ministry. 317-745-4867 or jimandhelendisney@gmail.com

2015 Calendars

The 2015 calendars are available in the vestibule. Please take one.

Annual Christmas Party

Mark your calendars!! Our annual parish Christmas party will be Sunday, December 21, immediately following the 10:30 mass. Meat and drinks will be provided, and we ask that everyone bring a side dish or dessert to share. We will have a Christmas craft for the kids and a special visit from Santa and Mrs Claus! Please come and enjoy some holiday cheer with your parish family. Please contact Mandy Shelley at 745-1183 with any questions.
