The Liturgy Committee

+Dear Friends,

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."
1 Thessalonians 2:4,

The readings for the entire liturgical year of 2014 led us to today's celebration of the Solemnity of Christ the King and today's Gospel from St. Matthew.

On this final Sunday before the holy time of Advent begins, the Lord Jesus tells us just how our activity will be judged when we finally "meet our Maker" face to face. The text is nothing short of chilling, for there is no escaping its central questions.

We are each asked to examine how we have or have not fed the hungry, given or not given drink to the thirsty, welcomed or shunned the stranger, clothed or ignored the naked and visited or turned away from the imprisoned.

The Holy Spirit is our strength and our guide as we are formed into disciples. At the close of this liturgical year, let us turn to the Holy Spirit, seeking His help to respond to what our Lord Jesus commands of us in today's Gospel!

Of course, it goes without saying that one can interpret our Lord's commands in a spiritual sense also. When it comes to spirituality and knowledge of Christ Jesus, His Church and most especially His Presence in the Holy Eucharist, there are many "hungry, thirsty, naked and imprisoned" people. Perhaps even more so, aiding in another's eternal salvation is of utmost charity and kindness.

Let us think back to one year ago today, November 23, 2013. In what ways in the past year have I fed the hungry, given drink to the thirsty, welcomed the stranger, clothed the naked and visited the imprisoned?

Please note in today's bulletin, the Mass for Thanksgiving will be celebrated this coming Wednesday evening at 7:00pm. Come, let us offer the true "thanksgiving"....the Holy Eucharist! Hope to see you at Holy Mass for Thanksgiving Eve!

As of today's bulletin, our parish stands at $----- in this year's United Catholic Appeal. If you have not completed your pledge card, please do so by the end of the month. Again, THANK YOU FOR YOUR COMMITMENT & GENEROSITY TO OUR PARISH AND ARCHDIOCESE!

To one and all, a very safe and HAPPY THANKSGIVING!!

Father Mike

Again, please don't wrap the presents so families can choose gifts that their family members need and select appropriate sizes of clothing. Please return your tag with the present. Last year the store helped 650 families throughout communities and churches. All the names they receive are screened and sent by local agencies, health professionals, teachers, and churches.

Catholic Charities News

Catholic Charities has created the Catholic Help Network (CHN) to connect those in need to the various social services offered by our Catholic parishes and other Catholic institutions. Learn about the huge number of amazing ministries being offered by our Church at chn.archindy.org
