The Liturgy Committee

+Dear Friends,

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4,

Today we celebrate what, to some, seems like an obscure feast. One is tempted to wonder, "Why do we honor a church building in Rome in today's Liturgy?" Good question and we have a good answer also.

The reason has everything to do with the particular Roman church. The Basilica of Saint John Lateran in Rome is the cathedral church of the Bishop of Rome, aka, Pope Francis. It is the Pope's diocesan cathedral and contains the papal throne.

Many Catholics mistakenly think that Saint Peter's Basilica is the cathedral of Rome, yet it is not. One of the striking features of the Lateran Basilica (so named for the hill of Rome on which it is built and for the family who originally donated the property to the Pope) are the statues of the twelve Apostles which line the central nave. Larger than life, one can spend quite some time taking in each statue's qualities and symbols. They are graphic signs of the Church being built upon the Rock of St. Peter and the Apostolic Faith which comes to us through the twelve.

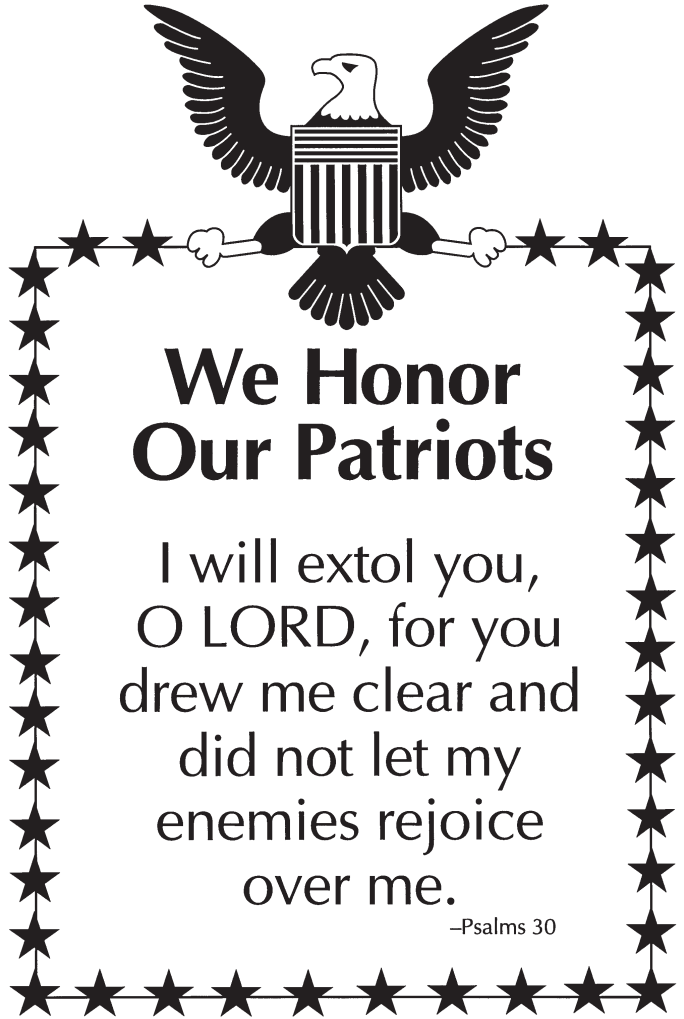

St. John Lateran is the church in which the Pope delivers talks to the priests of the diocese of Rome. Outside, one finds the statue of St. Francis; arms outstretched symbolically holding up the Church of Jesus Christ. The image comes from the dream the Pope at the time of St. Francis had regarding Francis.

St. John Lateran is thus celebrated as the "Mother Church of Christendom." It is for this honor that we here in Indiana, celebrate this holy church of Rome. The feast is also a celebration of our unity in and with the Holy Father. Thus, it is a grand feast and a time of prayer with and for Pope Francis!

This Tuesday is Veterans' Day. It's the perfect day to "thank a vet" for his or her service to our nation and in defense of our people. I well remember often going to the courthouse in Brazil for the annual memorial at "eleven o'clock on the eleventh day of the eleventh month" for all the veterans past and present; especially remembering those who gave the last full measure of devotion and gave their lives for us.

THANK YOU VETS!

United Catholic Appeal

United Catholic Appeal Intention Weekend is November 8-9, 2014. It is time to reflect on all the blessings our parish community has been given and what we, as parishioners and Catholics, are willing to give back. One hundred percent of your contribution goes toward the ministries of the Archdiocese. To see how your gifts impact the church, you can view a short four minute video on our new website, www.mqpdanville.org, or on our Facebook page. Intention cards were mailed to each household and intention card envelopes will be provided at all the Masses. Participation, no matter how small, is very important! Please take time to pray about your intended gift to the United Catholic Appeal.

Youth Group

*Vocations Trip November 16th - come see where people explore the religious life, find out what motivates them, what preparations they undergo. This trip is not just for folks who are determined to be ordained - learn about this aspect of our church and service to God, even if you will follow a different life path. Young men will visit the Simon Brute Seminary in Indy, young women will travel to the Our Lady of Grace Monastery in Beech Grove. Students from grades 7 through 12 are invited.

*Make a difference in the life of disabled children - turn in your hard plastic bottle caps in the RE building for the "Caps Of Love" drive, October 26 through November 23. Take a peek at the display in the narthex to see what you can contribute. Instead of throwing them in the trash, bring them in to help raise money to buy wheelchairs for needy kids! Couldn't be easier!

Religious Education

*Meet our catechists: Our level 4 catechists are Brandi Morris and Monica Grundman. Brandi has been a catechist at MQP for years. Monica has taught an RE class for 7 years total. She volunteered because she missed teaching, and teaching religion classes and was looking for a way she could serve the church.

*The level 2 class is welcoming donations for the Christmas play. Angel costume props, shepherd props and king outfits would be happily re-used. These may be dropped off at the religious education building in either the level 2 room at the end of class, or in the office.

Trash Bags

The Knights of Columbus has a new stock of trash bags.
15 gallon white 65/roll
39 gallon yellow 25/roll
The rolls are $10.00 each available at the K of C breakfast or at the office.
