Mary Queen of Peace Pro-Life

Because we celebrate "LIFE", there is a table in the narthex with items available for a free will offering.

+Dear Friends,

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

One commentary on today's Gospel makes the point that one line of the Gospel stands out: "The people were astonished at His teaching." St. Mark, of course, is speaking about Jesus' teaching in the synagogue at the beginning of His public ministry. The reason for their astonishment? It was because Jesus taught truth and with perfect conviction.

Looking at our own lives sometimes we come to Mass or other times of prayer and the words of the Scripture or prayers wash over us. Like the man with an unclean spirit in today's Gospel, we can have too many "spirits" of our own that distract us and make us less receptive to the grace of God. We're not possessed, but we could very well be obsessed with the cares and worries of life when we try to pray.

As we hear how Jesus drives the unclean spirit from the man, let us ask the Lord to drive from our hearts any distractions or sins that prevent us from knowing the true power and joy that only He can offer us! As we gather for Mass and then go forth, let us pray that our hearts will not be hardened, but open to His grace and mercy!

This coming Tuesday, February 3rd, the Church celebrates the feast day of the martyr, St. Blaise. Long invoked as the patron saint of those suffering from diseases of the throat, the prayers of St. Blaise are sought in a special blessing on his feast day.

St. Blaise first studied and became a physician. He was later ordained to the priesthood and made bishop of Sebaste in Armenia, where he was seized and carried off to prison by Agricola, the governor.

On his way to prison, a mother whose child suffered from a disease of the throat implored his help. At his intercession the child was cured and since that time, his help has often been solicited. After cruel torture, the Saint was beheaded in the year 316 AD.

During the 5:30 p.m. Mass on Tuesday, throats will be blessed through the intercession of St. Blaise, Bishop and Martyr. It is a sacramental of the Church by which we invoke the healing power of Christ. Perhaps you can join us! If a large number attend, it could take a bit. But, that's OK; we're in church!

Have a good week everyone. God bless you all!

Father Mike

Youth News

THANK YOU to everyone who helped make our Family Taco-Bingo Night a big success: from the workers (youth and adult), to those who donated desserts and bingo prizes, to those who attended and contributed money. Such a turnout! We raised $1,000 for this year's designated charities: the new Women's Care Center located next to the Planned Parenthood facility on Georgetown Rd., and the pet food pantry at the Humane Society.

Join us after the 10:30 Mass in the youth room to watch mainstream movie clips. We can discuss the ideas they include and what it means to us. Share your thoughts and let others learn from you. We'll be done by noon so you can get to lunch!

Practice your card shuffling - get ready to call trump - the annual MQP youth euchre championship is February 8th, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Come to enjoy the hot hands and hot dogs. If you want a refresher/tutorial on the rules, contact Matthew to set up an appointment at 6:00 p.m.

Help each other out - pray for each other! Pray for our confirmation candidates, that they will be ready. Pray for other students that they successfully navigate the stresses and demands of school; pray for other teens that they grow closer to Jesus and have a more happy life.

What Are You Doing To Discern Your Vocation?" This is the question posed in this year's Serra Club essay contest. Students in grades 7-12 are eligible. Cash prizes awarded and more. Deadline is February 20th. Details are on the bulletin boards or contact Matthew with questions and submissions.

Youth Scholarship Available
