+Dear Friends,

The holy Christmas Season continues! On this first weekend of the new year, we celebrate the wonderful Solemnity of the Epiphany! It is a celebration of the manifestation of Christ Jesus as the true Light of the World; the Savior of Jew and Gentile alike!

It is an ancient tradition in Catholic households to ask God's blessing upon the family home on today's Solemnity. Printed below you will find the blessing prayer to be offered by the family gathered inside the front door. Afterwards using chalk, the following is inscribed over the door: 20+C+M+B 15.

Of course, the initial represent the names of the three Magi, or Kings, Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar. As the Magi represent the entirety of humanity coming to and proclaiming Jesus as the Christ, the Messiah of all peoples, may we, too, proclaim Him in our lives and actions! We, too, are called to bring others to the truth and life that is Jesus Christ. What we have been given, we freely invite and share. May the holy Magi, pray for us!

It is also a liturgical tradition that the Epiphany Proclamation is read. I reprint here for your reflection:

"The glory of the Lord has shone upon us and shall ever manifest itself among us until the day of His return. Through the rhythms and changes of time, let us call to mind and live the mysteries of salvation."

"The center of the whole liturgical year is the Paschal Triduum of the Lord, crucified, buried and risen, which will culminate in the solemn Vigil of Easter, during the holy night that will end with the dawn of the 5th of April."

"From Easter, there comes forth and are reckoned all the days we keep holy: Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the Lenten Season, the 18th of February; the Ascension of the Lord, the 17th of May and Pentecost, the 24th of May; the First Sunday of Advent, the 29th of November."

"To Christ Who was, Who is and Who is to come, the Lord of time and history, be endless praise for ever and ever. AMEN!"

Catholics Returning Home

Do you know someone who has left the Church? Most of us do not have to look very far to find nonpracticing Catholics in our circle of family and friends. Many of us are concerned about these loved ones, but we don't know how to help them. Obviously, most of them are searching, but how can we help them find their way home?

As baptized, practicing Catholics we have a precious gift of faith and love from the Lord that needs to be shared with or nonpracticing brothers and sisters. First, we need to pray for them. Next, we need to extend a personal invitation to them to come home to the Catholic Church. Most nonpracticing Catholics are waiting for an invitation to return. Many mistakenly think they are excommunicated and are not welcome to return for a variety of reasons.

Many nonpracticing Catholics carry with them a tremendous amount of guilt and misinformation about the Church and are afraid of approaching the Church for fear of being rejected. You can make a tremendous difference in someone's life simply by reaching out to them and telling them that we miss them and would like for them to come back home to our Church family. At St. Malachy Parish in Brownsburg there is a special program to help nonpracticing Catholics return to the Church entitled "Catholics Returning Home." The next series begins on January 14th, 2015 at St. Malachy Church at 7pm. Please give this information to anyone who might be interested. For more information, please call Chad Jasper at (317)650-5751 or email chad.jasper@kofc.org

Youth Group

Maybe you can't go the annual "March for Life" in Washington D.C., but you can have fun showing your support for it and those going at the 'Disciples for Life' rally on January 21st. Steve Agrisano is the main musical feature, Bishop Coyne is the highlight speaker, and lots more at this archdiocese sponsored event. See the info at archindyym.com. Contact Matthew if you want to come along!

Our own Family Taco-Bingo night is scheduled for January 24th, after the 5:00pm mass. We will need help setting up, serving, and cleaning up. Parents or other adults will be needed during the bingo portion of the evening. Contact Matthew to be added to the roster of workers. .

Middle school students: the next group event is on the 31st of January. the Indiana middle school youth rally. This evening of Catholic fun and celebration will be held at Roncalli HS. See the bulletin boards in the narthex or RE classrooms, or let Beth or Matthew know you plan to be part of the group trip. We'll get you registered online.

Start sharpening you euchre skills - our youth championship will be held Feb. 8. Treats and prizes abound.

Announcing a new gathering! MQP youth are invited to gather after 10:30 masses to view film clips and discuss important character traits and behaviors. We'll discuss your thoughts on how they are portrayed, how to live them, and what the bible adds to our understanding. These will be short gatherings in the youth room: done by noon each week! Discussions will begin on January 25th.

Have a Blessed New Year!

Pray for the repose of the soul of Rita Schimmel. May she rest in the loving arms of our Father in heaven.
