For all those living in assisted living and nursing homes, also John Reynolds, Mike Sharkey, Bob Elliott, Ken Warner, Jaycee Peak, and Bob Mathis.

We ask that the Lord heal them and restore them to good health.

Prayer Line

If you know of someone who needs the special healing power of prayer, or to become a part of this ministry, call Fran Strauss at 317-745-5640.

UNITED CATHOLIC APPEAL

Thanks to you we have met our goal this year of $27,413. The amount pledged from our parish is $35,780. The percentage of our goal is 131%. Out of 469 households, only 146 households participated.

Criterion Newspaper

The Archbishop would like for all families in the diocese to receive the Criterion newspaper. The cost is $22.00 per year. The Criterion will no longer bill the individual families for their subscription. Therefore, our parish is paying the bill each month. In your bi-monthly (February) packet of envelopes you will find a green envelope marked Criterion Newspaper. We ask that you use that envelope to pay for your subscription, which will help to defray the cost to the parish. Thank you!

Religious Education

Please pray for our level 2 students as they begin their preparations to partake in the Eucharist.

PARENTS: we will be introducing the CRS Rice Bowl project in classes next week, please look for the related materials coming home. Rice Bowls will be collected the Sunday after Easter.

Adult Religious Education

Adult education classes continue to meet Sundays from 9:15 - 10:15 a.m. to discuss Mark, Chapters 8 and 9.

Monday classes continue to meet from 7-8 p.m. to discuss Matthew Kelly's "Rediscovering Catholicism." This week we will discuss Chapter 17, "Spiritual Reading."

As always, all are welcome!

In Honor of our Blessed Mother
Mary, Queen of Peace

~In loving memory of Frances Williams~

If you would like to make a donation for fresh flowers to be placed before Mary's statue in the church, please use the envelopes that are located in the vestibule. Donations will be accepted in honor of our Blessed Mother, Mary, Queen of Peace and given in the name of whomever you choose. Envelopes can be dropped in the collection.

Thank you, The Liturgy Committee

+Dear Friends,

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

"I shall not see happiness again." With these mournful words, Job concludes his lament to the Lord. Job was obviously in the depths of despair. His words are echoed in our own lives at times, are they not?

Jesus has something else in mind for us. The simple story in St. Mark's Gospel of the curing of St. Peter's mother-in-law shows us that the Lord wants to lift us up out of despair when it buffets us!

The Gospel is good news for us! If today is one of those days or times when we are feeling particularly burdened by illness, disappointment or despair, let us, like the townsfolk in today's Gospel story, bring our cares and gather them at the Lord's altar. The healing of Jesus continues in His holy Church. Now, it is our turn. We come to receive Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. We dare not end there. Certainly each one of us knows someone who is waiting for the healing touch of Jesus. Perhaps He looks to US to extend His healing touch. With hope, let us be attentive to the healing power of our Eucharistic Lord!

Please note today's announcement concerning your blessed palm from last year. Again this year, we will collect the palm in the basket near the baptismal font beginning the weekend of February 7-8 and continuing the following weekend, February 14-15. It will be burned to make the ashes for Ash Wednesday, February 18th. Masses for Ash Wednesday will be offered at NOON and 7:00 p.m. From the word meaning "spring," Lent always heralds both a season of utmost repentance as well as serving as a reminder that the glory that is spring and holy Easter, are drawing near! During the dreary, cold and damp days of the waning winter, our spirits are uplifted knowing that a glory is dawning. Begin thinking NOW of what you might "offer up" for Lent this year! And no, if you hate pea soup or green peppers, you can't offer them up! Remember the traditional three aspects of holy Lent: Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving. It's also a time to not only abstain from things but to DO extra things spiritually. Think about daily Mass, Stations of the Cross, Confession, acts of charity. The important thing is to truly join the spirit of the holy Season of Lent.

And, speaking of Lent, this year, I am trying something different. Rather than hosting a Penance Service, I will be offering "The Light Is On For You" each Wednesday of Lent. Confessions will be heard each Wednesday evening from 6:00-7:30pm in addition to the usual Saturday time of 3:45-4:30pm. (The only exception will be February 25th when I will be away that week). Our neighbors of St. Malachy and St. Suzanna will be having penance services and they will be announced as well.

God bless you all and have a great week!

Father Mike

Youth News

High school youth are invited to discuss character traits as depicted in the movies, right after the 10:30 Mass. Share your thoughts and let's learn from each other. We'll finish at noon so you can get to lunch!

☆☆☆

It's time for the MQP youth euchre championship! We'll play at the youth group meeting this Sunday the 8th from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Come enjoy the hot hands and hot dogs.

☆☆☆

"FRYDAYS", our Lenten fish fries, start on February 20th!! Come enjoy hand-battered fish and a variety of hot and cold side dishes. Adult meals for $7-9, kids (6-12) $6, children under 6 eat free, family limit of $30. Support the youth group at our main fund-raiser of the year. We would welcome donations of desserts, or pitch in to lend a hand with cooking and cleanup. See you on 'Frydays'!

Hone your writing skills and enter the Serra Club essay contest. Students in grades 7-12 are eligible for cash prizes and more; deadline is Feb. 20th. Details on the bulletin boards, or contact Matthew.

ADULTS: do you enjoy younger people - children and teens? Are you interested in providing them with chances to develop a stronger faith? Consider serving God and our parish in the youth program, as a catechist or a youth worker/chaperone. Contact Matthew Fallon to discuss what opportunities are available, now and in the future.

Youth Scholarship Available

Knights of Columbus Council 11896 is offering a $1,000 college scholarship for one student at Mary, Queen of Peace and one student at St. Susanna (total of two $1,000 scholarships). The scholarships are for graduating high school seniors who will be attending a trade school or 2/4 year college in the fall. The qualifications are outlined in the applications which are available in the entrance of each church or on the KOC website (<http://www.kofc11896.org>). Students are to complete the application, attach a copy of their high school transcript, and participate in a short interview in May. For questions, contact information is available on the application.
