Your Help is Needed for Confirmation

Here's a chance to answer the call to help bring souls to God. Be part of the cathedral Mass to confirm our 14 candidates. Ushers, Eucharistic ministers, and servers are needed to serve at the Mass; training will be provided before the Mass on Tuesday evening, April 21. Contact Matthew with questions and to volunteer.

Family Promise

If you are interested in being a volunteer for Family Promise, there will be a volunteer training session on Monday, March 23rd, at 6:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall. Stacy Schilling, the Director of Family Promise of Hendricks County, will be conducting the training. If you are going to be a volunteer, it is recommended you attend the training, even if you aren't able to help at our first hosting week. If you aren't sure if you want to volunteer and just want to learn more about Family Promise we would love to see you there!

We are still in need of donated items for our hosting weeks for Family Promise. Needed items range from breakfast and lunch foods to games and puzzles. A sign-up sheet is in the Narthex. Any help you can give is greatly appreciated!

For all those living in assisted living and nursing homes, also John Reynolds, Mike Sharkey, Bob Elliott, Ken Warner, Jaycee Peak, Carolyn Meyers, James Premeske, June Cirkel, and BJ Makuh.

We ask that the Lord heal them and restore them to good health.

Prayer Line

If you know of someone who needs the special healing power of prayer, or to become a part of this ministry, call Fran Strauss at 317-745-5640.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

On this Fifth Sunday of Lent, or the First Passion Sunday, the refrain of today's responsorial psalm is a fitting summation of the Scriptures for Mass today: "Create a clean heart in me, O God."

When one stops to think about it, the entire season of Lent is about a "clean heart." It is about conversion and repentance; about renewing our baptismal promises and innocence. It is about dying to ourselves and living with and for Christ Jesus. When Jesus is "lifted up," He draws us all to Himself. What a fitting reflection as we enter these waning days of Lent!

"As much as things change, they stay the same." Know that old saying? Well it's a good one for us to recall today. No doubt when you entered the church for Mass today, you noticed something different. In the days prior to Vatican II, on this First Passion Sunday, the statues and crucifix were covered. The Gospel for that Sunday was from St. John's Gospel, 8:46-59, wherein we hear of the crowds trying to stone Jesus and so "...He hid Himself." In commemoration of that fact, the Church "hid" all statues. Most crucifixes were either gold or bejeweled and therefore, they too were covered. In a certain sense, the "Holy" is hidden until the revelation of Resurrected glory on Easter Sunday!

Well, after the Council, this practice was all but done away with, even though the Council said nothing about it. As time passed however, liturgists in the Church came to realize that the practice was a good one and should be "resurrected" as a means of vividly calling to mind this event in the life of Jesus as well as heightening our expectation of Holy Week and the Sacred Triduum. When the Church gathers for the celebration of the great Easter Vigil, the glory of the cross and the Saints of the Church will once more be revealed. Does every parish do this? No, they don't. However, I feel it is a great "teaching moment" for all of us.

It provides parents with a great opportunity to talk to their children about the sacred days that approach and why we do the things we do during that holy time. I invite you parents to do so!

Our participation in the Stations of the Cross has been very good! I think by having the fish fry each Friday provides an excellent opportunity to come on upstairs for the Stations. Join us....you'll be glad you did...and so will Jesus!

Anna has placed the Holy Week schedule on the doors of the church and it will be published in upcoming bulletins as well. Please make a note of all the Liturgies and their respective times!

God bless you all!

Father Mike

College Scholarships Available

As part of our mission to support the parish family, this year the Knights of Columbus Council 11896 is offering a $1,000 college scholarship for one student at St. Susanna and one student at Mary, Queen of Peace (total two $1,000 scholarships). The scholarships are for graduating high school senior candidates who will be attending a trade school or 2/4 year college in the fall. The qualifications are outlined in the applications which are available in the entrance of each church or on the KOC website (<http://www.kofc11896.org>). Interested students are to complete the application, attach a copy of their high school transcript, and participate in a short interview in May. The winner for each parish will be announced during a Mass in May. For questions, contact information is available on the application.

YOUTH NEWS

Last chance for Danville's best fish! This Fryday is the last youth-hosted fish fry; there will be no dinner on Good Friday. Get a good deal on a good meal and meet some good kids at the same time!

This Sunday, March 22, right after the 10:30 Mass, the middle school youth are invited to a movie and pizza session. R.S.V.P. to elizabethdieckmann15@gmail.com, or 709-6765. Please try to bring $3 to help with the pizza.

Let's put our faith into action - let's go on a mission trip! On April 19th we will welcome a guest speaker from the Archdiocese Office of Missions, 6:30-8:30 p.m. Middle school and high school teens are welcome. Let's learn about missions and then start planning our own trip.

Religious Education

The level 2 class is preparing to receive the Holy Eucharist on April 19th at the 10:30 Mass. The students and their families will get priority seating in the first six center rows. Please plan for a full church, and pray for these 12 young parishioners.

We have seen Catholic Relief Service at work around the globe in the past few weeks. This week we travel to....Indiana!

CRS invests 25% of rice bowl collections to aid needy people in the archdiocese where the money was collected. One of their programs provides grants to local food pantries. This year, one of the recipients of a $1,000 grant is our own Shared Blessings Food Pantry! Thanks go out to all who are giving alms to CRS rice bowl, and congratulations to all the parish youth who have helped make our food pantry an operation worthy of investment.

Have a fun and safe spring break, everyone. Religious education classes will resume on April 12.

Catholic Charities News

The five Indiana bishops have issued a pastoral letter on poverty. The overall goal is to bring awareness to the suffering that is experienced by our fellow Hoosiers and motivate us all to take further responsibility for helping to relieve some of this suffering. Please take the time to read the letter and to respond to the survey that will be used to develop a pastoral plan to reduce poverty in Indiana - www.archindy.org

Women's Club Spring 2015

It's RUMMAGE SALE time, April 13th to April 17th. Set up is on the 13th, 14th, and 15th, with the sale on the 16th and 17th. Leave your donations in the lower level behind the blue screens. Please no appliances or TVs. The volunteer sign-up sheet will be on the bulletin board in the narthex. Ladies, please consider volunteering. We have fun while we work. Contact Rosemarie Warren, 272-2152.

Attention: We need men on our list for setup and cleanup for funeral meals. Call Debbie Miller: 745-4332
