1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

What a glorious weekend! We celebrate with our young boys and girls and their families, their First Communion Day! Congratulations to Matthias Pfister, Aiden Whetstone, Brody Saylor, Averie Wray, Addison Beaman, Jack Hearld, Camden Brewer, Nicholas Knostman, Thaddeus Brown, Martina McDowell, Kade Clayton, and Noah Origer. May Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament, bless them all! May they always receive Jesus with the same wonder and awe with which they do this weekend!

How appropriate that we hear the continued Gospel story of the journey to Emmaus on this First Communion Sunday. The two disciples of Jesus were in the depths of despair following the crucifixion of Jesus. As they made their way from the Holy City to Emmaus, they simply couldn't believe that Jesus was gone. Note well that they were on their way from Jerusalem. They were not sticking around to face possible repercussions for being followers of Jesus.

And so, how did our Lord choose to reveal Himself to these two frightened disciples? He chooses the exact manner in which He reveals Himself to our boys and girls today....in the Holy Eucharist!

Today, we have the benefit of two thousand years of proven history on our side when we begin to lose hope; historical proof that the two disciples did not have. We stand on their shoulders in Eucharistic hope and truth! We know, without a doubt that Jesus Christ remains in our midst in the Most Blessed Sacrament, always inviting, always awaiting us to come to Him.

In the midst of their recounting their encounter of meeting Jesus in the Holy Eucharist, Our Lord gives the Apostles the power to forgive sins in the Sacrament of Penance! What a gift; what a joy!

As we celebrate this weekend with our children, their First Communion Day, let us cling with joy to the Eucharistic, Merciful Heart of Jesus!

Father Mike

Youth News

8th grade students and parents, and all high school teens - a few items for your long-term planning:

- 1) The National Catholic Youth Conference is back in Indy this November 19-21! See more promotional info about this huge event at nyc.nfcym.org!. We will begin planning our parish delegation in May.
- 2) The archdiocese Homeland Mission Week has begun accepting registrations. Service to others is a big part of your confirmation preparation, and this fun, enriching, week-long event will qualify for a big chunk of it. Learn more at archindyym.org and pull down 'youth events', then read at indyouthministryblogspot.com!. If you've been confirmed, this is a good opportunity to live Christ's command to love one another! Be sure to talk to Matthew about registering.

The youth group meeting tonight will be Board Game Night. Bring your favorite board game to share - and for a short discussion, bring the lyrics to one or two of your favorite songs playing on the radio right now.

Sister Loretto from the archdiocese office of missions will speak to the youth group on May 3rd. We will also begin planning steps to take toward our own mission trip in the summer of 2016!

For the middle school event this month, April 26th, we will go laser tagging and have Orange Leaf, both in Avon. We will meet after the 10:30 Mass in the narthex; drop-off and pick-up will be at church. It will cost $20 for laser tag and $5 for Orange Leaf unless you RSVP to Beth Dieckmann by Monday April 20th; once you reserve your spot the prices drop to $10 and $3. If you have any questions or comments, please email Beth at: elizabethdieckmann15@gmail.com

College Scholarships Available

As part of our mission to support the parish family, this year the Knights of Columbus Council 11896 is offering a $1,000 college scholarship for one student at St. Susanna and one student at Mary, Queen of Peace (total two $1,000 scholarships). The scholarships are for graduating high school senior candidates who will be attending a trade school or 2/4 year college in the fall. The qualifications are outlined in the applications which are available in the entrance of each church or on the KOC website (<http://www.kofc11896.org>). Interested students are to complete the application, attach a copy of their high school transcript, and participate in a short interview in May. The winner for each parish will be announced during a Mass in May. For questions, contact information is available on the application.

Religious Education

Now that Lent is over we will turn in our CRS Rice Bowls. Look for the giant rice bowl collection box in the narthex this week! Thank you for your generosity in helping our poorest neighbors across the world and here in the archdiocese.

Clean-Up Day!

Our Parish clean-up day is scheduled for May 16th. Please plan to spend a couple of hours to help clean up leaves, landscaping areas, garage, etc. Bring your own tooling. We will start by 8:00.

Knights of Columbus Breakfast

The final breakfast for the season will be on Mother's Day Sunday, May 10, starting at 9 a.m. Same great menu and same great bunch of guys cooking, cleaning, and serving. So, please, mark your calendars and continue to show support for the hardworking dudes of the Knights of Columbus. Stay safe and stay well, God Bless!
