Adult Confirmation

Are you an adult who would like to be Confirmed? Archbishop Tobin invites any baptized Catholic to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation on May 31st. If you have been catechized, and are practicing the Catholic faith, but happened to miss confirmation when you were younger, this is another chance!

You will need a confirmed sponsor, and names must be submitted through the parish by May 18th. Contact Matthew for more information, or to put your name on the list.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"I came that you may have life and have it more abundantly." With these words, proclaimed in today's Gospel, the risen Lord summons us to ponder anew the mystery of sharing in His resurrected life.

To embrace this mystery is to embrace a life filled with both abundance and challenge. Far too many people think that following Jesus should mean that their lives run smoothly all the time, they have no anxieties or worries; basically that everything is warm and fuzzy, sunshine and rainbows. Well, Easter surprise....it isn't!

The only way to the kind of abundance Jesus speaks of is through the gateway He has shown us...His total giving of Self for us. You know what that means..."So I have done, you must do also."

As we continue to celebrate the glory that is Easter, let us ask the Lord today for the grace and strength to ponder His promise with renewed faith. Remember, two weeks ago we celebrated Divine Mercy Sunday. The awesome words Jesus gave to St. Faustina need to remain in our hearts and lips always: "Jesus, I Trust In You!"

The Good Shepherd sometimes needs to knock the sheep in the rump with his staff in order to get them to go where they need to go and hear what they need to hear! That's kind of the stuff we don't want to think about, isn't it? But, it's true!

A wonderful witness to all of the above is one our parish celebrated last week at the 10:30 a.m. Mass. When we saw our children making their First Holy Communion, it should have rekindled within us that Eucharistic flame of faith and trust that we profess. When we witnessed their innocence and wonder at receiving Jesus for the first time, it should have made us pray for that same innocence of faith; that same innocence and trust to follow the lead of our Good Shepherd. It served as an occasion of renewal and rededication not only to the Holy Mass and the Sacred Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, but also to learning more about our Catholic faith, our traditions, devotions and truths!

Another wonderful witness came on Tuesday, the 21st. Our candidates for Confirmation received the Sacrament from Archbishop Tobin at the Cathedral. We congratulate our Confirmandi: Eli Brown, Dillon Compliment, Hannah Deno, Danny Edwards, Harrison Fletcher, Jackson Franchville, Jacqueline Freed, Collin Genin, Emily Hazelton, Sarah Lathrop, Samantha Price, Megan Quandt, Kyra Shelley, and Brenna Shelley

May Jesus, our Good Shepherd; our Eucharistic Jesus, always smile upon us all!

The precondition for peace is the dismantling of the dictatorship of relativism and of the supposition of a completely autonomous morality which precluded acknowledgment of the natural moral law inscribed by God upon the conscience of every man and woman. Peace is the building up of coexistence in rational and moral terms, based on a foundation whose measure is not created by man, but rather by God.

Pope Benedict XVI

YOUTH NEWS

Congratulations to our 2015 Confirmation class! These full-initiated members of the church received the sacrament and full life in the Holy Spirit this past Tuesday at the Ss. Peter and Paul Cathedral.

An informational and registration meeting for the new Confirmation preparation class will be held on June 7th after the 10:30 Mass.

We will welcome a guest speaker from the Archdiocese Office of Missions on May 3rd. Come learn about mission work trips and then help us start planning our own trip for the summer of 2016.

Some summer service opportunities to make a difference in the world:

- ◆ Homeland Mission Service Week, June 21-26. Only 17 spots left! Find out more at: indyym.com or talk to Matthew. New candidates for confirmation 2016 can satisfy much of their service preparations through this event.
- ◆ Make and serve lunches for a session of the Summer Lunch Bunch program. We will assemble and distribute lunch bags to needy Danville kids this July.
- ◆ Community gardening for the hungry. Help Matthew grow fresh produce for our food pantry, and the Cypress Manor. There will be many opportunities in this continuous work; contact Matthew to schedule work time.

Summer Fun for you and your families:

- ◆ Watch the Indians baseball game and then a fireworks show, at Victory Field on June 26th. Discount tickets ($13) available, sign-up on the narthex bulletin board.
