"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, our Lord sends His Apostles out on a mission. This mission is one in which all of us who are baptized are called to participate on a daily basis.

While we may not all be called to drive out demons (although we may think we know a few) or anoint with oil and cure people, we are still called to share the truth of Jesus Christ.

When you think about it, there really are a variety of ways one can "cure" another person. Sometimes all it takes is a smile and a nod of the head or an inquiry as to how the other person is feeling. Showing basic Christian kindness and respect goes a long way in offering someone the needed light they may need.

At times Catholics are a little hesitant about sharing the faith with another person. We don't want to come across as pushy or "judgmental." But, it is precisely in sharing the beauty and mystery of the Catholic faith that we follow the command of Jesus and go out and bring others to Him and to His Church. The days of Catholics being somehow timid or even seemingly ashamed of being Catholic are past! For those of us old enough to remember Confirmation in the "old days," we were taught by the sisters that we would now become "Soldiers of Christ." That image and truism always has stayed with me.

St. Paul tells us to proclaim Christ "in season and out of season." On the surface that seems sort of an odd thing to say, doesn't it? He is actually telling us that there is no time in which we are not to proclaim with conviction and compassion, the invitation of Jesus to "Come, follow Me."

As you all go about your lives in the marketplaces of our world, remember, you take Christ with you! Your Catholic faith is a part of you, which all should know and see. Remember, little things mean a lot. You may never know what a word or gesture on your part did for another's journey of faith!

Have a prayer-full week!

YOUTH NEWS

King's Island is giving us Catholics a cut-rate deal on Wednesday, July 22nd, and the West Deanery is taking advantage of it! You can get a seat on a chartered bus (comfy seats, movie screens), and discount tickets to the rides and water park for only $50. Talk to Matthew to get your name on the roster. The bus will leave St. Christopher Church in Speedway at 8 a.m., and return about 11 p.m. Get a permission/emergency info/release form on the bulletin boards.

Learn more about your faith (breakout sessions), enjoy your faith (entertainment), share your faith (meet teens from across the country), use your faith (service opportunities), practice your faith (prayer, adoration, reconciliation, liturgy of the Mass), inspire your faith (speakers - and all the rest above) - do it all at NCYC Nov. 19th-21st!! The National Catholic Youth Conference is not just an alternative way to have some fun over a week-end...it is an opportunity to dramatically overhaul your relationship with God! We want the pertinent forms to be signed and notarized by the end of this month. So don't delay - get them from Matthew ASAP.

Religious Education

Do you enjoy talking with young people and have a love for children? Do you love being a Catholic? The religious education department is looking for people like you! We are signing up catechists (faith teachers) for the coming year, beginning in September. We have the materials to lead the class, we need people with love and faith. Give Matthew a call to explore the possibility.

Have you taken a trip somewhere this summer? Did Flat Jesus go with you? Bring your photos back and we'll post them in the church for others to see! You can leave your photos in the youth room.

MQP youth (of all ages) and their families are invited to enjoy the Danville pool at Ellis Park on Friday, July 31st, from 7 -9 p.m. There is no entry fee. Bring along a treat or snack to share if you'd like to make the evening even better!

ATTENTION: Catechists

Catechists (new and returning): please attend an informational meeting about changes and consistencies in the upcoming year of religious education classes on Saturday, August 8th; time to be determined. Thank you.

Golden Wedding Jubilee

All married couples of the Archdiocese who will celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary during 2015 are invited to the 32nd Annual Golden Wedding Jubilee Mass at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, August 23rd at SS. Peter and Paul Cathedral, Indianapolis. Archbishop Joseph W. Tobin, C.Ss.R. will celebrate the Mass. A reception for the Jubilarians and their families will follow immediately after Mass. The event is free of charge, but registration is required. For more information, contact the Office of Pro-Life and Family Life at (317)236-1521.

friends, neighbors or acquaintances. A shift is 4 hours from 1 to 5 p.m. or 5 to 9 p.m. There will also be a person there from St. Susanna or St. Malachy. It is easy to sign up, just call Anna at 317-745-4284. HURRY before all the good times are gone!!!!
