Adult Education this Fall

Adult education classes will be studying "The Bible Timeline: The Story of Salvation" by Jeff Cavins, Tim Gray, & Sarah Christmyer. This is part of the Great Adventure Bible studies. Classes will once again be held Sunday mornings at 9:00 a.m. during Religious Education and Monday evenings at 7:00 p.m. Classes will follow the Religious Education calendar starting Sunday, September 13th and Monday, September 14th.

N-C-Y-C! November 19-21. The needed forms are posted on the bulletin boards in the narthex and the youth room. We're almost out of time to reserve hotel space! These forms need to be notarized, so don't delay. Several recently ordained priests indicated that attending this youth conference was an influence on their deepening faith and desire to serve God. How might your faith grow because of this weekend? Talk with Matthew about scholarship funds.

Retrouvaille Weekend

Is It Too Late To Save Your Marriage? – Retrouvaille ('re-trō-vī) has helped tens of thousands of couples at all stages of disillusionment or misery in their marriage. Some couples attend at the first sign of problems. Some have grown apart. Others have been ripped apart by a marriage crisis such as infidelity, financial problems, abuse, addictions, etc. This program can help you. While each couple is asked to make an anonymous donation to help cover the cost of the program, no couple is ever denied the chance to heal and renew their marriage because of lack of funds. There are still a few openings for this next weekend, July 31–August 2: call 317-489-6811 or email: register@Retrolndy.com or visit the web site at www.HelpOurMarriage.com

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

Last Sunday we listened to the Gospel account of how Jesus was moved with pity for the people who were "like sheep without a shepherd." In today's Gospel, the Lord again looks upon the enormous crowd that had followed Him and performs the miracle of the loaves and fishes.

"Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" This question, posed by the Lord Jesus to Philip, signaled the beginning of the miracle. In recent times we have witnessed tremendous devastation in various places throughout the world due to natural disasters. It sometimes leaves us asking today the same sort of question posed by Our Lord. What can I possibly do in the face of such tragedy and want?

The Gospel serves to remind us all that when even our small or meager efforts at helping another are multiplied, a miracle of comfort and healing is the result. Rather than doing nothing because we assume, wrongly, in the face of huge want that our gift or sharing is to no avail, Jesus calls us to do it anyway! This is one of the ways we are called, through the power of the Holy Eucharist, to become more and more like Christ, Who fed thousands with what seemed to be so insignificant!

How truly blessed we are this summer! How so? Well, again in this year of "Cycle B" readings, we hear of the tremendous Gift of the Most Holy Eucharist. I personally look forward to the Year B cycle each time it comes around; it offers me the opportunity to really "zero in" on the "Source and Summit" of our lives as Catholics. Without the Holy Eucharist, we cease to be Catholic...plain and simple. It is good for us to hear of this most Precious Gift at this time in our nation's history. My friends, we are in a battle if we truly live our Catholic faith. When one listens to a person truly "fired up" about being Catholic, it cannot but re-ignite our own fire. When one meets a fellow Catholic who has a deep love and respect for the Blessed Sacrament, the Holy Mass and the priesthood, one cannot help but be changed. When we priests are reminded that we are here to preach the truth of Christ again and again, even when some don't want to hear it or it's hard to hear, one cannot help but become stronger in his or her Catholic Faith!

What a Gift! What a Treasure! Remember the words of St. John Vianney: "When you come before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, open your hearts; He will open His!"

On a very practical note, we need to institute a somewhat new opportunity for folks to volunteer here at St. Mary, Queen of Peace. It's called "Mass Coordinator." This person arrives a bit earlier than usual and sets up the sanctuary vessels and bread and wine for the Mass. They make sure everything is in place and ready for the Mass to begin. Personally, when I have celebrated Mass in other parishes and they have no one to do this, I am left wondering "Where is this or that? What do I do?" Believe me, visiting priests very much appreciate having such a helpful person there for them! So, we could use about six folks to volunteer to be trained to do this. If interested, contact Judy Schneider, our Liturgy Coordinator! Judy and I will be happy to see that you are ready to go! Thanks!

On a personal note, I thank all of you who continue to pray for Mom. As her condition continues to weaken, I find myself dedicating more and more time and energy to important decisions that must be made. We are exploring assisted living places, when, where, yes, cost, all while trying to insure she remains safe at home for the time being. She fell again last week; nothing serious .thank God. I offer a proactive apology if you feel slighted by your pastor at this time. At the same time, I recognize the need to take care of myself. I have planned some time away coming up in late August and late September....God willing. Please continue to pray for Mom.

God bless one and all and have a good week!

Father Mike

Religious Education

Do you enjoy talking with young people and have a love for children? Do you love being a Catholic? The religious education department is looking for people like you! We are signing up catechists (faith teachers) for the coming year, beginning in September. We have the materials to lead the class, we need people with love and faith. Openings are in the kindergarten, fourth, and seventh grade classes. Give Matthew a call to explore the possibility.

Registration for religious education classes will begin in August. Information/registration packets will be available at all the Masses, or you can visit Matthew in the Religious Education office Monday-Thursday. Fees remain the same this year. If registration is completed in August. Late registration in September will result in a late fee of $15.

Don't forget to come splash at the Danville pool for free this coming Friday! The parish is invited from 7-9 p.m. Bring along a treat or snack to share if you'd like to make the evening even better!

Catechists (new and returning), please plan to attend an informational meeting on Saturday, August 8th about changes and consistencies in the upcoming year of religious education classes. The meeting will run from 9:00 to 10:30 a.m. for returning catechists; 9:00 to 11:00 a.m. for beginning catechists. We will meet in the lower level of the church.

Summer Adult Education

Adult Education will be meeting on Friday, August 7, at 7 p.m. at Chris and Julie Petree's to discuss "The Spirit of the Liturgy" by Romano Guardini. All are welcome. Please contact Tonya Earl if you have any questions at ptatonya@gmail.com.

The Bake Sale Starts Next Week!

Throughout the month of August, Adult Education will be having a bake sale after each Mass. We would appreciate all donations of baked goods and money. The funds raised will go to sponsor a well through Cross Catholic Charities and defer the cost of the Adult Education class for next year. We will have materials and a sign-up sheet for the class at the booth. Anyone who is willing to work at the booth, please contact Tonya Earl at ptatonya@gmail.com or call 386-3133.

Dine Out for Our Youth

You can help the young disciples in our parish by eating! Thursday, August 6th, is Mary Queen of Peace youth night at Los Patios restaurant in Danville. Enjoy a good meal, then mention to the cashier that you are there to support the MQP youth, and we will receive 10% of the proceeds from the entire day! Win-win-win!

Mary Queen of Peace Parishioners: SET THE DATE ASIDE - Saturday, September 19, after the 5:00 p.m. Mass.....WHY? To attend the very First Annual

Mary Queen of Peace Oktoberfest, that's why! Loads of Fun, Loads of Food and Lots of Entertainment. Sponsored by your Knights of Columbus. Tickets will go on sale on July 18th. $25.00 per couple, $15.00 for a single, and $5.00 for the under 12 crowd. Contact Vince Castagno at 317-987-4745 or e-mail at vcast@outlook.com for additional information or to reserve your tickets. God Bless and have a beautiful week.
