"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

The first line of today's first reading from the prophet Isaiah seems to pick up the themes from last week's readings, doesn't it? Isaiah tells us that "the Lord God opens my ear that I may hear."

When we come to Mass, we try our best to open our ears to His word. We do so in order to fashion an answer to the question posed by Jesus to His Apostles: "Who do people say that I am?" I think that each one of us has experienced the presence of Jesus in our lives in some manner. At times it can feel that we have not, when we are in the depths of a suffering or cross.

St. Peter already believed in Christ or he would not have been able to make his profession of faith: "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God." But, he was not yet ready to accept the whole truth about Christ. Peter was thinking of the Messiah in human terms; he saw Jesus as the one Who would restore freedom to Israel. But the full truth about Jesus soon became evident at the Passion and Crucifixion. Only then did St. Peter fully believe: Jesus was the crucified and risen Christ!

Where this took place is highly significant as well. On pilgrimage to the Holy Land, I specifically asked that our group travel to Caesarea Philippi. Why? Because St. Peter's profession took place at that place. There was a long standing tradition of the cliff there being filled with niches containing pagan idols. It was at this place that Jesus chose to reveal His true identity as the Messiah; the Son of God. It was also thus the sight of the beginning of the primacy of St. Peter and his successors as the leaders of the Church...the succession of Popes down to Pope Francis today! It is an awesome place when one realizes what took place there!

Perhaps today's question posed by our Lord is an opportunity to invite Him into our hearts in a renewed way. It can be scary though, right? Let's face it, by inviting Jesus in, we are in effect, surrendering control and self-will to Jesus. That's easy to say that we are able to do so, but look deep into your heart. Is it? But it's the real path to peace and joy. Let us pray for one another!

As a new school year has begun, it's a great time to recognize and thank all those men and women who so very generously volunteer their time and talent in the Catholic religious education of our youth and adults. Together with dedicated parents, the awesome task of imparting the great treasure of our faith is entrusted. We pledge to them our prayers and support! The appeal for needed catechists was successful! All classes are now fully covered with two catechists. THANK-YOU for your spirit of stewardship of your time and talent!

Another big THANK-YOU to those who have donated toward our purchase of the statues of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, St. Joseph and votive candle stands! We are over half way there! All donations are tax deductible! If you wish to remember a loved one or honor someone, please consider helping us reach the amount needed!

May the Lord Bless and Keep You All This Week!

Father Mike
