"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

Today's Mass readings advise us to be cautious about the way we live our lives. No big surprise there, right? Even so, St. James warns us of the consequences when greed consumes us in any of its forms.

His message beautifully dovetails into our Lord's words in today's Gospel when He tells us to rid ourselves of anything that causes sin. We need to be careful when hearing these words of Jesus. He does NOT desire us to maim ourselves, which could easily be misinterpreted from the Gospel. His truth points out that we should give nothing the power over us to commit sin. Whatever the sin; whatever the cause, from within or out, we are to never allow sin to reign in our hearts and souls.

Our Lord also brings to our attention once more to the child-like. He uses pretty graphic words in describing the fate of those who cause others to sin. For parents, those who teach the Faith, for priests and catechists, it is particularly poignant. To be quite honest, the example shown us by some "Catholic" politicians falls into our Lord's message as well. Whoever sows the seeds of confusion or dissent among others is leading them astray according to Jesus' words. And, they will be held responsible for that confusion and dissent. It's a sobering thought isn't it?

Next Thursday and Friday are the First Thursday/Friday of October. Come, take part in the Masses and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament as we pray for a generous increase in vocations to the priesthood, for our seminarians and priests!

Have a prayer-full week, everyone!

Father Mike

Our delegation of eight to the National Catholic Youth Conference is set! If parishioners would like to help our teens with the cost of the conference (about $400), the youth group would happily accept your scholarship donations. You can drop off checks (to MQP, 'NCYC funds' in the memo line) in the religious education office, or in the collection plate at Mass. Thank you!
