Come and See

Would you like to know what the Catholic Church teaches? Are you looking for an encounter with Jesus? Would you like to learn about the rich liturgy and prayer life of the Catholic Church? Whether you are seeking to join the Church, just wanting to learn about the Church, or are a lifelong Catholic, the Come and See program is for you. Sessions will meet on Thursday nights at 7:00 starting September 10. For more information, go to mqpcomeandsee.blogspot.com or contact Jeff Earl at jeffery.a.earl@gmail.com or 317-626-0811.

Fall Adult Education

Adult Education will be doing "The Bible Timeline: The Story of Salvation" by Jeff Cavins this year. We will start Sunday morning classes at 9:00 a.m. on September 13 and Monday evening classes at 7:00 p.m. on September 14. Both classes will meet downstairs in the basement. After the bake sale and so many people signing up for class the total cost will be $15 per book! Payments will be due at the first class.

Bake Sale Thank You

Thank you to everyone who brought in and bought baked goods and worked the booth this month for the bake sales. It was a big success. We collected over $1,500. I would like to say a special thank you to Jan Brouillard for doing so much.

MQP Jackets For Sale

The Liturgy Committee is selling Mary, Queen of Peace jackets after all Masses during the month of August. They will be delivered September 19th. You may choose between a fleece jacket or a wind breaker style jacket. Both are partial or full zipper. The cost is $40 each. To order or for questions, please see Dennis Graves after the Masses.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, our Lord Jesus bids the deaf man with a speech impediment, "Be opened!" Note the choice of words. Jesus does not say to the deaf man, "Hear!" or "Speak!" He rather says, "Be opened!"

It shouldn't take a theologian to figure out that each of us can take this an indication of how we are called to live our lives as followers of Jesus Christ!

Each one of us should be open and receptive to the voice and teaching of Jesus Christ. This receptivity and openness then urges us to tend and care for those who need us in this life. Opening ourselves up to Christ's truth enables us to be open to others and truly follow His example.

This openness and receptivity can only occur when we humble ourselves before Christ. Most of our problems when it comes to prayer and trust come from this lack of humility. Admit it to yourself. Don't you normally come to Holy Mass or approach other moments of prayer with an agenda? Don't you normally want to tell Jesus: a) what you want and, b) when you want it? We all do at various times. It's part of our fallen human nature. When one struggles with a particular teaching of Jesus or His Church, nine times out of ten, part of the struggle is a lack of humility and openness. We simply think we know best and that's all there is to it...even when speaking with the Lord!

A beautiful practice that St. Therese, the Little Flower, often used was to go before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and simply say: "I offer You my nothingness; my emptiness." Then, she would quietly wait for the Lord's word to her; often hearing nothing. Still, she was persistent in her faithfulness. She offers us a wonderful example of how to approach the Lord in prayer and at the same time, be as the deaf man in today's Gospel; "Be opened!"

St. John Vianney would often say that some things cannot be accomplished without prayer and fasting. It was his way of being open.

Fasting implies a need to be filled. Rather than with food we don't really need, St. John Vianney echoes the Lord's call today...be open to ME!

As you heard me mention at Mass, the donations are coming in for our new statues of the Sacred Heart and St. Joseph, and votive candle stands. BUT, we still need YOUR donations! We are approximately $5,000 short right now. I've made my donation. So, if you'd like to honor someone or remember a loved one, please call Anna in the office to make your donation! They are on their way from Italy! THANKS SO MUCH!

God Bless and Keep You All!

Father Mike

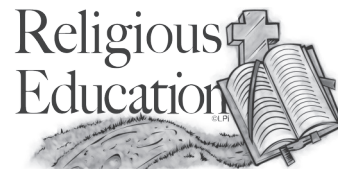

Catholic Men's Conference

Men, mark your calendars for the Indiana Catholic Men's Conference on Saturday, October 31, at the Indiana Convention Center. Join Archbishop Joseph Tobin, Bishop Paul Etienne and several national Catholic speakers to be a part of a very dynamic day of renewal. Go to www.indianacatholicmen.com or call 317-888-0873 for more information.

Music at Mary Queen of Peace

Choir rehearsals will resume on Wednesday, September 9, at 7:00 p.m. If you are interested in joining, please contact Ed Hennes, the music director at edwardhennes@gmail.com or feel free to show up to our first rehearsal. We also are always looking for more people to join the 5:00 p.m. group and the cantors at 8:00 a.m. We look forward to seeing you there!

Religious education classes begin next week, September 13, at 9:00 a.m.! Students will report directly to their classrooms, NOT to the church. Please drop off students along the sidewalk in front of the religious education building. Classes will be finished at 10:20 a.m.

Late registrants can sign-up and pay fees at 9:10, after classes begin.

THANK YOU to our veteran catechists, and to our newly added teachers of the faith. Your considerable time and efforts on behalf of our children and their families is greatly appreciated.

Encourage our Confirmation Candidates

Encourage and inspire a new disciple! Please share your memories of your confirmation, what the sacrament means to you in your life, and/or an inspirational message with our new confirmation candidates on Sunday, September 20, at the Rite of Calling.

Send your messages to Matthew Fallon by fax or email: mqpyouthfallon@gmail.com, by September 18th, so copies can be made. Thank you for your connection with these teens of our parish.

Congratulations to Kailey Burkett - the MQP tabletop football undefeated champion! Cody Burd was the Longest Field Goal award winner. Our next youth group meeting will be on September 13. Come join us, bring a friend!

Confirmation classes begin next Sunday. We'll see you in the downstairs youth room at 9:00 a.m. sharp - lots of info to share. Bring your binder.

Fall Mum Sale!

The youth group fall mum sale will begin September 12th & 13th. These large plants are fully budded and starting to show color.

They will be beautiful for weeks to come. $10 per gallon pot. Proceeds will aid kids going to the NCYC and our mission trip next summer. Thank you for your support!
