Monica also did much of the clean-up afterward - she was definitely a big help during the last few (very active) hours of the retreat.

Religious Education

Please remember that classes will begin again on October 25. October installments for class fees may be paid to Matthew Fallon, or dropped in the collection plate. Registrations made after August should include the $15 late fee. Thank you.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives quite a challenge; not only for the "rich young man" but for each of us. He insists, not suggests, that we give all we have to the poor and follow Him. I mean, come on; You can't be serious, Lord!

This may seem impossible and too much to ask, especially when we consider our own true needs in this world. Yet, our Lord is telling us to focus on the needs of others. We are called to "love our neighbor as ourselves," which includes making sacrifices for others.

Of course, our Lord teaches by example, He made the greatest sacrifice...His life...for the life of the world; for our life. That's giving all!

Our Lord is not telling us that possessing things is evil, wrong or unjust. Over the years, His words have been twisted by some resulting in many feeling guilty or ashamed of owning things. As a matter of fact, it was an early heresy that said that it was sinful to own anything! So, Jesus is not telling us to have a gigantic yard sale and become homeless. He is telling us that no-thing should ever take the place He occupies, or should occupy, in our hearts and lives. This is true wisdom, as spoken of in our first reading.

It can be said that knowledge is of man; wisdom is of God. There is a difference!

As pastor, I would like to personally invite the men of our parish and their teenage sons and older, to attend this year's Indiana Catholic Men's Conference on Saturday, October 31st! It's time to register and there is no reason that our parish can't have at least 20 men attend. It is always an awesome experience to witness up to 1,000 Catholic men praying, going to Confession, taking part in Adoration and listening to very inspirational speakers, being together. Honestly, guys, you need to step up! Too many think that the practice of our Catholic faith is only for women! It's for ALL Catholics! Sure, it means taking a Saturday and traveling to the convention center in Indy, but so what? Aren't you worth it? Isn't your family? Pray about it and register to attend!

May the good God bless and keep you all!

Father Mike

Parish Town Halls – Your Feedback Wanted

On Valentine's Day, 2015, the parish council held a visioning day exercise. The output of that exercise was a unanimous voice that the parish needs better facilities (namely, a multipurpose building including a gym, new classrooms, a kitchen, music room, storage areas, and a parish office outside of the priest house).

Therefore, the parish council recently sanctioned a team of parishioners to look more closely at the parish needs and outline a plan for building a facility to meet those needs. As a key part of that process, the team wants to get feedback from parishioners on what is really needed to assure we have the right scope in mind.

Therefore, we will be setting up two town halls to gather feedback from members of the parish before we solidify the scope of our project. Those meetings will be held Tuesday, November 17, and Tuesday, December 1, from 7:00 - 8:30 p.m. in the basement of the church.

Please bring your ideas for sharing with the group. We will be not only collecting ideas but also sharing some concepts that have been developed to-date by the team for your feedback. We look forward to talking to you.
