+ Dear Friends,

This weekend, our own Phil Schneider shared with us about his involvement of Time, Talent & Treasure in preparation for the upcoming "Christ Our Hope" campaign and the parish's "Time, Talent & Treasure" commitment weekend, which will be on November 7-8. Thanks, Phil!

Today we hear another story of the power of faith. A blind man, Bartimaeus, sought pity from the Lord and asked for healing. He believed that the Son of David could grant what he asked. Would that we had such faith!

At the conclusion of the Gospel Jesus states that it was Bartimaeus' faith that saved him. Bartimaeus is an inspiration to us all, isn't he? He reminds us to turn to Jesus with faith, seeking His protection and healing. In order to do so, we need to remain vigilant as we seek to discover more and more the Lord's actions in our individual lives.

I am reminded by Bartimaeus of the pilgrimage I made to Lourdes, France. It truly is an inspiring place. To take part in the night time candle light procession with the pilgrims from all across the world was awesome. The dip in the waters was a spiritual experience as well...and cold! They do NOT heat the miraculous waters. I am reminded of Lourdes because the vast majority of healings that take place there are of the spiritual sort; not the physical. I think too often we think of "healing" in only the physical sense. The truth is, most of us need spiritual healing more than physical. Bartimaeus serves to remind us of this spiritual hunger and thirst. This, too, requires much faith and persistence. And, we need to pray for one another as well! This is an example of Christian service as well. May we always do so!

This is the weekend to turn in the All Souls' Day envelopes for inscription in our Book of Remembrance. I didn't get to go on retreat with Cardinal Burke, so I will be away on a private retreat until the evening of the 30th. Ergo, no daily Masses next week.

Have a great week, everyone. Pray for me on retreat! Enjoy our beautiful fall colors!

Father Mike

Come and See

This week's topic is the Holy Spirit and the Holy Trinity. Please read Wisdom 9:9-11, John 14:15-17, 26-27 and 16:13-15 and paragraphs 234, 243-246, 253-255, 684, 685, and 691-701 in the Catechism. Everyone is welcome to attend on Thursday at 7:00 p.m. in the lower level of the church. Visit www.MQPComeAndSee.blogspot.com for more information.

Welcome back to classes everyone! We hope you had an enjoyable fall break.

If you have not paid your class fee installment for October, or need to pay (or register) - please contact Matthew in the RE office to do so as soon as you can, or you may drop the payment in the collection plate. Thank you for helping us provide the classes for our young parishioners.

Parents: You can test your knowledge of Catholic things, central and minute, while you wait for classes to dismiss with the "What's your Catholic IQ?" quizzes on the bulletin board in the hallway. If you'd like copies to take home, let Matthew know.

Tonight is our discussion of issues related to the Culture of Life with guest speaker Rebecca Niemerg, director of the Office of Pro-life and Family Life in our Archdiocese. Come hear about a variety of issues from conception to death - directed by questions sent from parish teens. 6:30-8:30 p.m. in the youth room.

It's not really a pilgrimage, but we are travelling to see the Journeys of Faith and Shroud of Turin (what's that?) exhibits in Indianapolis after the Masses on Sunday, November 15. RSVP with Matthew to reserve your carpool ride. If we get 20 people in our group we can all take $5 off of the ticket price; down to $10 for adults and $5 for students (with the youth group subsidy). Middle school students, high school students, parents and full families, and interested parish adults may all take advantage of this interesting outing! The exhibits have been reviewed very positively.

The youth group gathering for November 22nd will take place the three days before - at the NCYC. Oh, yeah!

HELP WANTED

Two new parish volunteer opportunities await you:

A happy mail ministry is in need of volunteer help to stay timely. And our bottle cap collection effort could use some sorting out - by sorting the tops. Both of these activities would require less than an hour each week. Contact Matthew Fallon in the RE office for details.

All Saints Day Party

Celebrate the saints! Come to the All Saints' Day party on Sunday, November 1, from 2-4 p.m., in the lower level. Saint-themed games and treats. Come have fun and possibly learn a little something!?!

Friends of St. Anthony

After another year of collecting school supplies the Friends of St. Anthony is now getting ready to take the supplies to Sheltering Wings and St. Anthony's School. Sheltering Wings has over 30 children in their domestic abuse shelter for women and children. They are so thankful for our community reaching out to them in so many ways. Friends of St. Anthony also purchased dish detergent, hand sanitizer, hand soap, refill for the soap and a box of Xerox paper. Thank you again for supporting these programs and their families.

Ministry Appreciation

All ministry (music, hospitality, extraordinary ministers of communion, readers and servers) members and their families are invited to a cookout sponsored by the Liturgy committee on Saturday, November 7, after the 5:00 Mass. Please bring a side dish or dessert to share. Meat, drink, plates, cups, and tableware will be provided. To give us an idea of how many are planning to attend, either sign up on the bulletin board in the Narthex or email with your family name and number attending to: pb79jd@aol.com or tjmobrien@sbcglobal.net .

Along with some delicious food we plan on some entertainment and door prizes.
