"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that the bond of marriage is a holy one. Honestly, we have to admit that the holiness of this sacred bond and union is overlooked, discounted or even mocked in our ever-so-modern society. Rather than being defended, the attempt now is to "redefine."

Day after day we witness couples struggling in their relationships; I know I do. Sometimes they choose to sever that sacred bond rather than live the hard work required to restore a trust and love that has perhaps been broken. Of course, one can never make assumptions nor pass objective judgment on any married couple.

As Catholics who celebrate marriage as a Sacrament "instituted by Christ to give grace," we believe Jesus' words: "The two shall become one flesh...Therefore what God has joined together, man must not separate."

I often tell couples in preparation for marriage that it takes much love and hard work to make any marriage faithful and fruitful. At times couples can have that 'stars in the eyes' look that, while sweet, can mask the reality of making a marital relationship last. Our society, and almost everything one hears or sees, if not ridiculing marriage, certainly can warp its true meaning, purpose and joy.

There exists two purposes of Christian marriage. One, is the unitive aspect; where the two pledge mutual respect, love, acceptance and support. This aspect in turn brings about the second necessary aspect of Christian marriage which is procreative. When either of these is removed or hindered (thus the ban on all forms of artificial contraception), then the sacred bond is severely strained, if not completely broken.

Today's Mass offers us an opportunity to do several things. First, if married, to renew your vows to one another in mutual and lasting fidelity. Second, the opportunity for everyone to pray for couples preparing for marriage and to assist and pray for couples known to be experiencing struggles. Third, to pray for those who have gone through the pain and loss of divorce, oftentimes as the innocent partner.

On this Respect Life Sunday, a renewal in the acknowledgement of the sacredness of marriage is a good thing! May the Lord preserve all in Christian marriage and protect the sanctity of all human life from womb to natural death!

Let us pray: "God, may this may be so!"

Parish Town Halls – Your Feedback Wanted

On Valentine's Day, 2015, the parish council held a visioning day exercise. The output of that exercise was a unanimous voice that the parish needs better facilities (namely, a multipurpose building including a gym, new classrooms, a kitchen, music room, storage areas, and a parish office outside of the priest house).

Therefore, the parish council recently sanctioned a team of parishioners to look more closely at the parish needs and outline a plan for building a facility to meet those needs. As a key part of that process, the team wants to get feedback from parishioners on what is really needed to assure we have the right scope in mind.

Therefore, we will be setting up two town halls to gather feedback from members of the parish before we solidify the scope of our project. Those meetings will be held Tuesday, November 17, and Tuesday, December 1, from 7:00 - 8:30 p.m. in the basement of the church.

Please bring your ideas for sharing with the group. We will be not only collecting ideas but also sharing some concepts that have been developed to-date by the team for your feedback. We look forward to talking to you.

A Sponsorship Opportunity
