"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, we hear the series of events that will signal the second coming of Christ. "Heaven and earth will pass away," Jesus tells us, "but my words will not pass away."

Jesus is reassuring us that His return will not signal a final end to life. The Lord promises us a life that will endure after this earth passes away. Today's readings are fitting as we experience the ending of another liturgical year and stand on the threshold of another, which will begin with the First Sunday of Advent.

Our Lord's words do, however, give us warning and significant pause for prayer. How will we each appear before Him at His return? What will the "scales" look like regarding our lives? No one is able to answer for our own personal lives and the decisions, for good or bad, which we have made. That, will be our sole responsibility.

Rather than make us paranoid or scared stiff, this fact of our religious lives, should make us grateful for the Lord's blessings and our faith! It should make us more cognizant of our actions, words and attitudes in our daily lives! It should make us take our Catholic Faith much more seriously than we normally do; its practice, its fervor and its commitment! Apathy and indifference are two of the deadliest sins we each will no doubt present before the throne of God. Today's Gospel gives us an opportunity to prayerfully reflect and re-prioritize if need be....thanks be to God!

I thank ALL who have thus far made a pledge to the United Catholic Appeal AND thank those who also have made inquiry and commitment to share their time and talent with our parish as well! If you have not made your pledge or turned in your card, PLEASE do so this week! Extra cards remain in the pews for your convenience!

My personal thanks to all for your kind gifts of cards, words and remembrances shown for my birthday this past Wednesday, Veterans' Day! I know, one does not get older; one gets better. Yeah, right! I wonder who ever came up with that one?! May the good God continue to bless us, one and all!

Father Mike

The parishioners of St. Mary, Queen of Peace extend a warm welcome to these new members:

Jason & Kelly Colclasure
Jean Knarr
Katrina Knarr

Today is the middle school/high school/family/parishioner trip to see the exhibits "Journeys in Faith", and "The Shroud of Turin" - come and join us after the 10:30 Mass. The cost drops $5 if we bring a group of at least 20 (to $10 and $5 for students); if fewer than 20 people come the price goes up.

Sometimes our catechists need to be away from home. Can you occasionally be an aide in the classroom as a substitute? You will not need to be a lead teacher, just help support the lesson and activities.

The Level 1 religious education class is in need of another catechist! Materials to lead class will be provided. Will you please join us, and share your faith with our young students? Call Matthew for details, or to volunteer.

Reminder to Level 2 parents: baptismal certificates from another parish, and Sacramental preparation fees are due today! Checks can be made out to "Mary, Queen of Peace."

Our religious education Christmas play will be presented by members of the Level 3 and Level 4 classes, after the 8 a.m. Mass (by 9:15 a.m.) on December 13. All are invited to share the story of Christmas with our young parishioners!

HELP WANTED

Can you spare a few minutes to write to one of our young adults away from home? 3-4 times until May, keep them connected with events in the parish and their faith by sending them some local info, interest and support while they're away, maybe a care package for finals week. Contact Matthew Fallon to get your "parish pen-pal".

Christmas Giving Tree

Your Giving Tree will be lighted and filled with a variety of Christmas tag wishes on November 21st. Please place the tag with the gift and don't wrap gifts. Place under the tree.

New this year we will be sharing our blessings with: Women's Care Center, where your gifts will help so many women choose life for their babies, and Head Start School in Danville, which serves 105 children. The Archdiocese Christmas Store, Holy Family Shelter, and individual families also will be included this year.

Please have all gifts back by December 13th. Happy Giving.

Our annual parish Christmas party will be Sunday, December 6, immediately following the 10:30 Mass. Meat and drinks will be provided and we ask that everyone bring a side dish or dessert to share. We will have a Christmas craft for the kids, cookie decorating and a special visit from Santa and Mrs. Claus! Please join us and enjoy some holiday cheer. If you have any questions, or would like to help with this event, please call or text Michelle Pritchett at 446-1869.

Parish Town Halls – Your Feedback Wanted

On Valentine’s Day, 2015, the parish council held a visioning day exercise. The output of that exercise was a unanimous voice that the parish needs better facilities (namely, a multipurpose building including a gym, new classrooms, a kitchen, music room, storage areas, and a parish office outside of the priest house).

Therefore, the parish council recently sanctioned a team of parishioners to look more closely at the parish needs and outline a plan for building a facility to meet those needs. As a key part of that process, the team wants to get feedback from parishioners on what is really needed to assure we have the right scope in mind.

Therefore, we will be setting up two town halls to gather feedback from members of the parish before we solidify the scope of our project. Those meetings will be held Tuesday, November 17, and Tuesday, December 1, from 7:00 - 8:30 p.m. in the basement of the church.

Please bring your ideas for sharing with the group. We will be not only collecting ideas but also sharing some concepts that have been developed to- date by the team for your feedback. We look forward to talking to you.
