Caroling on the Square

Mary Queen of Peace will be caroling on the square the Friday after Thanksgiving from 5 to 6 p.m. as part of the annual tree lighting ceremony. While the choir will lead the singing, all parishioners are encouraged to join in. We will hold a practice after the 10:30 Mass on the 22nd for those who can make it. It is NOT required that you attend this practice. Come and join the fun!

A Bullet Train Through Western Music

Tuesday, December 15

7:30 p.m. at St. Paul's Catholic Church

Greencastle

Featuring the St. Ambrose Schola Cantorum

from the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music

What do Frank Sinatra, Beethoven, and a major scale all have in common? They all happened because of the Catholic Church! The monks and musicians of the Catholic church created the foundations of Western music: scales, harmony, notation. Music as we know it today: it's a Catholic thing.

You are invited to a narrated concert spanning 20 centuries of music. You'll hear music from the earliest Christians to music of the present day, as we go on a whirlwind tour of Western music.

Come at 7:00 p.m. for wine and cheese, coffee and cookies. Then at 7:30 p.m. you can enjoy an experience of new sounds, of rich history, and beautiful music.

The concert is free! A freewill offering will also be taken up to raise money to repair our pipe organ.

DON'T FORGET!!!!

"Family Night Out" Tickets "A Charlie Brown Christmas"
Thursday, December 3, at 7:30 p.m.
Only a few tickets left.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

I'll begin with a reminder....our Thanksgiving Vigil Mass will be offered on Wednesday, November 25th at 7:00pm. Come as the entire family and give thanks for all of Christ's blessings to us!

The readings for the entire liturgical year of 2015 have led us to this weekend's Solemnity of Christ the King. This is where the "rubber hits the road."

This week the Lord Jesus tells "Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to My voice." As this text is proclaimed and we take it out into our world, let us ask for the strength to listen more attentively to the voice of the Lord in our daily lives. On this last Sunday of Ordinary time, let us remember that our call to listen to, and put into practice, the voice of the Lord, is a constant call in our lives; it is not something done once and forgotten; it is something that never ends. We must continually open our hearts and souls to do our humble best to "belong to the truth" and listen to the voice of Christ! How powerful is today's Gospel passage which we hear on every Good Friday during Holy Week. Before Pontius Pilate, His life hanging by a thread, our Lord stands as Truth Incarnate....and Pilate misses Him. So do we, don't we? We either innocently miss Him, or we consciously choose to miss Him....either one is tragic. Perhaps at today's Mass, we will see that it's time to do a little re-ordering of attitudes and behaviors.

Today's Solemnity of Christ the King is a symbol and celebration of the endurance of Christ's Church and a sign of hope. Just call to mind all the kings and kingdoms of the world over history, of how they once ruled with power and oftentimes mercilessly. Think of those governments that persecuted the Church with such viciousness that countless scores of faithful became martyrs for Christ and the Faith. Think now that most are now all gone and the only one that has endured to celebrate the Kingship of Christ is the One True Church that He founded!

As we gather this coming week to celebrate our national day of Thanksgiving, we must call to mind the greatest blessing of them all.....the Holy Mass! For this timeless, priceless Gift of Jesus Himself, our hearts, minds, souls and voices need proclaim our thanksgiving!

As of today, our parish has given/pledged $29,945 toward the United Catholic Appeal. I THANK-YOU for your generous giving of Time, Talent & Treasure to our parish and Archdiocese! There's still time for you to return your card if you have not done so!

For all our parishioners who will be traveling this week for Thanksgiving; drive safely and return safely! May our Eucharistic King bless us, our families, our parish and our world with His peace and His grace! Deo Gratias!

Father Mike

Be sure to check the Christmas Giving Tree and select a tag or two to help those in need. Please place the tag with the gift and don't wrap gifts. Place under the tree.

New this year we will be sharing our blessings with: Women's Care Center, where your gifts will help so many women choose life for their babies, and Head Start School in Danville, which serves 105 children. The Archdiocese Christmas Store, Holy Family Shelter, and individual families also will be included this year.

Please have all gifts back by December 13th. Happy Giving.

Last week we enjoyed the visit of our vocations speakers. If your child is looking for any more information on religious life we will be happy to help with directions for seeking resources - give Matthew a call in the office, or speak with your catechist!

The Level 1 religious education class is in need of another catechist! Materials to lead class will be provided. Will you please join us, and share your faith with our young students? Call Matthew for details, or to volunteer.

Reminder to Level 2 parents: If you have not turned in baptismal certificates from another parish, or your sacramental fee, that should be taken care of right away. Keep working with your student in the reconciliation preparation book - it is due by the December 6 class.

Our religious education Christmas play will be presented by members of the Level 3 and Level 4 classes on December 13. All are invited to share the story of Jesus' birth with our young parishioners!

There will be no religious education classes on November 29, for the Thanksgiving holiday. Classes will meet next on December 6.

Thank you to Anne Burd and Beth Walliser for helping drive our youth group and guests to the 'Sacred Journeys' exhibition last Sunday.

Our next youth group meeting will be Sunday, December 6, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the youth room.

Our middle school students have been invited to be part of the West Deanery bowling party at Brownsburg Bowl. We will meet other youth from around the west side of Indy and Hendricks County from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. The cost will be only $10!

The West Deanery high school youth ministry is going to Perfect North Slopes in Lawrenceburg to swoosh down the slopes! Join the group on December 29th - there will be a bus from St. Susanna in Plainfield. Transport and lift ticket is only $65.

Our annual parish Christmas party will be Sunday, December 6, immediately following the 10:30 Mass. Meat and drinks will be provided and we ask that everyone bring a side dish or dessert to share. We will have a Christmas craft for the kids, cookie decorating and a special visit from Santa and Mrs. Claus! Please join us and enjoy some holiday cheer. If you have any questions, or would like to help with this event, please call or text Michelle Pritchett at 446-1869.

Used Winter Coats Needed

Friends of St. Anthony will be collecting women's gently used winter coats for Sheltering Wings. The sizes needed the most are Large and Extra Large. Medium-sized coats are also needed. Hats, scarves and gloves also would help keep them warm this winter. Thank you for sharing with others.

Parish Town Hall

On Valentine's Day, 2015, the parish council held a visioning day exercise. The output of that exercise was a unanimous voice that the parish needs better facilities (namely, a multipurpose building including a gym, new classrooms, a kitchen, music room, storage areas, and a parish office outside of the priest house).

Therefore, the parish council recently sanctioned a team of parishioners to look more closely at the parish needs and outline a plan for building a facility to meet those needs. As a key part of that process, the team wants to get feedback from parishioners on what is really needed to assure we have the right scope in mind.

We have had one town hall to gather feedback from members of the parish before we solidify the scope of our project, and have another scheduled Tuesday, December 1, from 7:00 - 8:30 p.m. in the basement of the church.

Please bring your ideas for sharing with the group. We will be not only collecting ideas but also sharing some concepts that have been developed to-date by the team for your feedback. We look forward to talking to you.
