Lenten Mission

Get ready! Our Lenten Mission of parish renewal is just a week away. The dates are Sunday night (January 31) through Wednesday evening (February 3). Bill Wegner, a Catholic Lay Evangelist, will be leading this year's mission. Many of you will remember how well-received he was a few years ago, and so he's back by popular demand! Each evening's presentation will be followed by refreshments and fellowship in the Lower Level. Plan to be there, and bring a friend!

A Special Request

We are in need of a host family for our Lenten Mission presenter, Bill Wegner. He will arrive on Saturday afternoon and depart on Thursday morning. If you can provide a bed and meals (to be reimbursed), it would be greatly appreciated! For more information, contact John Chapin at (317) 902-2052. Thanks.

We are getting into the season for winter weather. If winter snow causes classes to be cancelled the primary communication will be by email and the parish website.

The next RE class to participate in the sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation will be Level 5 on February 7. The next class will be Level 6 on February 28.

If it has been some time since your student's last confession, please help prepare them ahead of time: review the procedure, the steps of the ritual itself, and the Act of Contrition with them. Thank you. The Catholic faith is what we believe, the Catholic faith is what we do.

The Religious Education department is looking for future catechists. You can review a job description on the narthex bulletin board or talk with Matthew for more information, or to nominate someone for the position.

Parents: Check out the magazines in there all of the RE building. Read about various issues in the world from a Catholic viewpoint, as well as issues in the Church. "Catechist" magazine can also give you some tips for teaching the faith to your children.

The parishioners of St. Mary, Queen of Peace extend a warm welcome to our newest member:

Matthew Hargarten

In Honor of our Blessed Mother Mary, Queen of Peace

Marian Schneider

If you would like to make a donation for fresh flowers to be placed before Mary's statue in the church, please use the envelopes that are located in the vestibule. Donations will be accepted in honor of our Blessed Mother, Mary, Queen of Peace and given in the name of whomever you choose. Envelopes can be dropped in the collection. Thank you, The Liturgy Committee

For all those living in assisted living and nursing homes, also Bob Elliott, Ken Warner, Betty Schmutte, Rita Fritsch, David Sheets, Bob Sturm, Pauline Cave, Eva Tax, Meeda Lentz, and Carlos Bessolo.

We ask that the Lord heal them and restore them to good health.

Prayer Line

If you know of someone who needs the special healing power of prayer, or to become a part of this ministry, call Fran Strauss at 317-745-5640.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

Here we are, more than half way through the month of January; can I have an "Amen?" Just keep telling yourself; "Spring is coming, spring is coming!"

At the time of St. Luke, those who read his Gospel account, took very seriously the call to discipleship and evangelization. The Church was in Her infancy and the followers of Christ, in the leadership of St. Peter and the other Apostles, knew that it was also up to them to spread the Eucharistic faith and truth of Jesus Christ.

St. Luke asserts: "you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received." There was no ambiguity, no dissenting opinion, they knew the truth of Jesus and many would give their lives for it! Some nowadays would discount the Gospel because of personal bias. It's been that way from the beginning; one either accepts the truth or one rejects it. We each have free will. The sad thing today seems to be that some wish to wear the mantle of "Catholic" all the while undermining Catholic teaching because it fits a particular bias or agenda.

Well, that's not what St. Luke believed, now is it? Remember his use of the word "certainty." With Christ and His Bride, the Church, we have certainty of truth. Whether it be in the first century or the twenty-first century, truth is truth. As Pope Benedict XVI and now Pope Francis have noted numerous times, a "dictatorship of relativism" can never replace Gospel truth. One can call himself or herself a kangaroo, but that doesn't make them one!

I call your attention to the upcoming Parish Mission which will begin Sunday evening, January 31st and run through Wednesday, February 3rd! Mass will be offered that Monday - Wednesday at 8:30 a.m. with a short session following. A second session will take place in the evening at 7:00 p.m. with fellowship following in the lower level of the church. Prayerfully consider this opportunity; especially as Lent approaches!

Each Mass celebrated is normally offered for a specific intention for which all at Mass pray. Naturally, all present may add their own personal intentions privately as well. If you would like to have Mass offered for a deceased loved one, or a "special intention," contact Anna in the office to schedule this request.

May the Good God, bless and keep us always in His way, truth and life! ("Stay warm and well-fed." St. James).

Father Mike

Thank You

Thank You to the Parishioners of Mary Queen of Peace for all you have done in recent weeks and months FOR CASEY AND ME. For all the prayers offered by the Prayer Line. The number of people who came to the visitation plus stayed and prayed the rosary for Casey. To the Knights for leading the Rosary. To everyone who came to her Funeral Mass. To the Women's Club for the fabulous luncheon. She is resting in Peace.

Sincerely,
George Juza & Family

The next youth group meeting will be to attend the first night of the parish Lenten Mission. Perhaps older teens remember him from a few years ago and how good he was. Confirmation candidates: one of your preparations is to attend at least one night of the Mission. Don't wait until the end...see you all there!

CHRISTMAS STORE THANK YOU!

We would like to express our profound gratitude to all the parishioners of Mary Queen of Peace who donated such wonderful new clothing and toys through your Giving Tree program to the Catholic Charities' Christmas Store of Indianapolis!

In addition, this year a group of your parishioners came all the way from Danville to our Indianapolis location to work as volunteer shoppers. Mary Williams was the organizer of this group that included Marianne Novak, Helen Corbitt, Rosemarie Warren, Debbie Miller, Charlene King, Barbara Taylor, Teresa Lenahan, and Peggy Purvis. We thank them all so much.

Special thanks also go to Marianne and Tom Novak who, seeing our need, returned to the Christmas Store a week later to deliver your lovely donations of toys and clothing!

Words are not fully adequate to express our gratitude to all of you for your generosity. Thank you!
