LENTEN OBLIGATIONS

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of FAST and ABSTINENCE.

ALL other Fridays are days of ABSTINENCE.

Other Lenten sacrifices should be chosen by each one according to circumstances. Ideally these will include: increased prayer, almsgiving, good works, and the voluntary surrender of some pleasure.

FAST: Obligatory for all Catholics from 18 to 59 years of age. One full meal is allowed; the other two meals together should not equal another full meal. Snacking between meals is not permitted.

ABSTINENCE: Obligatory for Catholics from the 14th birthday. On these days no meat is allowed.

Additional Town Hall Meetings

After three town hall meetings to discuss our future facility needs, we have collected some excellent ideas from members of the parish. However, the number of parishioners that attended the meetings was lower than we had anticipated. In order to provide more options for people to provide their input, we will be offering an additional town hall meeting between the morning Masses on February 28. We will be sharing the same information that was outlined in the first sessions and gathering additional feedback. Coffee and doughnuts will be provided. We hope to see you there!

Participate in Lent through Project Rice Bowl - an opportunity for prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Pick up your rice bowl in the religious education building, and follow along with the pamphlet as you make your contributions.

The Religious Education department is looking for future catechists. You can review a job description on the narthex bulletin board or talk with Matthew for more information, or to nominate someone for the position.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

We have begun. The holy season of Lent is with us. At the beginning of Lent, the Holy Scriptures summon us to a posture of remembrance.

Just as the Israelites of old remembered the mighty acts that the Lord their God had done for them, so, too, are we called to remember what God has done for us.

As we continue our Lenten journey, let us focus on the gift that this holy season can be for each one of us. We celebrate the gift of Jesus' life, death and resurrection! We grow closer to the Lord Jesus, Who suffered, died and rose to new life to save us from sin and opened the way to everlasting life!

Occasionally St. Luke likes to use a literary technique called inclusion, a phrase or theme appearing early in a book and then resurfacing approximately the same distance from the conclusion. Today's Gospel includes one.

In the fourth chapter, the devil tempts and then departs from Jesus...for a time. Satan returns in the twenty-second chapter, entering into Judas, who then of course betrayed our Lord. We know Satan is not even remotely an equal to Christ. Jesus doesn't bump into Satan by mistake, but is brought to the desert to triumph over him! Only much later is Satan allowed to re-appear and evil do its worst; an illusory triumph eternally reversed by Christ's Resurrection!

What is central is not Satan's temptations, but the nearness of God, which our Lord acknowledges by quoting Scripture to repel him. Lent is our time to pray about the nearness of God in our lives and how many times we push Him away by our sins and selfishness. The Church's mandate that we pray, fast and give alms, are meant to help us acknowledge both our sins and the nearness and compassion of a forgiving God. Let us take advantage of this holy Season of Lent and all the many offerings afforded us to "repent, and believe in the Gospel." Remember, the "Light is On For You", the hearing of confessions, each Wednesday of Lent from 6:00-7:00 p.m. as well as the usual Saturday afternoons from 3:45-4:30!

Stations of the Cross will be celebrated each Friday of Lent at 6:00 p.m. Come as a family and share in Christ's journey to the cross and resurrection. You can either go the annual Lenten Fish Fry before Stations or after!

"EUCHARISTIC ETIQUETTE #2":

It should come as no surprise that respectful etiquette in the church calls for no eating or drinking (except for water when necessary). This includes no gum chewing. We are in the very Presence of our God! We make a habit of speaking with Him before and after Mass. We're blessed here at SMQP to have a narthex for fellowship and visiting. Let's remember to respect those who are at prayer before and after each Mass.

As we journey together this Lent, let us keep one another in prayer. Pray that we will grow closer to Jesus in the Eucharist and in reconciliation.

God bless one and all!

Father Mike

Let's Go to the Holy Land!

The Pilgrimage will take place September 26 to October 6. To walk in the footsteps of Jesus is an unbelievable experience. Brochures are available in the vestibule entrance of the church. Join us for the journey of a lifetime! Fr. Mike

Good News Ministries & Catholic Radio

Tune in to Catholic Radio who interviewed Bill Wegner from Good News Ministries while he was here for our Parish Mission. It will be broadcast the week of February 29 - March 5. Faith in Action will air the interview on Monday and Thursday at 4:00 p.m., Tuesday and Friday at 10:00 a.m. and Saturday at 12:30 p.m. Catholic Radio 89.1/90.9 FM.

'Frydays at MQP' - our Lenten fish fries have begun! Come to enjoy our hand-battered fish, and a variety of sides. This year we plan to offer soups and grilled cheese for those who don't want fish. Eat in the hall, or take dinner home. The fish fries are looking for donations of desserts or soups. Prices hold steady - $9 or less for adults,

$6 for kids 6-12, 5 and under free, $30 family ticket, and smaller takeout meals $6 or less. A la carte as well.

Order Easter Chocolates

Chocolate Easter treats from Confection Delights in Danville are available for order! Drop the bunnies; get a real milk chocolate cross. Order sheets are available in the narthex after the Masses in February.

Mary Queen of Peace is hosting homeless families for Family Promise the week of February 14-21. These families will rely on MQP for shelter, meals, and fellowship during that week. A sign-up sheet for needed donations is in the Narthex. Any help you can give is greatly appreciated! If you would like to volunteer during our hosting week or learn more about Family Promise you can visit our website (www.mqpdanville.org) and click on the "Family Promise" tab, or you can contact Kylie Kult (kylie@lawsonandco.com, 317-946-9901) or Beth Cherry (beth@thecherrybunch.com, 317-847-6576).

Another teen has decided to join us on our mission trip! There is still time for you to join us. If the cost is keeping you from coming along, we can help. Some generous donors have given scholarship money to help someone who wouldn't otherwise be able to go. Talk to Matthew for details.

We will be working in Harlan County, Kentucky from July 10-16. Find out more at catholicmissiontrips.net, and get ready to change lives - including yours.

The fish fries have started; thanks to those who helped the first week! We will need your help for our biggest fundraiser! We will host on Friday evenings from February 12 to March 18 (not Good Friday - 6 in all). You may work a shift, or the entire evening. Shifts are: 4:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m., and 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Schedule your work with Matthew now to be sure to get the slot you want.

We need table help to selling Easter chocolates. Sign-up with Matthew to work for 10 minutes after the Masses. Chocolate crosses, eggs, even Last Supper treats for Easter will be available for order in the narthex after the Masses in February. Profits will go toward our summer mission trip.

Hungering For Opportunity

Our journey with CRS Rice Bowl begins in Colombia, where coffee beans are changing lives! What actions can we take to change lives at home and around the world? Visit crsricebowl.org for more information. Adults of the parish can join the children in our Religious Education classes in the Rice Bowl program. Take a look at the display in the narthex and take home your rice bowl today!
