Catholic Home Missions Appeal

The Catholic Home Missions Appeal will take place next weekend. One way that this appeal works to support home mission dioceses in the United States is by supporting seminarian formation in poor dioceses. The blessing of seminarians places a financial burden on these dioceses, because educating each seminarian costs $35-40K per year. Your support is needed for these young men so that they might go back and serve their parishes. Please strengthen the Church at home by making a generous gift during the appeal.

Many Thanks

THANK YOU!!! to the women and men who volunteered their time and worked so hard to make the Women's Club rummage sale a huge success. We made $2,849 after expenses. Also, thank you to all who generously donated items, and to Mary Williams for the advertising. GOD BLESSED MARY, QUEEN OF PEACE with our giving members. Thank you again, Rosemarie Warren, Chairman

Bereavement Ministry

If you have lost a loved one recently or know of a parishioner who has, please contact Helen Disney so that we can include the family in our ministry. 317-745-4867 or jimandhelendisney@gmail.com

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

"My sheep hear My voice; I know them, and they follow Me." Very appealing and comforting isn't it? Or, is it? The words of Jesus offer us a unique challenge.

We all recognize certain TV shows or movies from their theme music. Who among us of the middle-aged variety, doesn't remember the music of "I Love Lucy" or "Hogan's Heroes"? How about theme music from "Jaws"? The same holds true for the younger folks among us; every generation or age group can relate.

We know the familiar melodies of favorite songs we hear on the radio, also. How many of you remember the theme of your junior or senior prom? When you were dating someone special you no doubt had "your" song, right?

All of this is important to call to mind when we reflect on today's Gospel. Given the cacophony of music, sound and voices in our lives, just how easy is it for us to listen to the sound of our Good Shepherd? I submit to you that it is difficult. But, that's the message of this weekend's liturgies; listening AND acting upon the call of Jesus Christ! We hear of those in the Book of Revelation who are singing the praises of the Lamb, those are the ones that have listened with all their hearts and souls to the voice of Jesus and are with Him eternally. That's our call and that is our privilege. What we have heard from Him; we must share. We pray for one another that it may always be so!

On a pastoral note, I'd like to say THANK-YOU! to all of the parish for the growing awareness and reverence shown to Our Lord Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle since its placement in the center of the sanctuary. Along with the chant music played before Mass, a noticeable prayerful atmosphere is growing. We still need to work on after Mass but that is coming along also!

This Sunday we celebrate with our young boys and girls and their families on their First Communion Day! Congratulations to Addison Baker, Addison Bean, Mei Li Clark, Andrew Earl, Abram Fallon, Autumn Muncy, Nathaniel Origer, Andrew Owens, Andrew Petree, Damian Snavely, Sabastian Snavely, Veralyn Vicente-Infante and Gabriel Williams

May Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament, bless them all! May they always receive Jesus with the same wonder and awe with which they do this day!

God bless you all!

Father Mike

The final religious education class will be on May 1—no conflict with Mother's Day! Thank you to our catechists for their dedication and contributions to the faith formation of our parish youth.

Parents: have you considered fulfilling your role in the Great Commission by teaching the youth of the parish our Catholic beliefs and practices? We will need to replace some of our catechists in the next season, beginning in September. Please contact Matthew Fallon in the office to get more information and to answer questions.
