A Celebration of Life

This is an invitation to join the family of Charles Hladek to celebrate his life. It will be held at the Hendricks County Senior Center, 1201 Sycamore Lane, in Danville on Friday, April 29, at 10:00 a.m. Although his final resting place is located in Pennsylvania beside his wife, we would like to have a special time with people who were part of his life in the most recent years.

For all those living in assisted living and nursing homes, also Bob Elliott, Ken Warner, Betty Schmutte, Rita Fritsch, David Sheets, Bob Sturm, Pauline Cave, Eva Tax, Meeda Lentz, Carlos Bessolo, Jean Mathis, Felicia Osmialowski, Don Fritsch, and Peggy Cave.

We ask that the Lord heal them and restore them to good health.

Prayer Line

If you know of someone who needs the special healing power of prayer, or to become a part of this ministry, call Fran Strauss at 317-745-5640.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

As the Easter continues to unfold, even with the "Alleluias," life can be tough. We live in an imperfect world, one marked by terrorism, war as well as the "ordinary" crosses that each individual may carry.

To this imperfect world and life of testing, the Lord Jesus proclaims in today's Gospel: "I give you a new commandment: love one another." We can look with sadness upon the world today, a sadness born from the knowledge that we simply do not love one another.

As followers of Jesus Christ, we simply must not allow this sadness turn into despair, for if this holy Easter-tide gives us anything, it gives us hope for our world and our lives as well. The commandment of Jesus begins in our own heart. It is within our heart that commitment and growth in our Lord Jesus comes about. However, we must realistically admit that this can sometimes feel overwhelming don't we?

I was reading a reflection on this weekend's Liturgy of the Word and it ended with this: Name a time when you found it difficult to love someone. How did you overcome this? A good thought for us all.

On Tuesday, May 3rd, several of our young men and ladies of the parish will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation at 7:00 p.m. at SS. Peter and Paul Cathedral. We congratulate Austin Arnold, Matthew Bratt, Isaac Brown, Cody Burd, Kailey Burkett, Liam Fallon, Derek Garzinski, Ellie Howard, Grace Larsen, Alicia Lombardo, Hannah Long, Matthew Monzingo, Janelle Morris, Leslie Pell, Jacob Petrunich, Meredith Perry, Juan San Martin, Maggie Van Laere, Logan Walliser, and Jacob Yarnell

"Tis the month of our Mother." Remember that hymn? I sure do. Very quickly, May will be upon us. May is traditionally celebrated as Mary's month. We honor the Blessed Mother as our Queen and in a special way, ask for her continued intercession. Of course Thursday and Friday, (May 5-6), are the First Thursday/Friday of May, therefore, we will be offering Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament! Come, and be with Our Lord! Pray the rosary of Our Lady during this month for an increase in vocations to the priesthood!

Father Mike

A Holy Year of Mercy

"Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful"
(Luke 6:36)

Teenagers: For our teenagers, that they may profess the faith and help to construct a culture of mercy, we pray to the Lord.

Registration for the Archdiocese Homeland Mission Project (June 12-17) has begun and four fellow parishioners have signed up to be there! Go to archindyym.com and look under 'youth events' for the electronic registration. For those seeking confirmation in 2017, this will fulfill half of your service component of preparation.

What's love got to do with it? Why did God give us our sexuality? How will we live to get the most joy from our life and relationships? Saint John Paul II compiled teachings on our physical lives and spiritual longings called The Theology Of The Body. We will be holding a weekly class this summer on this theology, adapted for teens (12 sessions). We will meet on Wednesday evenings from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m., beginning May 25th. Please reserve your spot by contacting Matthew in the office by May 14 so materials may be procured. The cost is only $15.

The youth group plots have been tilled and are ready to plant! If you have a green thumb (or want to), schedule a work session with Matthew to help get the vegetables planted, and then cared for, harvested, and delivered through the seasons. The produce will be donated to the Cypress Manor. This will be an on-going project. We're ready when you are.

Middle school youth: Be watching for information about the MS cookout coming up!

Level 8 students: You will be able to start confirmation preparation activities this summer. We will hold an informational/registration meeting by early June to distribute materials and answer your questions.

Service!

We will host the Summer Lunch Bunch session on Thursday, June 23rd. Come help serve a good lunch to our neighbors in need.

Our Shared Blessings food pantry does not close during the summer. There are still people in need who are hungry! Help them get some needed food supplies at the pantry Saturday morning, May 14, 9:30 to noon. Contact Matthew to put your name on the schedule to lend a hand.

The final religious education class will be on May 1—no conflict with Mother’s Day! Thank you to our catechists for their dedication and contributions to the faith formation of our parish youth.

Parents: have you considered fulfilling your role in the Great Commission by teaching the youth of the parish our Catholic beliefs and practices? We will need to replace some of our catechists in the next season, beginning in September. Please contact Matthew Fallon in the office to get more information and to answer questions.

Congratulations to our young people who are now joined to Christ and the Church through the Eucharist! The following young parishioners received the Eucharist for the first time last week: Addison Bean, Addison Baker, Mei Li Clark, Andrew Earl, Abram Fallon, Autumn Muncy, Nathaniel Origer, Andrew Owens, Andrew Petree, Damian Snavelly, Sabastian Snavelly, Veralyn Vicente-Infante.
