1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

Today our Lord Jesus tells us that the Holy Spirit will remind us of everything that He taught; more on that a bit later. As the holy Feast of Pentecost draws near, let us pray for an ever-stronger outpouring of the Holy Spirit in our hearts and souls. We need the Holy Spirit to keep reminding us (there's that word again) of all that Jesus did and taught.

Just think of last weekend's commandment from our Lord to "love one another" and then look around at the people in your life....how are you doing? This is where the "reminding" comes in.

Today, Our Lord speaks of "peace;" another somewhat nebulous word in our current society. He tells us: "Not as the world gives do I give it to you." Here's the clue. Too often we think of "peace" as the absence of conflict, struggle, disagreement or suffering. In other words, we think of "peace" in negative terms. For Our Lord, however, "peace" is the presence of something....a something that the world or for that matter, our very selves, can never supply. It is an internal harmony; an internal sense of well-being and security that, even in the face of all of the above, with Jesus, true trust and peace is possible. How does one explain the horrific deaths that all the martyrs of the Holy Church have undergone throughout the last two thousand years? It is the peace of Jesus Christ within them! By continuing to love, even those who hate us, brings us the inner peace that only Jesus can offer us! Remain close to Him in the Holy Eucharist; that is the very best way to find this "Peace of Christ!"

How did our Lord intend and establish that we are "reminded" of all that He taught us? Did He just leave this up to individual whim and belief, because we think the Holy Spirit told us something? Did He simply ascend into heaven; leaving us to figure out for ourselves what He taught? I don't think so!

We have been gifted with the authority and wisdom of the Magisterium, the official teaching authority of the Church, to lead, guide and comfort us unto eternal life. Jesus never would leave His Bride alone to blunder through the centuries trying to find Her way. He gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to His Bride! And, He gave St. Peter and his successors, with the bishops in union with him, the Holy Spirit to lead and guide them, as they in turn lead and guide us. Everyone, from Pope Francis to Joe and Jane Catholic, is both guided by, and answerable to, the Holy Spirit, led Magisterial teaching of the Church. What a gift and what a blessing! Praised be Jesus Christ!

Just a reminder, the SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION has been permanently transferred to the Seventh Sunday of Easter in the United States. Next weekend, May 7-8, we will observe the Feast. Do not forget, however, our monthly First Thursday/Friday observance of Eucharistic Adoration this week! Adoration runs from after the 5:30 p.m. Thursday Mass until 9:00 p.m. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is at 8:15 a.m. First Friday immediately before Mass. Come, pray especially for an increase in vocations to the holy priesthood!

May the Good God bring to completion the good work He has begun in us!

Father Mike

The next hosting week for Family Promise is May 8-15. A sign-up sheet for needed donations is in the Narthex as well as on our website (www.mqpdanville.org). Kroger gift cards and cash donations are always needed as well! If you are interested in volunteering please contact Kylie Kult (kylie@lawsonandco.com or 317-946-9901) or Beth Cherry (beth@thecherrybunch.com or 317-847-6576). Any help you can give is greatly appreciated!

Religious education classes for school students end this weekend. But keep learning over the summer. Read the Bible (especially the gospels) and don't miss Mass!

Thank you to our catechists AND to our substitutes, who were available at our request to step in and pinch hit and help keep us going!

Congratulations to our students who had perfect attendance this year: Andrew Lombardo, Nate Wigger, Autumn Muncy, Olivia Pell, Ben Cassity, Camden Brewer, Clare Wigger. Enjoy your DQ blizzard and your neck pendant!

VBS is coming June 13th! Middle school teens may help as leaders, or perform community service projects. Put your faith in action with real work! Sign up with Monica Grundman (317) 946-8993.

Parents: have you considered fulfilling your role in the Great Commission by teaching the youth of the parish our Catholic beliefs and practices? We will need to replace some of our catechists in the next season, beginning in September. Please contact Matthew Fallon in the office to get more information and to answer questions.

K of C Breakfast for Moms

The Knights of Columbus will host their next breakfast on Mother's Day, May 8, after the 8:00 and 10:30 a.m. Masses. All mothers are special guests of the Knights and will be treated to a free breakfast. The menu will feature sausage, eggs, pancakes, fruit cocktail, biscuits and gravy, and juice, coffee and milk. As has been our policy this year, for all others the cost for the meal is an "at will donation".

Mark Your Calendars

On Saturday, May 14, we will have our annual parish clean-up day.

Watch for more details to come.

Registration for the Archdiocese Homeland Mission Project (June 12-17) has begun and four fellow parishioners have signed up to be there! Go to archindy.com and look under 'youth events' for the electronic registration. For those seeking confirmation in 2017, this will fulfill half of your service component of preparation.

What's love got to do with it? Why did God give us our sexuality? How will we live to get the most joy from our life and relationships? Saint John Paul II compiled teachings on our physical lives and spiritual longings called The Theology Of The Body. We will be holding a weekly class this summer on this theology, adapted for teens (12 sessions). We will meet on Wednesday evenings from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m., beginning May 25th. Please reserve your spot by contacting Matthew in the office by May 14 so materials may be procured. The cost is only $15.

The youth group plots have been tilled and are ready to plant! If you have a green thumb (or want to), schedule a work session with Matthew to help get the vegetables planted, and then cared for, harvested, and delivered through the seasons. The produce will be donated to the Cypress Manor. This will be an on-going project. We're ready when you are, weather permitting!

Middle school youth: The cookout at the Petree's house is Sunday afternoon!

Level 8 students: You will be able to start confirmation preparation activities this summer. We will hold an informational/registration meeting by early June to distribute materials and answer your questions.

Service!

We will host the Summer Lunch Bunch session on Thursday, June 23rd. Come help serve a good lunch to our neighbors in need.

Our Shared Blessings food pantry does not close during the summer. There are still people in need who are hungry! Help them get some needed food supplies at the pantry Saturday morning, May 14, 9:30 to noon. Sign up with Matthew to make sure we have your spot ready.

Learn More About the Mass

Adult education will be doing a six-week Bible study learning more about the Mass. We will meet on Wednesday nights at 7:00 p.m. starting on May 25 through June 29 in the basement of the church. At our first meeting, we will discuss the book "The Biblical Roots of the Mass" by Thomas J. Nash. After this we will move on to watching a DVD study called "A Biblical Walk Through the Mass" with Edward Sri. You must order the book and the study workbook on your own. The workbook that goes with the DVD set must be ordered through evangelization.com at $16 each.
