"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

Today we embark on a long journey. Well, all things in perspective, it isn't really all that long. This weekend, the liturgical year continues into what is commonly called Ordinary Time.

If today is any indication, we can expect to share some wonderful and challenging Gospel stories of healing and reconciliation from St. Luke the Evangelist. Many of his settings for important epiphanies in the life of Jesus, take place at various meals. It seems as though Our Lord does a lot of eating in St. Luke's Gospel!

Today Jesus delivers a sharp rebuke to the Pharisee who offers very little hospitality to Him, in stark contrast to the sinful woman who anoints His feet. There's something very important happening in her actions.

First, she is acknowledging that it is Jesus Who can forgive her sins. To publicly acknowledge this fact was blasphemy! Secondly, despite her fear, she was still trusting enough to approach Jesus and bow in humility before Him; seeking forgiveness.

Those are two very powerful proclamations of faith that you and I need to remember! The reason is quite simple. It IS Jesus Christ and His Church through which the forgiveness of sin flows! We MUST have the trust to approach Him, through the actions of His priest and Church, to humbly seek this forgiving compassion in the Sacrament of Penance!

Sometimes summer time can just sort of lazily drift along. (Nothing wrong with that, right?!) However, like the sisters told us in grade school, we never take a vacation from the practice of our Catholic Faith; from Mass and Confession! I can still see the holy card I was once given and on the back were reminders to attend Sunday Mass; daily if possible and to go to confession regularly. It was good advice that remains good advice!

Remember to continue praying for the six young men who will be Ordained to the Priesthood on Saturday, June 25th! And, on behalf of all the seminarians and the Vocations Office, a BIG thank-you for your generous collection of $1,291.00 taken up last weekend for the education and formation our future priests!

God Bless You All and God Bless America!

Father Mike

A Holy Year of Mercy

Ill and Disabled: For those within the archdiocese and around the world who suffer from illness or are persons with disabilities, that they may feel God's mercy we pray to the Lord.
