"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

The Church offers us wonderful Scripture for this weekend's Mass. The first reading reminds us all that the command of the Lord, the truth of His message and way of life, is not something remote and far away. It is very near to us; already within our minds and hearts. Some would say all we need do is to carry it out. But, we all know that it is never that easy.

We are so very familiar with the story of the Good Samaritan. Here is a person who fulfilled the command of the Lord even though he had never been formed in the fullness of Jewish tradition and faith. Those who first listened to this parable of Jesus, couldn't even bring themselves to utter the name Samaritan. They despised one another as a people. Imagine the young man's inner struggle when Jesus told him to "Go and do likewise." In other words, "Go, imitate your enemy's charity and kindness." His story brings us an important facet of our own lives that we sometimes fail to acknowledge, let alone appreciate.

It's called NATURAL LAW. Natural Law is that innate sense of right and wrong we have within us as human beings created in the image and likeness of God. Through practical reason and the dictates of a correctly formed conscience, all persons are able to know objective, moral law. While many it seems wish to deny its existence, we can no more set it aside than we can stop breathing. To some, they may experience this divine truth as restrictive, confining and limiting. To Catholics, it is the complete opposite....it is freeing! It's that freedom of Jesus Christ and His Church.

Let us allow the Liturgy of the Word to settle into our hearts and inspire us to reach within and allow the truth of Christ, already planted deep within us through the Sacrament of Baptism, nourished by the Sacrament of the Eucharist and strengthened by the Sacrament of Penance, to grow and flourish into actions and attitudes that bring peace to our hearts and to our lives!

I would like to thank Jim Disney, Kylie Kult and Julie Petree for their great contributions to the Pastoral Council and to announce and congratulate the new Officers for our Parish Council. Joe Franchville was chosen to be Chair. David Glover was chosen to be Vice-Chair and Helen Corbitt selected to serve as Secretary. On behalf of the parish, I thank them for their willingness to serve!

God Bless You All!

Father Mike

This is the third year the Catholic Church is represented at the Hendricks County Fair. We have had a booth at the fair along with our COHORTS (St. Malachy and St. Susanna) in order to evangelize our Catholic Faith.

If you like meeting people and seeing old friends at the fair this is just the ticket for you.

The fair starts July 17th and runs thru July 23rd. Each parish will once again need one volunteer for each of our 11 shifts. Those shifts are 1:00 p.m. till 5:00 p.m. Sunday thru Friday and 5:00 p.m. till 9:00 p.m. Sunday thru Thursday.

It is easy to volunteer all you need to do is e-mail Anna at amw1005@iquest.net.

Natural Family Planning Awareness

Did you know? NFP is not the old school rhythm method. Attend an Introductory Session to learn about the Creighton Model FertilityCare System, which is a modern and green method that teaches women and couples to identify the naturally occurring times of fertility and infertility in a woman's cycle. This system can be used to avoid or achieve pregnancy, identify and treat women's health problems, and assist couples suffering from infertility. A free intro session will be held at St. Susanna School on Saturday, July 16, at 10:00 a.m. To register, contact mariamorganfcp@gmail.com or for more information, visit www.facebook.com/mariamorganfcp

Restaurant Fundraiser

Thank you to everyone who participated in our recent "restaurant night" at La Ranchera and helped raise funds for our youth group. If you missed the event in June, you have another chance on July 27th! Look for coupons to present to the cashier in the church entry, in the main office, or at the restaurant. Proceeds this month will help send catechists to Franciscan University John Bosco conferences next summer.

Religious Education students (and their families) are invited to a special day of God's forgiveness and grace. Participate in the sacrament of reconciliation on Wednesday, August 17. (Time to be announced.) Four priests from the Cohort parishes (MQP, St. Malachy & St. Susanna) will hear confessions. Let God take away your worry and heavy heart – wipe the slate clean and enjoy your vacation! Parents and students, look for an examination of conscience and review of the rite in your email.

If you love your faith and want to share it, here is a perfect opportunity. The parish is looking for catechists to teach religious education classes beginning in September. Prospective teachers will find a job description on the narthex bulletin board, or contact Matthew Fallon in the office to talk more about the position.

Attention Women of the Parish

We are in need of two team leaders for funeral meals. Also, if you would want to help serve or donate food items, please contact Debbie Miller 317-745-4332 or email the office at awray@mqpdanville.org.

Shared Blessings Food Bank

The food pantry is relocating to the new basement at Danville UMC! They are constructing a 10 ft. wide walk so that vehicles can back right up to the building for unloading. The walk is being constructed with engraved pavers. Parishioners and businesses are being given the opportunity to buy an engraved paver. 100% of the money raised will go to the food pantry. Order forms can be found on the bulletin board in the Narthex, as well as on our Mary Queen of Peace website.

Thank you for your continued support of the Shared Blessings Food Pantry, serving God by serving others!
