"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

For several weeks now we have been listening to Gospel stories that focus on our behavior and relationships as we follow Christ Jesus. This week, the first reading and Gospel remind us that Christian hospitality has always been a hallmark of the Church. In a nutshell, we are both Mary and Martha. What we do is certainly important: like Martha. However, who we are, like Mary, even more important! Who we are in the sight of God and our actions in light of our Catholic identity define us.

We are called to extend a welcome to those who come into our midst. Like the message from last weekend's parable of the Good Samaritan, this call to hospitality has challenging implications for us all. In welcoming the stranger or visitor, we not only imitate Jesus, we also have the potential of welcoming Christ Himself into our midst.

At times, hospitality is thought of as merely smiling at someone or saying "hello." While that is sometimes true, it goes much deeper for those of us who call ourselves Catholic. How so?

As a priest, I can't tell you the number of times people have shared with me that one big reason they converted to the Church was because they were invited to Mass or invited to pray about the Faith by a member of the parish or Catholic friend. That is the truest form of hospitality that we can offer! What could compare with welcoming someone into the Church established by Our Lord Jesus? Being there for someone who is inquiring about the Church, about the Holy Eucharist, about those "things" we Catholics "do"; that's being hospitable! And, that's the "new evangelization" that the late St. Pope John Paul II and Pope Francis urge us to live. When you stop to think about it, how do I approach God? Do I approach Him with my "to do" list, or with a spirit of humility and gratitude? May the Lord give us the will and joy to do so!

God's blessings upon us all!

Father Mike

Fun in the Summer Sun!

It's getting HOT this summer. We'll have a chance to have fun and cool off at the Danville pool on Friday, August 5th, 7:00-9:00 p.m. We've reserved the evening for Mary Queen of Peace. Come splash around with your parish friends...and make some new ones!

Religious Education students (and their families) are invited to a special day of God's forgiveness and grace. Participate in the sacrament of reconciliation on Wednesday, August 17. (Time to be announced.) Four priests from the Cohort parishes (MQP, St. Malachy & St. Susanna) will hear confessions. Let God take away your worry and heavy heart – wipe the slate clean and enjoy your vacation! Parents and students, look for an examination of conscience and review of the rite in your email.

If you love your faith and want to share it, here is a perfect opportunity. The parish is looking for catechists to teach religious education classes beginning in September. Openings exist in the kindergarten and fourth grade classes, and we are looking for people to lead special subject classes as well. Please contact Matthew Fallon for more information about this opportunity to serve.

Restaurant Fundraiser

Thank you to everyone who participated in our recent "restaurant night" at La Ranchera and helped raise funds for our youth group. If you missed the event in June, you have another chance on July 27th! Look for coupons to present to the cashier in the church entry, in the main office, or at the restaurant. Proceeds this month will help send catechists to Franciscan University John Bosco conferences next summer.

Painters Wanted!

We're adding some color in the Religious Education classrooms and we could use your help. If a paint brush or roller fits in your hand we could use you! Painting will take place on July 20 and 21, from 9:00 a.m.-noon. For planning purposes, please call Matthew in the office if you are going to pitch in, and Thank You!

Attention Women of the Parish

We are in need of two team leaders for funeral meals. Also, if you would want to help serve or donate food items, please contact Debbie Miller 317-745-4332 or email the office at awray@mqpdanville.org.
