"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

You know, Abraham's bartering with God should not prompt us to do the same. Whenever you have heard this story, don't you always wonder how Abraham had the gall to argue over and over with God? I know, all of us do this in some fashion from time to time but I don't honestly believe we make it a regular habit!

The moral of the story is to convince us of God's mercy; not His righteous anger. God had every right to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah. Each time we pray the Confiteor at Mass, we strike our chest three times as we admit our sins of both commission as well as omission. God has every right to "punish" us as well if we're honest with ourselves.

But, as I said, the true moral is God's almost unbelievable mercy shown to us every day of our lives. It is simply beyond us; we who like to hold onto the resentment, grudges and our "me first" mentality.

When we pray the "Our Father," we admit our sins while at the same time, imploring the Father's forgiveness. I think an important line of the prayer is this: "...forgive us AS WE FORGIVE..." That's the punch right there. Only to the extent that we forgive will we ourselves be forgiven. Sort of makes you stop and think doesn't it?

We should never forget our Lord's call: "...ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you." The very best way for us to "ask, seek and knock" is in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament! Whether or not the Holy Eucharist is exposed in the monstrance or reposed in the tabernacle, prayer before our Eucharistic Lord is the very best prayer, second only to the offering of the Mass, that we can offer Jesus Christ. Stop in church and visit He Who waits for YOU! Let us always make an offer to take part in our monthly Adoration on First Thursday/First Friday for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. As the Sacred Heart told St. Margaret Mary: "The more you honor Me, the more I will bless you!" Now that is speaking to God!

Have a "prayer-full" week everyone!

Father Mike

Country Cupboard

The Women's Club is asking for your help in supporting our first MQP Country Cupboard at the Annual Christmas Bazaar in November. Over the summer as you prepare your preserved items of jellies, vegetables, salsas, fruits, etc, please make some extra for the Country Cupboard. We also will be selling jars of cookies/cocoa mixes. If you have jars with lids you want to donate or you have questions, please call Anita Dieckmann at 745-6493.

Thank You!

Thank you to all our fellow parishioners who participated in sending nine teens on our recent mission trip! From donations to volunteer work at fundraisers to sending us off as we left for Kentucky, your help made our trip a success. Our youth benefitted from the work and conditions, the exposure to less fortunate people and other fellow mission workers, and the spiritual enrichment activities. The teens had a great time and a great experience - several are already making plans to go on another trip in the next year or two...possibly overseas!

Fun in the Summer Sun!

It's getting HOT this summer. We'll have a chance to have fun and cool off at the Danville pool on Friday, August 5th, 7:00-9:00 p.m. We've reserved the evening for Mary Queen of Peace. Come splash around with your parish friends...and make some new ones! And, feel free to bring a treat or snack to share!

Religious Education students (and their families) are invited to a special day of God's forgiveness and grace. Participate in the sacrament of reconciliation on Wednesday, August 17, at 7:00 p.m. Four priests from the cohort parishes (Mary, Queen Peace, St. Malachy and St. Susanna) will hear confessions. Let God take away your worry and heavy heart - wipe the slate clean and enjoy your vacation!

If you love your faith and want to share it, here is a perfect opportunity. The parish is looking for catechists to teach religious education classes beginning in September. Openings exist in the kindergarten, fourth, and fifth grade classes, and we are looking for people to lead special subject classes as well. Please contact Matthew Fallon for more information about this opportunity to serve.

Restaurant Fundraiser

You can eat out and help the religious education program at the same time. Visit La Ranchera in Danville anytime on July 27th and we will get 20% of the total. Look for coupons to present to the cashier in our church entry, in the main office, or at the restaurant. Proceeds this month will help send catechists to Franciscan University 'John Bosco' conferences next summer. Thank you for your support!
