"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+ Dear Friends,

How truly appropriate it is that, as we gather to celebrate Holy Mass this weekend, we hear St. Paul speaking to us of the freedom we receive as men and women who bear the image of Jesus Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism.

He encourages us to use this freedom to love God and neighbor as we love ourselves. The Gospel reminds us that our focus needs to always be on the Lord Jesus, Who invites us to follow Him unreservedly.

We are free to make this choice and once we do, we will be a people dedicated to serving others.

When thinking about our freedom, I cannot help but to continue thinking about the massacre in Orlando two weeks ago at the hands of a radical Islamic terrorist. With freedom, comes great responsibility and the choice to either act for good or for evil. Compound this "choice" with doing evil in the Name of God is simply beyond words to comprehend. We are again forced to think about and discuss the freedoms we enjoy in our nation and how to handle such maniacal madness. I don't have the answers; only God does. We do the one thing we Catholics do best: PRAY. You all know I speak of my great pastor, Fr. Spicuzza. a lot. I will always remember him saying that we will never have lasting peace in the world until everyone accepts the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ! That simple but profound statement has stayed with me all the rest of my life. Whenever such evil takes place in the so-called name of religion, his words come right back to my mind. We know that the murderer targeted, in this case, the gay community. But the reality is that it could be any one of us singled out. I somewhat disagree with those who think that the "target" must be considered as the "cause." The true cause goes to the core of our being: free will. As I mentioned above, we either chose good or evil. As we prepare to celebrate the great celebration of our Independence Day, let us double our efforts to pray for our nation and her citizens.

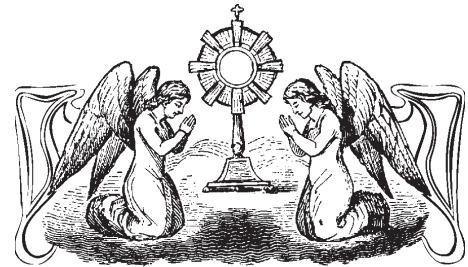

On a much brighter note, I'd like to announce to the parish some adjustments in job descriptions of staff, following the guidance of the parish council. The adjustments come as a result of much thought, prayer and consultation. They will be implemented July 1st and I pray good things will continue to happen. Matthew Fallon will continue as Administrator of Religious Education as well as assuming the duties of Adult Education and assisting in the RCIA program.

Our new part-time Youth Minister will be Beth Dieckmann, who has been very involved in the youth of the parish for some time. She will continue to be assisted by Cassie Vandermolen. Jeff Earl will continue to be the primary instructor of the RCIA program. I thank both Tonya Earl and Maureen Devlin, for their past endeavors in the areas of Adult Ed and RCIA and we look forward to their continued involvement! If you or someone you know would like to become involved as a volunteer in these areas, just let us know!

God Bless You All & God Bless the USA!

Father Mike

"He is there!

He Who loves us

So much!"

St. John Vianney

Adoration: Thursday 6:00-9:00 p.m.

Benediction: Friday 8:10 a.m.

Religious Education students (and their families) are invited to a special day of God's forgiveness and grace: Participate in the sacrament of reconciliation on Saturday, July 23rd. Fr. Fritsch will hear confessions beginning at 3:30 p.m. God's love and mercy is even available during the summer! Let God take away your worry and heavy heart - wipe the slate clean and enjoy your vacation much more. Look for an examination of conscience and review of the rite in your email parents.

Send Off Our Youth to Kentucky

Our young parishioners travelling to Harlan, KY for a mission trip will be leaving after the 8:00 a.m. Mass on July 10th. Come wish them a safe journey and send them off. After a prayer, they'll get in the van, and you can wave them on their way!

Painters Wanted!

We're adding some color in the Religious Education classrooms and we could use your help. If a paint brush or roller fits in your hand we could use you! Painting will take place on July 20 and 21, from 9:00 a.m. - noon. For planning purposes, please call Matthew in the office if you are going to pitch in, and Thank You!

Attention Women of the Parish

We are in need of two team leaders for funeral meals. Also, if you would want to help serve or donate food items, please contact Debbie Miller 317-745-4332 or email the office at awray@mqpdanville.org.

Shared Blessings Food Bank

The food pantry is relocating to the new basement at Danville UMC! As part of this move, the food pantry will have more space to operate, with new shelves and carts being added. They are constructing a 10 ft. wide walk so that vehicles can back right up to the building for unloading. The walk is being constructed with engraved pavers. Parishioners and businesses are being given the opportunity to buy an engraved paver. 100% of the money raised will go to the food pantry. Order forms can be found on the bulletin board in the Narthex, as well as on our Mary Queen of Peace website.

Thank you for your continued support of the Shared Blessings Food Pantry, serving God by serving others!
