"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"The Kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce fruit." This final line from today's Gospel continues to challenge us, as have the Scriptures for the past several weeks.

It asks us to remember what happened when we were baptized. For some, that important event was long ago. For others, it has been rather recently celebrated. Either way, we were "christened;" we 'put on' Jesus Christ and His mission, His truth, His life. These were made our own.

This certainly doesn't necessarily mean accomplishing 'great feats' of discipleship in this life. Much of what we are called to live and truly be, is hidden from the eyes of this world. What it usually means is that we nurture and sustain our faith life by active participation in the liturgical life of the Church, adoration of Christ in the Eucharist purely for love of Him, prayer for others and acts of Christian charity. These are all the fruits of the vineyard of the Kingdom of God.

On this Respect Life Sunday, let us all renew our commitment to the protection of all human life, from conception to natural death. As Catholics, it is of eternal consequence that we "practice what we preach." The support of life is the utmost "issue" of our faith and its practice. Yes, it trumps all other "issues" and concerns.

All Catholic teaching stems from the firm belief in the dignity of each life; therefore, life must be protected from the first moment of its conception. It is NOT a matter of "choice." It is a matter of life!

Some of you are aware that I was originally to be away this next week leading a pilgrimage to Italy. This was set up long before knowing I was being transferred to Mary, Queen of Peace. The pilgrimage didn't materialize due to lack of numbers able to go. Therefore, having already secured a missionary to come, I am taking some days to learn more about Spiritual Direction....how to serve as a Director as well as gaining more advantage from having one personally. As priests, we are to do this on a regular basis. I'll pray for you as you pray for me!

God Bless You All!

Father Mike

"He is there!

He Who loves us

So much!"
