"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"At times being a Catholic can be a real drag." Have you ever heard that before? Maybe you've even felt that way. Human nature being what it is, it's not unusual for this feeling to be in our lives from time to time. Coupled with the words we've been challenged with in the Gospels we've been sharing these past few weeks, it can sometimes feel that being a follower of Jesus is "a drag."

This week's Gospel is perhaps the most challenging for it calls into question many of our own personal choices in life. We live in one of the most blessed, wealthiest nations of the world. While many in the world go hungry each night, a majority of our nation's citizens are obese!

These are the facts that we can't ignore. The Lord Jesus does not say that we should not have food, money and possessions. His is a challenge that has everything to do with what we do with our food, money and possessions. As I have mentioned in past homilies, it's to see that we possess things; they don't possess us. While it may be uncomfortable for us to do so, perhaps it's good for us all to pray "how have I used the blessings God has given me; that I have worked hard to obtain?"

Liturgical Question: "Father, why, during the praying of "The Confiteor," do you strike your heart/breast/chest, three times?" Good question. For those of you old enough to remember the "Old Mass" (which there really isn't such a thing), when we prayed: "mea culpa, mea culpa, mea maxima culpa," we were praying the exact words we pray today: "through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault." As these words are prayed, striking the heart, breast, chest, whatever you want to call it, is a sign of true repentance and contrition for our sins. Back in 2010 when a more accurate translation of the Mass was reinstated by Pope Benedict XVI, this gesture was restored to the Mass and should be done when praying The Confiteor. So, it's really that simple; and yet very profound.

I would like to thank ALL who made our OKTOBER-FEST 2016 so much fun! It took many hours, volunteers and sponsors, and I think those who attended will agree with me that it was worth the effort!

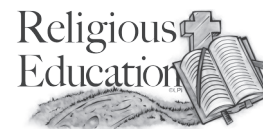

This weekend, the parish formally accepts and presents our Candidates for Confirmation next spring. We pray for: Nick Beaman, Benjamin Cassity, Braiden Cassity, Hayden Deno, Benjamin Dooley, Alexandra Earl, Audrey Fox, Preston Fox, Ryan Grudman, Daniel Hazelton, Marisa Kelly, Dillon Kottkamp, Toby Kult, Sarah Larson, Rachel Lathrop, Nathan Lauth, Grace Long, Clara Petree, Jordan Riddle, Blake Saylor, Leo Schack, Callie Sharkey, Jacob Steinway, Grace Thomas, Braden Walliser, and Abby Yarnell - and pledge them our prayers and support!

Our parish has received official approval to proceed with a financial feasibility study as the next step in a building campaign. The design of the new renovation of the 1954 building and new Parish Life Center will soon be available for everyone to examine. Much more information will be forthcoming!

May our Eucharistic Christ continue to bless us, our families, our parishes and our youth!

Father Mike

This is the final week to register for the adult religious education class "Oremus: Let us Pray." Books will be ordered this week. Information and sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board, or call Matthew in the office.

Religious education classes for our school-aged parishioners have begun! If you still want your child(ren) to join, speak with Matthew in the RE office at 9:15 on Sunday, or Monday - Thursday 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. Parents of students from 4 year-olds to Level 3, please pick up your children promptly at the end of class so that our catechists may get to Mass on time!

There are beautiful fall mums for sale after Mass this week and next week. Large plants just coming into bloom in a variety of colors for only $10. Proceeds will be used for our young parishioners. Thank you for your support!

RCIA classes will begin this coming Tuesday evening at 7:00 p.m. All are welcome to support the journey of discovery of the catechumens, and learn something more about our Catholic faith.

Patriotic Rosary

Please join us in praying a patriotic rosary in the nave on Wednesday, September 21, at 7 p.m. There will be no choir practice that night, but all choir members are encouraged to join us as we pray the rosary and sing patriotic songs. Please contact Junelle Dreyer at 765-719-3566 or email at junellea@gmail.com with your RSVP or questions.

"Remember when you leave this earth, you can take with you nothing that you have received, only what you have given: A heart enriched by honest service, love, sacrifice and courage."
