"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

The arms of Moses grow weary in today's first reading. As long as he kept his arms raised high, the Israelites had the better of the fight, but when his arms were lowered, the Israelites would fall low in battle.

Aaron and Hur assist Moses by keeping his arms held high when he grows weary. Their persistence pays off as the Israelites win the decisive battle. Persistence is also the main point in today's Gospel.

As Catholics we are blessed to express our faith in the company of a nurturing community both locally as well as universally. Sometimes we grow weary, don't we? Sometimes our prayer needs the support and compassion of those who will lift us up. At these times it is important for us to hold one another up so that our persistent prayers are constantly offered to our Lord! As we go forth from Mass today, let us pray in a spirit of thanksgiving for the gift of one another in the unity of faith and belief grounded in the Holy Eucharist!

This weekend you will continue to find the ALL SOULS' DAY envelopes available on the gifts table in front of the baptismal font. Please feel free to place the names of your beloved dead on the envelope and return them no later than OCTOBER 23RD in order that the names can be inscribed into our BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE for this year's month of All Souls, November.

ALL SAINTS' DAY VIGIL MASS WILL BE OCTOBER 31ST, ALL HALLOWS' EVE, AT 7:00 P.M. ON NOVEMBER 1ST, MASS WILL BE AT NOON! Mass for ALL SOULS' will be offered on WEDNESDAY, November 2nd at the usual 8:30 a.m.

Growing up, I always looked forward to the month of November. True, going to a Catholic School, we always had November 1st as a free day so we didn't have to go to school the day after Halloween! And, yes, I never went to school on my birthday because of Veterans' Day!

But, the month was and still remains very special to me for another important reason. I always felt close to my family and loved ones who had died. As a Catholic, I always appreciated and loved the prayers offered for deceased aunts, uncles, cousins, grandfathers, etc. As I lost my two grandmas and now of course, Dad, November continues to hold a powerful hold. There's something about the COMMUNION OF THE SAINTS that I find very comforting. As the circle of family grows closer here on earth, it grows ever wider in heaven.

As we remember and pray for those gone in death, they pray for us! I find that very comforting. I feel sorry for those outside the Church who have jettisoned the belief in the saints and their intercession in our lives. Whether we are cleansed and purged of our sins in this life, or in purgatory, we all need the prayers of others!

Of course, I must make mention of the tremendous honor given to Archbishop Tobin and the Archdiocese! For the first time in our history, Indianapolis now has a CARDINAL-ARCHBISHOP! He is now a Cardinal-Elector in the next Papal Conclave to elect a new Pope! Just for future reference, when you now meet the Archbishop, call him "Your Eminence!" Let us continue to pray for him as he now undertakes this responsibility!

God Bless You All!

Father Mike

Congratulations and welcome to the newest member of our parish family.

YOUTH NEWS

On Saturday, October 22, the youth group will have a "Fall Event". It will be in the basement of the church from 6 - 9 p.m. We will be working on a service project creating crafts for the Women's Club for the Christmas Bizarre. We will also be doing a painting pumpkin night. Then we will have a fire with some hot dogs and s'mores with cider and hot chocolate. Bring a flash light; we may end the night with some flash light tag. This is a new event and is not on the calendar.

Winter Clothing Drive

The Friends of Saint Anthony's will be collecting new and gently used winter coats, mittens, gloves, hats, and scarves for the Bundle'em up Hendricks County program. We will be collecting these items until October 23. Please place items in the blue barrel in the Narthex. These items will be washed and then re-distributed to those in need on October 29 at the Hendricks County Fairgrounds. Thank you for your support!

An Inside Look at Women's Health

Do you want to become a better advocate for your health? Are you wanting to improve irregular cycles, acne, PMS, mood swings, and hormonal imbalances without artificial hormones? There is a more effective alternative that is natural through NaPro Technology®. There will be a free session on NaPro Technology® for Women's Health on Saturday, October 29, at 10:00 a.m. at St. Susanna School, Plainfield. Take the opportunity to learn the science behind cycle irregularities and discover natural solutions available through medically trained Catholic NaPro physicians in Indiana. All women in their late teens through pre-menopause are encouraged to attend. Space is limited. Please RSVP to mariamorganfcp@gmail.com or visit the event page at <https://www.facebook.com/events/1260014820723468/>

Country Cupboard

The Women's Club Christmas Bazaar is rapidly approaching. It will be November 12th from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. in the basement. Please bring any items you have for the Country Cupboard to the Women's Club Raffle tables in the Narthex. If you have questions direct them to Anita Dieckmann at 745-6493 or pad1986@att.net.

This coming Wednesday, October 19, at 7:30 p.m. the adult religious education program will offer a class on the Liturgy of the Hours - the daily prayer of the Church. Oremus: Let Us Pray will resume next Sunday (the 23rd) and Wednesday (the 26th).

Parents of Level 2 religious education students: the class will meet next Sunday at 9:00 a.m. in the church. We will hold our penance and reconciliation investiture service to commit to and kick off our preparation to participate in the sacrament later this fall. We will also hold a parent meeting on Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. Students will not attend.

Religious education classes will start up again next Sunday, October 23.
