Update from the Building Committee

Many of you may be asking, "What has been happening with the building project since our town halls earlier this year?" Well, that is an excellent question. There has been a considerable amount of work that has happened over the past several months including the following:

- We hired an architect to develop a layout of a facility that included the scope that we shared with you and incorporated many of your comments,
- We completed a survey of the church grounds to provide input into the basic design,
- We shared the concept and rough cost estimate with the Archdiocese to get approval to move forward in the process,
- We received approval from the Archdiocese to move forward with a feasibility study.

This feasibility study will basically allow us to assess whether we have the right level of support in the parish to make the project a success. We are looking at a couple of outside consultants approved by the Archdiocese that could help us do this study. The selected firm will have their experts speak with many members of the parish to judge level of support and willingness to contribute finances to the effort. They will provide their report after several months indicating whether they feel we have enough support to move forward with a fundraising campaign. We expect this activity to happen in 2017.

You will start seeing more about the effort over the next several months.

Envelopes can be dropped in the collection. Thank you, The Liturgy Committee

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today's reading from the Book of Wisdom makes a fitting prayer to offer before we come to Mass. It provides a backdrop to the Gospel. In the familiar story of Zaccheus, we learn many things. The last line of the passage sums up a main point in all of St. Luke's Gospel: "For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."

Looking into our hearts, I think it's safe to say that each one of us feels lost at some point or another in life. Jesus catches sight of Zaccheus in the tree. He stops His journey and seeks out the short of stature Zaccheus. Every one of us is "small" spiritually. Our sins keep us that way. Let us pray today that in moments when we feel "small" or insignificant, the good God will catch sight of us and change everything!

We are a day early but... Happy All Hallows' Eve! All Hallows, All Saints and All Souls, form a liturgical "triduum" of prayer. On Monday and Tuesday, October 31st and November 1st, the Church celebrates the SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS. The Church calls all the baptized to come together in celebration of the promise of eternal life for those who put their faith in Jesus Christ! The promise has been fulfilled in the heroic lives of all the saints who have gone before us in faith. All Saints' Day is a reminder to us to "stay the course", to live lives in faithful witness to the great gift and treasure received in Baptism. The saints stand as models of charity, courage and faith. Mass will be offered at 7:00 p.m. on October 31st. On November 1st, Mass will be offered at Noon.

On Wednesday, November 2nd, the Church celebrates the Feast of ALL SOULS. It is the special day set aside to gather for Mass in prayer for all those who have died. In a particular way, we pray for those who await the fullness of the Beatific Vision. Those in Purgatory need our prayers as we need theirs. Through the COMMUNION OF THE SAINTS, we ask those on earth to pray for us; we ask the saints to intercede on our behalf; we in turn pray for our beloved dead.

Come to Mass on All Souls' Day at 8:30 a.m.! Remember your beloved dead. Pray for them. They pray for us!

May all the Angels and Saints pray for us all!

Father Mike

He Who loves us

So much!"

Also a huge shout of thanks to Joe Pecar for helping clean up the fire pit outside!! We used it for our fall theme event and the children enjoyed themselves! Thank you for all the people who have made this year successful so far! We do all appreciate the hard work!
