1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

You know, there are many responses to the reception of a gift. Remember back to Christmas Days in the past when you opened something and it just wasn't what you really wanted? Sort of hard sometimes to hide disappointment, isn't it? Or, when you've gifted someone else and you can just tell that they don't particularly like your choice of gift?

Some people like to flaunt their fortune. Others become self-absorbed. Today's readings invite us to respond to God's gifts in a simple way. We are called to offer thanks. Each time we gather for the offering of Holy Mass; for the offering of the Eucharist, a word that means "thanksgiving," we have the opportunity of a life time to say "thank-you" to the Father.

Like Naaman and the grateful leper, we come before the Lord to give thanks for our families and friends, for our Catholic Faith, for the many blessings we have each received and, most of all, for the Gift of Jesus Himself in the Most Holy Eucharist!

I think quite often, we can learn much from the grateful leper. This one grateful leper returned and perceived that with Jesus, something more and something better is offered than simply returning to our old way of life.

We all know, at times it's hard to be anything but thankful when we dwell on the problems, sufferings and real pain that confront us in life. This life is not heaven, no matter how much we wish it were. As the hymn says: "We walk by faith." And because of faith, we are called to thanksgiving.

The Mass this weekend affords us the time to reflect upon blessings and thanksgiving. Are we a people who walk through life with grateful hearts? In what ways in the coming week can we offer thanks to God our Father for all we have been given? How can we share this with others?

It is somewhat hard to believe but it's that time of year again when we make available to the parish, the envelopes for ALL SOULS' DAY. The envelopes will be in the narthex for the next three weekends for you to include the names of your beloved dead which will be written into our BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE, which will remain in the sanctuary during the holy month of November when we traditionally make a special effort to remember and pray for the dead. It is asked that all envelopes be returned no later than Sunday, October 30th to be inscribed into the book.

God's blessings to you all!

Father Mike

Respect
Life

Eternal Father, Source of Life, strengthen us with your Holy Spirit
to receive the abundance of life you have promised.

Open our hearts to see and desire the beauty of your plan for life and love.
Make our love generous and self-giving so that we may be blessed with joy.

Grant us great trust in your mercy.

Forgive us for not receiving your gift of life and heal us from the effects of the culture of death.
Instill in us and all people reverence for every human life.
Inspire and protect our efforts on behalf of those most vulnerable

especially the unborn, the sick and the elderly.

We ask this in the Name of Jesus,
who by His Cross makes all things new. Amen.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Be sure to stop by the table in the Narthex to learn more about Respect Life and Respect Life Month.

Winter Clothing Drive

The Friends of Saint Anthony's will be collecting new and gently used winter coats, mittens, gloves, hats, and scarves for the Bundle'em up Hendricks County program. We will be collecting these items until October 23. Please place items in the blue barrel in the Narthex. These items will be washed and then re-distributed to those in need on October 29 at the Hendricks County Fairgrounds. Thank you for your support!

Clarification: The evening meeting of the adult religious education class ("Oremus: Let Us Pray") meets at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays. The adult education class will not meet this Sunday or next (9th and 16th), for the fall break. The class also will not meet this Wednesday (11th), but on Wednesday, October 19, an extra class (open to all) on other communal prayer and the Liturgy of the Hours will be held at 7:30 p.m. Regular classes will resume on October 23 and 26.

Religious education classes for school-aged parishioners will resume Sunday, October 23. Have a lovely fall break!

Thank you to everyone who participated in our 'eat-out' fundraiser. We will be taking a break for a few months, but watch this spot for more opportunities in the future.

Reminder: we are not currently collecting plastic bottle caps.

Country Cupboard

The Women's Club is asking for your help in supporting our first MQP Country Cupboard at the Annual Christmas Bazaar in November. We will be selling jars of cookies/cocoa mixes. If you have jars with lids you want to donate or you have questions, please call Anita Dieckmann at 745-6493.
