Early Deadlines for Bulletin Submissions:

For the November 20 bulletin, please have all articles submitted by 8:00 p.m. Saturday, November 12. For the November 27 bulletin, everything must be submitted by Friday, November 18, at 6:00 p.m. Thanks for helping us meet the early publication deadlines.

Thank You!

I want to say thank you to everyone who came to help run games and help out at the All Saints' Day party. Thanks to Anna Wray, Laurie Woodman, Laura Flaherty, Matthew Fallon, Michelle Pritchett; also some of the youth group kids, Jordan Riddle, Leo Schack, Callie Sharkey, and Toby Kult. They all did a wonderful job manning all the games, taking pictures, and cleaning up. Thank you to all the parents who dressed up their kiddos in adorable costumes and brought them out to have some fun celebrating the lives of our saints. It was a blast! Now, tell all your parish friends to come out next year to have some fun with us!
Kira Wray (Chairperson of All Saints Day Party)

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Notwithstanding the Sadducees' verbal trickery, the issue raised in today's Gospel passage is very important: What will heaven be like? You've wondered, haven't you? If in our Father's Kingdom we "neither marry nor are given in marriage," will spouses who loved each other in this life experience a complete loss of that love and relationship? No. Think of our Lord's words, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest."

This truly suggests that in heaven we shall find no need. The woes and loves of this world will be completely filled by the Beatific Vision of the Holy Trinity. The fullness of God's love includes our beloved in this life. All the good in our hearts in this life will be retained; only more fully.

The first paragraph of today's second reading is a prayer of encouragement fitting for our own spiritual journey of faith. The other readings focus our attention on the life that awaits us on the other side of the grave.

During this special month of November when we remember our beloved dead in a heightened manner, it is so appropriate to recall that what we do in this life is done in preparation for the life to come. This can become a little overwhelming at times, can't it? All of us at times harbor a natural fear of death, while at the same time, giving very little thought to eternal life.

On Friday of this week, we as a nation observe Veterans' Day. It's an honored day to give thanks to those men and women who sacrificed for our country and her freedoms from the days of Valley Forge to the sands of Iraq. Many gave the "last full measure of devotion" and never made it home to loved ones. They are remembered as forever young; full of life and hope. The somber lines of markers, each marked with individual flags, tugs at our hearts. I know when I go home and visit Dad's grave, there is always a flag and, of course, his stone has a B-17 plane etched into it since he was a pilot during WW II. Being born on Veteran's Day, I guess it's made me appreciate patriotism and be a great flag waver! I had birthday cakes with flags on them, decorated in red, white and blue and, of course, always got out of school on November 11th! Awesome day to celebrate a birthday! Today of all days, thank a vet for their service!

Our goal this year for the UNITED CATHOLIC APPEAL IS $27, 413.00. As of today, we have already collected pledges and gifts of nearly $6,000.00! Let us generously support the work of the Archdiocese and our parish!! Intention weekend is next week-end, November 12-13.

May we remember and pray for All Poor Souls in this holy time of November! God bless always!

Father Mike

*Happy Birthday, Fr. Mike!
On your Veteran's Day Birthday.
Friday, November 11.*

A Holy Year of Mercy

"Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful"
(Luke 6:36)

Prisoners: We pray for those who are in prison within the Archdiocese and around the world, that they may seek and receive God's mercy, we pray to the Lord.

Friends of St. Anthony (FOSA)

Christmas Party

Ho! Ho! Ho! Our annual parish Christmas Party will be Sunday, December 11, immediately following the 10:30 Mass.

Please come enjoy some Christmas cheer and good food with your parish family. We will have a craft for the kids, a Christmas puzzle for the adults, and a visit from Santa and Mrs. Claus. Meat and drinks will be provided. Please bring a side dish or dessert to share. Hope to see you there!! If you have any questions, please call Michelle Pritchett at 317-446-1869.

YOUTH NEWS

On Saturday, November 12, the Women's Club annual Christmas Bazaar is a perfect time for confirmation candidates to volunteer! There are two different breakout times for volunteering, 9:00 - 12:00 and 12:00 - 3:00.

Saturday, November 13, is the high school bowling outing! We will meet at the church about 6:05 p.m. and carpool together. Cost will be about $10 for the night. If your child plans to eat, it will be about $20.

Sunday, November 13, we will have our Confirmation "Day of Reflection". This day is mandatory for Confirmation children. It is from 12:00 - 6:00 p.m. at the Church (change of location). If each child could bring a side dish, it would help a lot! Please let me know what you are bringing. Our usual Sunday morning class will be held during the retreat.

Sunday, November 20, the middle school students are going to Orange Leaf and Monster Mini Golfing. We will meet after 10:30 Mass and carpool together returning to church between 3:00 - 4:00 p.m. Participants will need $10 for the day. I will also need help with driving. Please contact me if you would like to attend or can drive!

Any questions about any of the above can be directed to Beth Dieckmann.

We were happy to see all the young saints-in-the-making who joined us for the parish All-Saint's Day party last Sunday. We're glad you had fun with us! Thanks to Kira Wray for her work organizing the event, and the moms and teens who helped.

There will be no religious education classes on the final Sunday of this month, November 27, due to the Thanksgiving holiday.

Parents: while you are waiting to pick up your child (ren) feel free to peruse the various periodicals on the bookcase in the hallway.

Schedule reminder - "Oremus: Let Us Pray" classes will meet on Sundays, November 6, 13, and 20. Wednesday classes will meet November 9, 16, 30 - but not on November 23.

Level 2 families: your child(ren) will participate in the sacrament of reconciliation on Wednesday, December 14. Please be working in the workbook throughout the month to help prepare your young Catholic(s).
