"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"Here am I, Lord; I come to do Your will." This refrain from today's responsorial psalm is a beautiful prayer for all believers as this brief bit of Ordinary Time opens before us.

Today, as baptized and practicing Catholics, how fitting that we hear all about being "called." All three readings speak of listening and following the voice of God. We also hear today the Lord Jesus call the Apostles to follow Him. It's as if the Liturgy of the Word is speaking directly to us...and, your know what? It is!

In the same manner, through His holy word, the Lord Jesus calls each and every one of us into service for the sake of His Kingdom. As we often hear, whether or not that is as dedicated, faithful married folk, a chaste single life, or as priests or religious, each one of us has been called by Christ!

There is an age-old axiom in the Church universal: "how we pray shows how we believe," and it rings as true today as it ever has. I truly believe that more and more Catholics throughout the world, are coming to a deeper and clearer understanding of both What and Who the Mass is! The more we believe that, as a recent convert to the Catholic Faith put it so very well, "when we enter the doors of the church, it becomes all about HIM; not me; not about my desires, likes or dislikes," then we are grasping the true meaning of the Mass. Remember, we are all still learning!

In closing, I would like to mention a future topic I plan on addressing here in my Pastor's Column....that is the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick. Even among active, participating Catholics, there is much misunderstanding about this holy Sacrament.

May our Lord's richest blessings and grace be upon us!

Father Mike

Christmas Store Thank You

We would like to express our gratitude to all the parishioners of Mary Queen of Peace who donated new toys, clothing, and household items this past December to Catholic Charities' Christmas Store of Indianapolis!

We provide each child with new clothing, winter hats and gloves/mittens, socks, underwear, and toys/teen gifts. Without our/your help, these families would have nothing for Christmas. You have, indeed, touched so many people's hearts.

Special thanks go to Candace Monzingo and the Friends of Saint Anthony for organizing and promoting your donation drive. Special thanks also go to the group of parishioners led by Mary Williams who came for the second year to the Christmas Store and assisted our clients with their shopping with empathy and grace.

Words are not really adequate to express our gratitude to you all. We hope you had a wonderful Christmas, made even better by the knowledge that you were instrumental in helping provide Christmas to so many families less fortunate than yourselves. Please help us do it all again next year!

Nancy Hollinden for the Volunteers of the Christmas Store

The spring adult education class studying our Blessed Mother is beginning this week (Sunday morning or Wednesday evening this week/Thursday evening thereafter). Anyone may still join the class, and we will order another book to arrive quickly. (We'll copy pages until then.) Call Matthew Fallon in the office to get connected.

Have you wondered just what and how much our Archdiocese thinks we should know of our faith? Take the general survey test that is given to high school students to gauge their knowledge, attitudes and practices of Catholicism, to find out what is considered necessary for our young believers. A (confidential) individual results report will be available. If you missed the test session this Sunday morning, you may come in Monday evening, January 16! The meeting place has changed to the RE building, but the time is still at 7:30 p.m. We should be done by 9:00 p.m. at the latest.
