"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

The Gospel today tells us that Jesus "called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed Him." The call of the first of the Apostles, heard in today's Gospel, is always placed at the beginning of this span called Ordinary Time as a reminder to us all that WE, TOO, have been called by Jesus and must make a response.

Saint Paul, whose response to the Lord's call resulted in a dramatic conversion, reminds us that we all "belong to Christ." We belong to Him primarily through our Baptism, at which we were made members of His Mystical Body, the Church. We are nourished throughout our lives with His Sacred Body and Blood and cleansed of sin through His gift of Penance. What a life! What a gift! What a responsibility to live!

This, then, is our call from Jesus. Perhaps we could reflect today and at times of prayer this week on how we have responded to the Lord's call to "Come, follow Me." Let's do so!

Now a note on the Sacrament of the Sick. Formally known as "Extreme Unction" or the "Last Rites," this Sacrament is offered to individuals as a Sacrament of healing and strength. Whether it is before serious surgery, chronic illness or sudden need, the Sacrament provides us with the grace of the Lord's healing mercy.

One aspect that is misunderstood is this: in order for the grace of the Sacrament to have an effect of spiritual and physical benefit, the person themselves needs to make manifest a belief in the efficacy of the Sacrament. In other words, if someone has not lived their Catholic Faith and has no intention of returning to its practice, should they be able to do so, then the Sacramental grace is not conferred. This would reduce the Sacrament to mere superstition or "magic." Another aspect, while it is certainly understandable that members of the individual's family would like the person to be anointed, again, if the person themselves has not manifested any desire to receive the Sacrament or does not intend to live their Catholic Faith, the graces of the Sacrament are not conferred.

Similarly, if one were to approach the Sacrament of Penance without true contrition and purpose of amendment, the grace of absolution would not be conferred. One might "fool" the priest, but one cannot fool God. Again, the Sacraments of Christ are not magic or superstition.

Give thanks for the gifts that Jesus Christ has given to His Church!

Father Mike

Friends of St. Anthony

We are asking for donations of cat/dog food to take to the homeless men and women for their beloved pets. They are also in need of gently used or new leashes, collars, and chew bones. You might ask why do they have pets if they can't take care of themselves. Their pets give them joy, peace, security, companionship, and warmth. All of the pets we have met have been fixed and are not contributing to the population of strays running loose.

You can donate opened bags and cans of food even if they are expired up to (6) months. If you wish you can contribute a Walmart or Kroger gift card in an envelope. Place these items in the basket inside the church doors. Thank you for your donations.
