"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

To begin, a big thank you to everyone who made our visiting missionary priest feel at home at St. Mary's this weekend! Every priest that visits here comments on how friendly folks are and welcoming. I know he appreciated your kindness very much!

"I belong to Christ." This statement, taken from today's second reading, sums up the message of today's Mass. Each year, the first few weeks in Ordinary Time include passages about the call of the first disciples.

It sometimes seems unbelievable or startling how immediately these first chosen ones of Jesus abandon everything to follow Jesus, to "belong to Christ." And just what exactly does "belonging to Christ" entail?

The passage from the prophet Isaiah, quoted by St. Matthew in today's Gospel, says it all: "The people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death, light has arisen."

As we hear of the call of the first apostles, let us remember the call made to US at the moment of our baptism, at moments we celebrate the sacrament of penance, at those graced moments after receiving our Lord in Holy Eucharist, the call that brings us out of the darkness of sin into the light of redemption in Christ Jesus our Lord!

Remember, this coming First Friday is the upcoming feast of St. Blase, Bishop and Martyr on February 3rd. We will offer the annual blessing of throats at Mass offered at 8:30 a.m. It also happens to be First Friday therefore we will be observing Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 8:15 a.m. before the start of the Mass. Hope to see many of you there!

Stay warm, pray much and attend Mass! It will warm the cockles of your heart! God Bless You All!

Father Mike

"He is there!

He Who loves us

So much!"

St. John Vianney

Adoration: Thursday 6:00-9:00 p.m.

Benediction: Friday 8:15 a.m.

Friends of St. Anthony

We are asking for donations of cat/dog food to take to the homeless men and women for their beloved pets. They are also in need of gently used or new leashes, collars, and chew bones. You might ask why do they have pets if they can't take care of themselves. Their pets give them joy, peace, security, companionship, and warmth. All of the pets we have met have been fixed and are not contributing to the population of strays running loose.

You can donate opened bags and cans of food even if they are expired up to (6) months. If you wish you can contribute a Walmart or Kroger gift card in an envelope. Place these items in the basket inside the church doors. Thank you for your donations.

Do you have difficulty attending religious education classes at the church? Do you want to learn more about the faith, but need the flexibility of independent study? This website may be just what you need: formed.org. The Augustine Institute has developed a subscription website where all their material is available at all times: instructional talks and studies, videos, inspirational movies, etc. The fee is only $10 per month, or $100 annually. Take a preview look at: formed.org

A parent meeting of the Level 2 class which is preparing to receive the sacrament of the Eucharist will be held Wednesday, February 15, at 7:30 p.m. We will meet in the lower level of the church. Our Beginning Eucharist Investiture Service will take place the following Sunday after the 8:00 a.m. Mass.

Is your child interested in going to confession - are they seeking the peace and comfort of God's forgiveness and renewal? Might they do so if you offered them the chance? Confessions are heard every Saturday from 3:30-4:30, before the 5:00 p.m. Mass. Additionally, Reconciliation will be available at this year's Parish Mission, March 12-15. God's love is always ready when you are!

Planning ahead: our Level 2 class will celebrate the Eucharist for the first time on April 30th, at the 10:30 Mass. There will be lots of family and friends attending; seating will be at a premium. If you would like to plan to attend another of the weekend Masses it would be a win-win!
