"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

I can't think of anyone who hasn't wrestled with how to handle someone they know can't stand them. In today's Gospel, such a person is referred to as an "enemy."

The words Jesus spoke were contrary to common belief and cultural practice. In other words, if someone wronged you, you not only had the right to exact revenge, you were expected to do so! As humbling as it may be, we must admit that there remains a part in each one of us that feels and believes the same way, isn't there? We know we should feel differently, but when wronged, especially with no justification, it is so very difficult to "let go and let God."

It should come as no surprise to any of us that without the grace of God, we can never forgive; it's simply not in our make-up to do so. We are fallible human beings. Without His grace, we won't be able to do it, plain and simple. Rather than bringing us down in despair, we, as people of faith, should rejoice in this truth. We know that "with God, all things are possible."

Jesus promises us that if we acknowledge our need; acknowledge our need of His grace, we can be changed from a people seeking revenge to a people of faith! But, it's still hard to do!

I think one way Jesus allows His grace to work within us in situations like these, is when we are able to recognize that when someone hurts us and continues to do so, they are saying much more about their hearts and their lives than whatever "the issue" may be on their minds. In other words, we may be object of their derision or scorn, but it is they who are in need of healing. When you see someone scowling all the time; someone who never speaks a word of welcome, then you can be certain that their life contains much suffering; real or imagined. Rather than feel slighted, it's our call to pray for them. And, this is sometimes much more difficult to do than it sounds, right? It is possible however.

This weekend, let us ask the good God to strengthen our desire to be a people of forgiveness; not revenge.

May God, Who has begun this good work in us, bring it to completion!

Father Mike

Food Drive

Cub Scout Troop 310, Wolf den, is doing a food drive during the month of February for Shared Blessings food pantry. There will be a box in the church entryway to drop any non-perishable food items. Thanks much!

The parish will be offering a new study beginning in Lent: The Mass Readings Explained, by Dr. Brant Pitre. In 20-30 minutes, the Bible readings to be used in the Mass that Sunday will be explained by the historical, cultural, and theological context used by the writers of the Holy Scriptures. Each week is an independent session, no weekly commitment is required to attend any/all sessions. A Wednesday morning session at 10:00 and a Wednesday evening session at 7:30 will be offered. Appointments are also possible. To help defray the cost of the parish subscription to this study, all participants will be asked for a yearly fee of $5. One may attend every week on that one-time fee of $5. Contact Matthew in the office for more information, or find a sign-up form on the church bulletin boards in the narthex and at the top of the stairs.

The Level 7 class will be re-creating the Stations of the Cross in the parking lot for our RE classes on Sunday, April 2. The entire parish is also invited to join us in this devotional prayer that day at 9:10 a.m.

Project Rice Bowl is coming for Lent. This act of personal sacrifice for others helps your spiritual growth, and provides needed help to people from here to Timbuktu. Look for your own 'rice bowl' at religious education class, or in the narthex next week. All parishioners are invited to participate in this program from Catholic Relief Services - our own Church charity.

His mercy is greater than our sin.”
