1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

This weekend's Gospel is a tough one. Jesus tells us: "Do not worry about your life." If it were only that easy, right? He tells us of the birds of the air and reminds us that our Father provides all life. So, why then worry?

Though He doesn't come out and say so, I believe it is because of Original Sin that we worry and fret so much. In the innocence of created beauty, Adam and Eve had nothing to worry about. In today's lingo, they had it made! But then, they chose sin and they "covered themselves because they were naked." It is the way Genesis describes the lasting effects of their choice of sin; they were no longer innocent and thus ashamed.

It is true however, that the more we can place our trust in Christ Jesus, the more we experience a freedom from worry. Short this side of heaven, I don't believe that we ever set aside all worry, but it becomes manageable; it no longer controls us. Another way of saying it is, God's grace takes over.

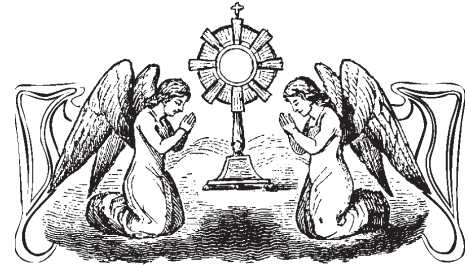

It is also true that each of us fails to ask the Lord to take worries from our hearts. I heard a wise priest say once that we all fail to specifically ask the Lord for the grace we need in regard to specific things. We seem to believe that to do so shows we are trying to tell God what is important and what is not. But, remember, we do believe in "actual grace." Now, remember what that grace is? In case you don't, it simply means the graces we need to address a specific issue or factor in our lives. Actual grace is not magic; we don't pray to make a free throw in a basketball game, for example, and then lose all faith if we don't make it. No, I'm speaking of specific temptations, specific healings, specific peoples or purposes in our lives in which we can and should call upon the Lord for His grace to assist us....that is actual grace.

Today's Gospel offers us the perfect opportunity to remind ourselves of this treasury given to us by Christ Jesus. Let's do so!

FINALLY, it is time for ASH WEDNESDAY! Masses will be offered, along with distribution of ashes on Wednesday, March 1, at NOON and at 7:00 p.m. Let us begin this holy season of renewal, repentance and grace with open hearts and generosity to the Lord's guidance! AND, don't forget that the STATIONS OF THE CROSS will be prayed each Friday of Lent at 6:00 p.m.

Father Mike

"He is there!

He Who loves us

So much!"
