Called By Name

Our parish and other parishes in the Indianapolis North and West Deaneries are participating in CALLED BY NAME, a program of vocations awareness that begins this weekend. This program offers an opportunity for us to pray for priestly and religious vocations; to recognize gifts and potential for leadership and service in members of our parish; and finally, to call forth and encourage these members to share their gifts in the priesthood or consecrated life. Perhaps you know a young man or woman (14 years of age or older) who would, in your opinion, have the qualities to become a priest or religious. Please recommend this person by filling out the response card found in the bulletin. Next weekend, place the completed card in the collection basket. Nominations can also be submitted online at www.HearGodsCall.com.

*In Honor of our Blessed Mother
Mary, Queen of Peace,
The Sacred Heart of Jesus,
or St. Joseph*

The Leondis Family

If you would like to make a donation for fresh flowers to be placed before one of the statues in the church, please use the envelopes that are located in the vestibule. Donations will be accepted in honor of our Blessed Mother, Mary, Queen of Peace, The Sacred Heart of Jesus, or St. Joseph and given in the name of whomever you choose. Envelopes can be dropped in the collection. Thank you, The Liturgy Committee

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Do you seek light in your life, healing for your wounds, answers to your prayers? Who doesn't, right?

Isaiah tells us in the first reading today, that we shall receive all this and much more, if, and that's a big "if," we do the will of God. Sounds simple enough, doesn't it?

Isaiah spells out for us just how to do His will: share our bread with others, cloth the naked, remove false accusations and malicious speech. Each of us can do these things; it doesn't take a nuclear physicist to figure out what he's telling us to do.

St. Paul tells us these things are possible only through the cross of Jesus Christ. In other words, it is the truth of Christ that emboldens each of us to live as He calls us to live.

We make things so hard for ourselves most of the time. How so? Jesus has given us all truth, all life. These are given us in our day through His Bride, the Church. Why do we not embrace His truth, His life? We would rather stand and knock our heads against the wall, so to speak, rather than humble ourselves and admit that Christ and His Church know best; not me.

Christ is the Light of the world! When He calls us that in the Gospel, He isn't saying that "it's all about you." We are not the Light that saves men's souls.....He is! He is telling us that we must share His light with others; bring others to Him. That is our call; that is our privilege!

We live in a day and time when everyone thinks that he or she knows best; "I'll follow my conscience," if they even think in those terms. However, one's conscience must be "formed" by the teaching of Jesus Christ and yes, His Church, in order to be formed correctly. As I heard a priest say one time: "...we can do things one of two ways. Either we humbly follow the way of Christ or we do not. One way is "easy," One is not." Pretty sage advice really.

The Building Committee of the Parish Council is moving ahead. We are in process of soon beginning a "feasibility study" to ascertain level of interest in the general parish for enlarged facilities, such as a Family Life Center, remodeled classrooms and office space. More, of course, will be forthcoming and each registered household will be contacted. We desperately need more space here at SMQP and deferred maintenance must be addressed. Do you know for example, that the costs of operating the 1954 building are MORE than all the other facilities we have in total? Hey, I am from 1954 and I know it costs more to keep me operating!

God's blessings upon you all!

Father Mike

Retrouvaille: Help for hurting marriages: Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) is not a spiritual retreat, sensitivity group, seminar, or social gathering. Retrouvaille is a worldwide program that teaches couples how to rediscover each other and work through difficult times in their marriages. This program offers an opportunity for you and your spouse to work privately on your marriage.

During the weekend phase of Retrouvaille, a series of presentations are given by a team of three couples and a priest. The team presents a technique of communication that enables you to take a good look at most areas of your relationship. After each presentation you have time in the privacy of your room to dialog about concepts from the presentation.

Tens of thousands of couples headed for divorce have successfully saved their marriages by attending the weekend and follow-up sessions. To learn more about the program or to register for the February 24-26 weekend and follow-up post-weekend sessions in Indianapolis, visit the website at www.HelpOurMarriage.com or www.retrouvaille.org. You can also email: Retrouvaille@gmail.com or call 317-489-6811 for confidential registration information.

Friends of St. Anthony

We are asking for donations of cat/dog food to take to the homeless men and women for their beloved pets. They are also in need of gently used or new leashes, collars, and chew bones. You might ask why do they have pets if they can't take care of themselves. Their pets give them joy, peace, security, companionship, and warmth. All of the pets we have met have been fixed and are not contributing to the population of strays running loose.

You can donate opened bags and cans of food even if they are expired up to (6) months. If you wish you can contribute a Walmart or Kroger gift card in an envelope. Place these items in the basket inside the church doors. Thank you for your donations.

Do you have difficulty attending religious education classes at the church? Do you want to learn more about the faith, but need the flexibility of independent study? This website may be just what you need: formed.org. The Augustine Institute has developed a subscription website where all their material is available at all times: instructional talks and studies, videos, inspirational movies, etc. The fee is only $10 per month, or $100 annually. Take a preview look at: formed.org

Planning ahead: our Level 2 class will celebrate the Eucharist for the first time on April 30th, at the 10:30 Mass. There will be lots of family and friends attending; seating will be at a premium. If you would like to plan to attend another of the weekend Masses it would be a win-win!

Hey Moms! Life is hectic and stressful sometimes-take a refreshing break at the Retreat for Busy Catholic Moms. The Sisters of Providence are hosting a weekend of sharing, prayer, reflection and laughter, to leave you rejuvenated and ready to face the challenges in your life. It will be held at Saint-Mary-of-the-Woods in Terre Haute, from 7:00 p.m. on Friday, February 17, until 1:30 p.m. on Sunday, February 19. Cost is $225 for boarders, and $125 for commuters.

The parish will be offering a new study beginning in Lent: The Mass Readings Explained, by Dr. Brant Pitre. In 20-30 minutes, the Bible readings to be used in the Mass that Sunday will be explained by the historical, cultural, and theological context used by the writers of the Holy Scriptures. Each week is an independent session, no weekly commitment is required to attend any/all sessions. A weekly morning and evening session will be offered, to be announced soon. To help defray the cost of the parish subscription to this study, all participants will be asked for a yearly fee of $5. One may attend every week on that one-time fee of $5. Contact Matthew in the office for more information, or find a sign-up form on the church bulletin boards in the narthex and at the top of the stairs.
