1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

As our Easter Season continues to unfold, we are invited once more to ponder the mystery of the Resurrection. St. Peter's inspiring words in the first reading call us to an unwavering Easter faith.

St. Peter urges us to hold fast to the things that truly matter, namely the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ. In other words, to the Holy Eucharist. We also join the disciples on the road to Emmaus.

On that journey, which is actually a microcosm of a lifetime's journey of faith, we are reminded that it is in the "breaking of the bread," again the Holy Eucharist, that we encounter the very Presence of the risen Christ! Here we find Him in one another, in the sacred word proclaimed and preached. Here we are called to receive Him, truly present, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity, in Holy Communion! Let us always come with grateful hearts to this most Sacred Banquet!

Part and parcel of coming with grateful hearts to the celebration of the Holy Mass, is to come with hearts filled with humility as well. A grateful heart is a humble heart. Far too often we come to Holy Mass with our minds totally pre-occupied with other things. Naturally, part of this is human reality; we are beset with issues, problems, joys and sufferings. Between all those and the economy, it's a wonder we can center ourselves on the Divine Mystery unfolding among us at all! But, that is our sacred call. We do well to remember, as did the disciples who recognized Jesus "in the breaking of the Bread," that this unfolding; this Presence among us comes to us on HIS terms, not our own.

In other words, the Holy Mass is celebrated according to the norms of the Church, not your personal preference; or my own for that matter. How much more we would all gain from the Holy Mass if we would humble ourselves to accept It as It is given us by the Holy Church, rather than It NOT coming to us according to my personal desires or tastes. When we open our hearts, truly open our hearts to Sacred Mystery, we gain so much. So much so, that at the time, we may not even recognize the fact that we are receiving. But, receive we certainly do!

As the disciples on the way to Emmaus humbly came to see and know Jesus, so may we all do the same! God help us to do so!

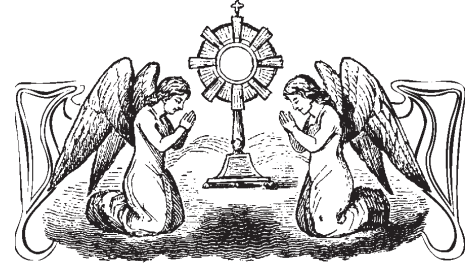

And, of course, on this special weekend, we congratulate our First Communion boys and girls: Andrew Bratt, Jakob Colclasure, Cawood Florence, Eva Florence, Sean Hartley, Dylan Haught, George Laranja, Oliver Riggs, Theo Pritchett, Chloe Semler, Angel Snively, and Logan Thompson. May the Risen Eucharistic Christ continue to lead and guide them all through the guidance of the Holy Mass!

Are you interested in being of service to your parish family? Both the Finance Committee and Faith Formation Commission could use a couple new members! If interested, contact either Paul Adams for Finance or Dave Adams for Faith Formation. Pray about it!

Christ has Risen; Indeed He has Risen!!

Father Michael Lutz

"He is there!

He Who loves us

So much!"
